DURHAM'S MURDERES A Position in Her Behalf-Very Few Think That She Will be

Sheriff O. G. Rose this ng and was shown the death arrant, issued yesterday by Gov. Onr, in accordance with which Kila Norwood is to be hanged on the 8 h of February. Ella was notified this morning by her counsel. Mr. F. A. Green, of the action of the Supreme Court in her case. She seemed but little affected, and only asked her consel about getting petition. He told her he would make every effort to secure the commutation of her sentence. Mr. Green has already secured the signatures of all the members of the Supreme Court beach except the North and East. one to a petition asking the Governor to commute the sentence. He will get up a very strong petition, and very few people here seem to think she will be hanged. Durham county has, I am told, never had either a hanging or lynching within its bounds .- Durham Cor. Mr. H. B. Tilden Busy Denying Some False Reports.

Mr. H. B. Tilden of High Point, N. C., who is now in Baltimore, at 250 Robert street, is busy denying that he is either missing or the victim of foul play.

Mr. Tilden recently returned sought his baggage again it was missing He notified the police and detectives and came to Balti-

It appears that shortly after he left New York a man named Max Mechela was arrested in New York and in his rooms was found Mr. Tilden's baggage, which included mining shares to the value of $45,-600. The New York police, instead of notifying Mr. Tilden, wrote to Greensboro, N. C., reciting the finding of the baggage and making inquiries for Mr. Tilden. Mr. Tilden was formerly a mining engineer at Greensboro, and there was papere in his baggage which gave Greensboro people wrote that Mr. Tilden was not there, and then the New York police started the story of missing and foul play, which appeared in a Baltimore morning paper. -Baltimore News.
