"Old Maids for Sale."

The Epworth League of Centenary M. E. Church will have a gathering at the parsonage tomorrow night for the purpose of disposing of "old maids." They will be said in his special sermon to ladies, sab-bath before last, that old maids were the best and purcet human beings he knew. Was he aiming to create a boom in market for them with this sale in view?

Bonds of County Officers Acted Upon. The county commissioners accepted the ond of J. P. Stanly, col., as constable of Winston, N. C., Chas. W. Rieff, Phila.; this township, and of H. J. Lovick as county surveyor. They rejected the prof-fered bond of Mr. W. E. Clarke, for J. C. Wagner, Kinston, N. C. Clerk of the Superior Court, of J. M. Harrison, for Register of Deeds; of Dr. W. L. Lassiter, col., for Coroner, and of Meyer Hahn, for Treasurer. Jos. L. Hahn, Sacriff-elect, asked for more time and was granted until the first of January to complete his bond.
