THE DAILY JOURNAL is published Daily except Sunday at $5.00 per year; $2.50 for six months. Delivered to city subscribers at 10 cents per month.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL is published every Thursday at $1.00 per year. Payment for transient advertisements must be made in advance.

Communications containing news of sufficient public interest are solicited. No communication must be expected to be published unless it contains objectionable personalities, or withholds the name of the author.

Advertisements under head of Business Local and Readers 10 cents per line for first insertion, 5 cents each subsequent insertion. Special rates for extended time.

Any person feeling aggrieved at any anonymous communication can obtain the name of the author by application at this office and showing wherein the grievance exists.

RULES ADOPTED BY THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESS ASSOCIATION. The sum of not less than five cents per line will be charged for "cards of thanks," "resolutions of respect" and obituary poetry, also for obituary notices other than those which the editor himself shall deem as a matter of news.

Notices of church and society and all other entertainments from which revenue is to be derived will be charged for at the rate of 5 cents a line.

THE JOURNAL.

E. E. HARPER, Proprietor. C. T. HANCOCK, Local Reporter.

Entered at the Post Office at New Bern, N. C., as second-class matter.

ELIMINATION.

Some one may say "My, what a subject! Does the JOURNAL man intend to try his hand on mathematics, and eliminate a quantity from a system of equations?"

Not at all, gentle reader. A word is an empty thing; or it may be heavily freighted. It may be a blank cartridge or a loaded magazine.

The elimination of which we speak has nothing to do with Algebraic quantities, but it relates to men, and its recent application is as disagreeable to us as it is pleasing to the eliminators.

At a time not very remote in the past, we were looking for "some good western man," for President, and our eyes fell lovingly on Boies, but while he was blooming into beauty and fragrance there came a chilling frost that eliminated him from the list of Presidential possibilities.

Then, thinking that the new States of the West, like young unbroken colts, were always uncertain, we turned to New York in the hope that David Bennett Hill would again become Governor of the Empire State and step from the gubernatorial mansion into the White House; but November's storm struck him midship, and he too was numbered with the eliminated.

Then, remembering that Pennsylvania was the birth-place of the Declaration of Independence and the key-stone of the Union, we looked thither and saw Robert Paterson standing under the tree that once sheltered William Penn and hope revived. Again and again he had been elected Governor of Pennsylvania, in the face of an overwhelming Republican majority, and we felt assured that he could win on the Presidential race course; but a local election tempted him, and defeat for the mayoralty of Philadelphia, lauded him among the eliminated, and now lies he there, and none so poor to do him reverence.

Is there any body who cannot be eliminated? No, not one. Man, poor frail man, has no promise of tomorrow. His future is an unknown quantity.

"But, is there nothing sure; nothing steadfast and enduring?" Yes: Principles!

The Democratic party must cease its worship of men who have "a local habitation and a name," and rest upon principles whose duration is eternal and whose residence is creation. There is no elimination of principles; sooner expect to see the earth from its firm foundation fly.

When Democratic principles disappear, if such be possible, Liberty will sleep the sleep that knows no waking.

The party has received shock after shock, and we have trembled as we have seen it in the storm, but its timbers are as unyielding as the rock-ribbed fortress of Gibraltar.

Men go down, but never did a Democratic chieftain fall while standing on the rock of Jefferson Democracy.

The Christian Church cannot be reduced by apostasy; neither can Democracy be subdued by treason. A man may leap over the battlements of Heaven and fall like a fiery thunderbolt to the sootiest hell, but the city of our God will stand, amid the wreck of matter and the crash of worlds, firm pilared as the Eternal Throne.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas our heavenly Father has taken out of this world the soul of our deceased brother, B. Gatlin, of Stonewall, N. C.; Therefore be it Resolved,

First: In his death we have lost one of our most esteemed and public spirited citizens, the Oboro and Sunday school one of their warmest and devoted supporters.

Second: That we tender our sympathies to his bereaved family, with the assurance while we can put nothing in wounds to bind up the broken hearts, we can heartily assure them our hearts are broken for them.

Third: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Board of Stewards, of which he was treasurer; a copy be spread upon the Sunday school minutes, he being the faithful sup; a copy be sent to the N. C. Christian Advocate, and the New Bern JOURNAL for publication, and also a copy be tendered to the bereaved family.

Signed, J. C. JONES, J. O. BUNDER, S. W. FEREBEE, Com.

KERSHAW CORRESPONDENCE.

Telling of What is Happening There and in the Country Round.

Trapping and shooting birds has been the principal work of the past week.

Mr. John Dunn was in the woods cutting wood last Thursday and fortunately killed a deer with his ax.

Mr. John Langston who left for Raleigh Tuesday the 6th to attend the Farmers, State alliance and visit the legislative halls returned Saturday.

Mr. C. H. Hodges has moved to China grove where he will work for his brother Dick.

There was lots of skating on the ice at Oriental during the freeze.

If You Want to be Loved. Don't find fault. Don't contradict people even if you're sure you are right.

Don't be inquisitive about the affairs of even your most intimate friend.

Don't underrate anything because you don't possess it.

Don't believe everybody else in the world is happier than you.

Don't conclude that you have never had any opportunities in life.

Don't believe all the evil you hear.

Don't repeat gossip, even if it does interest a crowd.

Don't go untidy on the plea that everybody knows you.

Don't be rude to your inferiors in social position.

Don't over or underdress.

Don't get in the habit of vulgarizing life by making light to the sentiment of it.

Don't jeer at anybody's religious belief.

Don't try to be anything else but a gentleman who has consideration for the whole world and whose life is governed by the Golden rule: "Do unto others as you would be done by."

Congressman Everett, of Massachusetts, gave Chicago a new name when he spoke of it as "the liver of the nation." There is an idea in some quarters that "gall" was meant.

Sale of Valuable Lands in Craven and Carteret Counties, North Carolina.

By virtue of a mortgage executed me by William T. Marice, John Marice and Henry Drake, dated the 10th day of November 1893, and registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of said Craven county, in book 112, folios 197 to 206, inclusive, and in the office of the Register of Deeds of said Carteret county in book R R pages 454 et seq., to which reference is made and the powers conferred on me by said mortgage, the undersigned will sell at public auction, for cash, at the court house in the city of New Bern, in said Craven county, on Saturday the 16th day of March, A. D. 1895, at 12 o'clock mid-day, the following lands:

1. All that certain tract of land situated in Craven county on the South side of Neuse river and west side of Adams creek, containing 100 acres more or less, and known as the Ireland lands, fully described in said mortgage.

2. Another parcel of land situated in said Craven county on the south side of Neuse river, on the east side and at the mouth of Adams' creek, embracing several tracts, containing 850 acres, more or less, known as the "Winthrop Place"—excepting therefrom twelve and 1/2 acres sold by John S. Winthrop to John H. Nelson.

3. Another parcel of land situated on the east side of South river and on Neuse river and Brown's creek, and Beard's creek, containing Two Thousand and Seven acres more or less, and known as the "Grove Tract" being the lands described in said mortgage under the number of parcels as number 3, and consisting of the four tracts fully described as No. 3 in said mortgage.
