NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Lost—A sky terrier dog. Nunn & McGorley.—Fat Turkeys. D. Hassell—Loyalty and Justice. John Dunn, Hackburn & Willett—Combustion fireworks.

COTTON SALES. Saturday—75 Bales 4.50 to 5c.

Fair and colder weather to-day, is predicted by the weather bureau.

The Knitting Factory shut down yesterday for Christmas. It will resume operations the first Monday in January.

Mrs. Sallie A. Hudson, wife of Mr. Sam'l Hudson, has been appointed postmaster at Pollockville, vs. J. H. Bell resigned.

Our Hebrews will hold services this evening at 7 o'clock, it being the Feast of Tabernacles.

Mr. E. C. Dewey, a native of New Berne has been appointed postmaster at Swannanoa.

For the benefit of Children, (who of course haven't thought of the fact) we would inform them next Tuesday is Christmas.

A number of ship-carpenters who have been employed in Wilmington passed through to spend Christmas at their homes in Morehead and Beaufort.

Our Bogue Sound correspondent tells of the plentifulness of good hogs—we hope some from that neighborhood will be shown at the Fair which commences here February 18th.

Mr. A. M. Baker is back in the city for awhile. He has been spending a few months at and near Cambridge, Md. He speaks of Cambridge as quite an oyster town and says 800,000 bushels are opened there per year and the effects can be seen in hard-shelled roads all around.

Rev. J. T. Lyon will occupy the pulpit of Centenary church to-day and to-night and this will be his last sabbath here. He expects to leave next Thursday for his new appointment, Rockingham. Rev. L. L. Nash who takes his place will move in during the week and be ready for next Sabbath.

Prof. Kramer, the noted young bicycle expert trick rider, who is now in the city, gave one of his remarkable performances in front of the Albert last night in the presence of a large and admiring crowd. He does, it seems everything that can be done on a bicycle and many things that seem impossible. He is a wonder.

Mr. John C. Whitty's little daughter, Mary, met with the painful accident yesterday of breaking her arm near the wrist. It happened by her falling from a goat cart while she and some other children were playing. Drs. Frank Duffy and J. W. Duguid gave the necessary surgical attention, leaving her as comfortable as they could make her.

Ex-Mayor A. G. Ricard of Wilmington, has been appointed receiver of the First National Bank of Wilmington, in the place of W. S. O'B Robinson, who was elected Superior court judge. Mr. Ricard is a fine lawyer and has the perfect confidence of the people, so his selection is an admirable one. He is a son of Rev. T. P. Ricard, formerly pastor of Hancock Street M. E. Church in this city.

To be Married. Mr. Horace Gabelle, superintendent of the New Berne Knitting Mills, left yesterday for his home in Philadelphia to spend Christmas at home and also on a more important mission. Having concluded that it is not good for man to be alone he will take a life partner before he returns. On the 2d of January he is to wed Miss Miriam P. Sellers of Philadelphia. They are to arrive in New Berne on the 5th.

Christmas Times. Lively trading in preparations for Christmas is now in progress and New Berne business places were presenting a gay appearance last night. Pollock street especially was lit up almost as if for an illumination at the time of some special celebration, while the stores inside and in front presented a gala attire with carefully selected evergreens and gay flags well arranged.

Messrs. Hackburn & Willett and John Dunn intend to make matters still livelier by a good display of fire works on Pollock street Monday night.

Big Oyster Shipments. Messrs. Geo N. Ives & Son are now sending off the largest shipments of opened oysters that ever left New Berne, probably that were ever made in the state. During the last two days they have shipped over 700 gallons. Yesterdays shipments were over three hundred gallons and they have orders now for 420 gallons to go off Monday morning. They will begin the work of opening them at midnight to-night.

The oysters are very fine this season and the shuckers are making good wages. Messrs. Ives and Son are working about 40 of the shuckers.

The oysters are going all over the State and also to South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee.

The only original "Coxy" Graham! Have you seen him? He will be with the Wilmington Naval Reserves' Minstrel in their performance on Christmas night. See him and you will never forget him! The minstrels are sure to be here with a delightful first part, rich, rare and spicy specialties.

The Messenger says that the soloists are exceptionally clever, and that lovers of music will miss a rare chance if they fail to hear Bert Cooper.

They will arrive here about 12 o'clock Tuesday and will parade from the train. If you want to laugh, see this parade, it will help a good dinner.

Loyalty and Justice. New Berne, N. C., Dec. 23, '94. To the JOURNAL and the Good Citizens of New Berne: I bespeak Loyalty and Justice, and thank you for your past patronage. Very Respectfully, D. HAZELL.

