"Poor clothes make unhappy faces." It is a well known fact that a man's emotions and surroundings will in time have an effect on his facial expressions. That is to say, if a man for any considerable time wears a raw-edge collar he will look unhappy, or if his trousers are fringed at the bottom, or if his coat is too tight in the back it will have the same effect. In your trouble come to us, we will try and help you out in Clothing, Shoes and Hats, Collars, Cuffs and Ties. If you need anything in this line call and see us, will do you right.

In the City of Elms and Vicinity, Gathered in and Briefly Told.

Over twenty were confirmed at the Episcopal church Sunday by Bishop Watson.

The Little Helpers will meet at Mrs.
George Henderson's today at 4 o'clock p. m.

In the suit of Beverly Scott against Mayor S. H. Fishblade, of Wilmington, for $8,000 damages for wrongful imprisonment, the verdict of the jury was unqualifiedly in favor of the mayor.

The St. Augustine Quartette Club, colored, will be at the Opera House tonight. The Board for selection of reserved seats is at Messrs. Nunn & Mc-Sorley's.

United States court was called to order by the deputy marshal yesterday in absence of the marshal. It adjourned without the transaction of any business until this morning.

It is said that preparations will be made for 25,000 visitors at the unveiling of the Confederate monument on May 30th. At the unveiling no military organization will have precedence over another. All parade as a body and under command of Gen. John W. Cotton.

An unusual rush of sparks from the smoke stack of the Moore mill caused some one to send in a needless alarm of fire last night. An alarm could be sent in too quickly when a fire is really in progress, but one should satisfy himself that this is so before sending in an alarm.

Elder W. W. Lewis passed through Monday en route to his home in Carteret county. On Saturday and Sunday he held services in Mt. Zion church near Yandere and received one addition to the church. The previous Saturday and Sunday he was at lower Broad church, all the meetings held were very good ones.

Another large audience was in attendance at the Church of Christ last night to hear Rev. Mr. Davis. The sermon was an interesting one, taken from Rev. III:20 "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup per with him, and he with me." The service will be continued every night through the week.

Coming and Going.

The steamer Neuse took out the following passengers: Mr. Benj. Hahn, going west to purchase horses and notes for the firm of M. Hahn & Co.; his sister, Mrs. I.
Feder, who has been visiting her relatives in the city, returning to her home in Cincinnati, and Mr. Wm. Haynes, a commission merchant of Norfolk who has been making a southern tour for the benefit of his home returning home.

Rev. J. J. Winfield of Washington, editor of the Watch Tower, is in the city on a brief business trip. He expects to leave today.

United States Marshal, O. Judd Carroll, of Raleigh, District Attorney C. B.
Aycock of Goldsboro, and assistant District Attorney Sol. C. Well of Wilmington, arrived last night and are registered at the Chatawka. Our former townsmen, Mr. J. S. Mann, is also registered at the Chatawka.

Ex-State Senator Williams of Pitt county is in the city attending United States court. He is stopping at the Albert, also Class. C. Thomas of Washington, Deputy U. S. Marshal.

Prof. W. L. Smith, the writing master is again registered at the Albert.

Ex-Gov. and ex-Congressman C. H.
Broyles of Goldsboro arrived to attend United States court as a juror. He and deputy U. S. Marshall H. S. Jarman are at the Hancock house.

Mr. J. J. Keller came down from Kinton on a flying business trip. He is erecting the Presbyterian church of that town and also Mr. Einstein's new store. The foundations of each are just laid. The store is a brick one 48x120 feet.

Mr. W. H. Taylor representing the commission house of B. Abell & Co., New York, is in the city soliciting truck consignments. He is stopping at Hancock's boarding house. Mr. J. C. Whitty is the local representative.

Mrs. He Trisell and child arrived from their former home in Maine, on the steamer Neuse, moving to the city. Mr.
Trisell went on and met them at Norfolk.
They registered Sunday at the Albert, and are now in their apartments at Mrs. Isaac Patterson's.

Mr. Charlie Hardison, of Thurman, who has been visiting relatives in the city, left Monday returning to his home.

A Pavie Town Hose Reel Company.

