The Fishing Interest.

Good quantities of tresh fish are now coming up daily over the W. N. & N. Railroad to New Eerne shippers. There were two thousand fine trout up yesterday.

Sunday Capt, Ben Pigott, of the Viola, arrived from Beaufort with a cargo of mullets, small in size but large in quantity. He had 76'boxes-barrel boxes-of them In number there ware sixty-five thousand. This was as large a lot of fresh mullets as we ever knew to come in. Messrs. Fur-nie E. Gaskill & Co. purchased the whole lot.

wild Game in Abundance. The Kinston fishing and hunting party, formerly reported in the JOURNAL, came in on the W. N: & N. R. B. from Onslow county where they had been on a camping expedition. They brought back an abun-dance of fine game, and report splendid sport except that a big buck, in which they got in about ten feet of, proved too quick for their marksmanship, and was off like the wind before a single shot could be fired. be fired.

Two of our young townsmen, Messrs Sam Eaton and A. L. Bryan, also came in on the same train from Jones county with all the evidence of a successful hunt. Among their tropby was a large and bandsome fox. It was a fine specimen for the Fair.