THE GOLD MEDAL AWARDED.

Mr. J. W. Daniels Secures the Prize for Greatest Improvement in Prof. W. L. Smith's Writing School.

NEW BERNE, N. C. Dec. 22nd, '94. Prof. W. L. Smith:—We have examined specimens sent us from your writing class, and our opinion is that the greatest improvement has been made by J. W. Daniels.

We wish to mention however that A. H. Barrington has made such marked improvement that he is deserving of special mention.

Your entire class, we think have done well and we commend your work. Very respectfully, E. H. BARNUM, J. E. LATHAM, Committee. A. H. POWELL.

The report of the committee covers the four weeks time that Prof. Smith has been giving writing lessons in New Berne.

Mr. Smith has been so kind to remain and take another class but has decided yet whether he will or not. The scholars themselves are well pleased with the instruction they have received. The emphasis which Prof. Smith puts upon correct and easy position and movement is the strong point in his instruction. With these properly acquired, the formation of the letters in any style desired, becomes, with a little practice, a matter of comparative ease.

We are satisfied Prof. Smith deserves good patronage.

Coming and Going. Mrs. Annie Stevenson is home from St. Mary's for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Herbert Ford of Mullins, S. C., arrived to visit his uncle, Rev. Rufus Ford.

Mr. Willie Stallings went up to his old home at Wilson to spend the holidays.

Dr. E. H. Goldberg, who has been in Onslow county a few days in the practice of his profession, returned to the city last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Manly arrived to spend Christmas with their relatives.

Mrs. T. J. Turner, went to Kinston to spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. C. T. Randolph.

Miss Beulah Forey, a pupil of the Normal and Industrial college, Greensboro, passed through last night en route to her home at Beaufort to spend the holidays.

Mrs. W. F. Kornegy of Goldsboro, arrived to visit at Mr. W. B. B. y's.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pugh of Goldsboro, arrived to spend Christmas with their parents in the city.

Mr. R. W. Wallace and Mr. E. L. Willis passed through en route from the North to spend Christmas at their homes.

Mr. W. A. Sanders, formerly of Beaufort, now a New York dealer in oysters and clams, and Mr. C. L. Dickinson of Beaufort, who is also in the same business in New York and his son Mr. Clyde Dickinson, Jr., who has been buying for him at Southport passed through to spend Christmas in Beaufort.

Mr. John A. Hannum, of West Chester, Pa., and Dr. Chas. F. Oat, who have been spending a couple of weeks hunting at Adams creek, returned yesterday and are at the Chatterbox. They express themselves highly pleased with the opportunities for sport afforded by the abundance and variety of game.

Miss Sadie Guy, who stopped over with her aunt, Mrs. W. B. Goodwin, went on to her home at Genes Stock Farm yesterday, Miss Doyen, art teacher from the seminary, accompanying her, also Miss Lizzie Gooding; Mrs. Guy and Miss Augusta Crapon went down for the day, returning last night.

Young New Bernians and the President. Our young townsman Mr. John E. Whitford, now at Georgetown with his uncle, Capt. Reid Whitford in Government River and Harbor Improvement work was in charge of the boat that took the President to the light house and by invitation became one of the party on the boat.

His sister, Mrs. Chas. William Bailey nee Miss John Whitford, also met and had a very pleasant interview with the President, besides participating in the reception.

MARRIED. At the residence of Mr. B. F. Taylor on Bogue Sound, Carteret county, Wednesday evening the 19th inst., Mr. J. Westley Guthrie, led to the hymeneal altar, Miss Addie, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Taylor, Esquire Jas. B. Howard tying the knot.

Mr. Guthrie has just completed his cage, a pretty dwelling on the Sound, to carry his fair prize to, we wish them abundant success and prosperity through life. W.

N. C. TEACHER'S ASSEMBLY.

Executive Committee Meets on the 20th to Arrange Programme, etc.—June 21st to July 1st the Date.

The new Executive committee of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly will meet in Raleigh, Dec. 20, to arrange the programme for the session next June. The N. C. Teacher says that several distinguished speakers from abroad have already been secured, and the programme will present a great many new features and valuable attractions. The session is expected to be a very successful one, and the work will comprise the very best that can be done by our very best teachers.

The daily work will include a "Model Primary Class," in charge of one of the most eminently successful primary teachers in North Carolina, and this work, it is said, will be worth a year of the ordinary young teacher. Be on your guard to arrange your plans for attending the Assembly next summer from June 21 to July 1, and it will be a season well spent.

The Executive committee will decide as to whether the next session will be at the seaside or in the mountains.

NEWS IN BRIEF. After all ex-President Harrison may conclude that being Secretary of State is more to his taste.

If men didn't get sick and tired of boarding-houses there would be very few marriages. Stewed peas drive lots of you to matrimony, insists the Avonboro Globe.

Rockingham farmers are planting a great deal more grain this year than in previous years. Some few speak of planting next year in preference to raising 5000 cotton.

Rudyard Kipling, after sending his first two or three stories to nearly every publisher in England, finally sold them for $15. His last story brought him $1,000 for the English rights alone.

The New England Society, of Charleston, S. C., will celebrate its 50th anniversary to-morrow, and for the first time in its history, a Southerner, Charles M. Steadman, of Wilmington, N. C., will be one of the orators.

The British steamer Abworth cleared yesterday from Charleston, S. C., for Bremen with a cargo of 10,874 bales of cotton, the largest cargo of cotton ever shipped from that port.

Robert J. Aldrich was found dead on a railroad track near St. Augustine, Fla. It is supposed he was killed by a passing train while drunk and asleep. His mother lives at Barnell, S. C.

The Montgomery (Ala.) Cotton Mill is putting new machinery in its plant which will about double its present capacity. It is also preparing to run night and day to keep up with orders.

It has been practically decided by Secretary Herbert to send the cruiser Marblehead to the European station as soon as she can be made ready for a three year cruise. It is understood that this pleasant duty is given to the officers of the ship as reward for their Summer stay at Bluefield.

It is learned that there will be no fewer than fourteen contests for seats in the Legislature, and that only three of these are by Populists, the remainder being by Republicans. This is one of the reasons upon which the Republicans base their claim, that they will have more members than the Populists.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

North Carolina Personal—After 95-96—McCormack Arrives—Adjourning—Today's Record.

Hon. John S. Henderson tells me that the bill is not a shadow of foundation for the floor that he will leave Salisbury, and come here to practice law. I never believed it for a minute. John Henderson will "hang out his shingle" in the old town of Salisbury, after March 4th and if anybody gets law practice by hard work and ability he will.

Governor Carr says "our Mary Ann" was here to practice law. He says there may not have been a written "fusion" contract, but there is an understanding that will hold good.

Hon. Harry Skinner is here. He is better looking than his more able brother, Hon. Tom Skinner, and impresses me as being a very pleasant gentleman. He was sitting in the lobby of the Metropolitan Hotel yesterday talking to Mr. Pell about North Carolina politics. A Texas assessor overheard them and interposed this remark: "I see you two are North Carolinians. Is a State I like, and I want to know why you let the d—d fusionists beat you?" Mr. Pell quietly turned and said: "Here is one of them, sir. Don't be too free in your remarks, though we Democrats feel as much like cussing as you do."

Some things have transpired here lately suggest a scheme is on foot to elect Judge Russell and H. G. Ewart United States Senators next month.

Congress adjourns to-morrow to meet January 2d.

Only the House was in session to-day. A substitute for the Carlisle Currency Bill will be passed after the recess in which the National Banking System, other changes are contemplated.

EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE. Its Annual Week of Prayer and the Topics for Each Day.

The week of prayer appointed by the Evangelical Alliance for 1895 begins on Jan. 23. All the Churches of our Lord Jesus Christ are invited to unite their supplications at the beginning of the new year for the common interests of the Church of Christ. The general subjects are the same throughout the world. For a full list of sub-topics for the convenience of pastors and Churches, address Josiah Strong, D. D., General Secretary of the Evangelical Alliance for the United States, Fourth Avenue and Twenty-Third Street, New York City.

WILL COTTON Go HIGHER?

We have made a careful study of the past history and future prospects of the Cotton trade.

This has been a matter requiring a corps of experts whose reports from the belt bring us right up to date.

We are satisfied that the present price of Cotton is a false price and that it will change greatly in the near future.

This change in price means enormous profit to speculators who know which side of the market to choose.

We will furnish this valuable information free of cost.

Our large business has been built up by only trading when we have taken every precaution against failure and when we control sufficient capital ourselves to produce the market movement necessary for profit.

Money makes money and the more capital we have in hand to push along a trade the stronger our position in the market.

Our record of success is unbroken and we intend to keep it so.

To deal through us does not require any knowledge of speculation or market conditions.

Accounts opened from $10. upwards. Details of methods mailed free.