A colored hose reel company has been organized in Pavie Town numbering eighteen members.

They have no hose reel, neither have they assurance of one but the members met, officiated in their organization and intend to ask the city council for one. The request seems but reasonable. The suburb in which they live is so far distant from the fire department headquarters that some handy means of fighting fire whenever one occurs is needed.

The officers of the company are Frank Collins, foreman; Frank T. Chapman, assistant foreman; Grant Cradle, capt. of hose. The name they adopted is the Ponville Hose Reel Company.

Misplaced and Absent Buoy.

Capt. Wm. Hill, who has just met with the misfortune of losing his vessel near Hatteras, by striking on a reef, informs us that the condition of the buoys is such as to cause mariners to go astray.

He reports the Standard Point or Royal Shoal Buoy as being five miles out of place, the nine-foot buoy ashore at Ocacoke, and the swash buoys also out of place, but the main swash and the channel buoys.

Attention to the buoys after a storm has interfered with them should not be neglected.

A History of the Fusion Legislature.
The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger gives this item:
"It is said that a history of the Legislature is soon to be printed. It is to be prepared by a person who knows all the inside facts, and it will be a grand observing document for the Democrats."

SCHMADDE HENRY WRECKED.

Vessel and Cargo of Lumber a Total Loss--Crew All Saved.

The schooner Adlie Henry of New Berne, Capt. Wm. H. Hill, belonging to Mrs. Caroline Hill of New Berne struck on Howards reef, Pamlico sound near Hatteras about midnight on Saturday, the 19th inst, sunk so she had to be abandoned the next day and on the following Wednesday became a total wreck; vessel and cargo were both entirely lost.

The schooner was valued at $1,000, (vamed, we understand, at $600) for the schooner John W. Hill owned from the Gondom mill to port in New York. All the lumber was covered by insurance.

The captain and crew of five stood by the disabled vessel, doing everything they could to save her until she was wrecked their lives which they were in danger they left by the yawl boat about 11 o'clock Sunday morning, and went ashore at Ocracoke. The captain saved his clothes and compass, all else was lost.
Further efforts were made, with un-success, to save the injured vessel but nothing could be done.

There was a storm at the time which began during the day, but the captain attributes his ill-fortune to the fact that one buoy was about five miles out of place, one other ashore and several others missing. He had not been informed of the missing and out-of-place buoys, (though he understood the government officials had been notified about them and thus missed his bearings).

This was the last voyage the Adlie Henry was to have made under her present ownership. Capt. Wilson Lupton had bought her for the purpose of trading to have been made on her return.

NAVAL BATTALION MEETING.

To be Held in New Berne Today--Im- portant Business to be Considered.

A meeting of all the commissioned officers of the Naval Battalion and the battalion petty staff will meet in New Berne today to transact important business. Matters pertaining to this summer's cruise will be one of the interesting matters that are to be considered.

A great deal of interest is felt in the cruise this year, which is most likely to be on the Bahama. There are now a large number of visitors that are here today. They are to be found in New Berne, Wilmington, Charlotte, (these are the three oldest) Kinston, Morehead City and Elizabeth city. The three last have been organized quite recently. The one at Wilmington has not of itself organization yet, but there is very good probability that it will do so in the near future.

While the Battalion officers are here the New Berne division will be inspected in artillery by Lieut. Morton of Washington.

The officers composing the battalion organization which meets today staff Battalion officers, petty staff officers and 18 division commissioned officers.

Finest Resort on the Coast.

We take from the Goldsboro Argus the following in reference to the place and outlook for the noted Atlantic Hotel this summer:

"Mr. E. H. Punmer, the chief clerk of the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City under its new management, was in the city yesterday looking after some need of supplies. He is now permanently located at the Atlantic for the season and is interesting the putting in of many improvements and the addition of new lectures to that extensive, commodious and delightful seaside resort. Mr. Punmer says that the hotel this season will score the most numerous and long continued run of patronage in its history, and that it will be kept up to the highest standard of excellence as a strictly seaside resort."
"Success to the Atlantic. It is easily the finest watering resort on the whole Atlantic coast."

PROF. W. L. SMITH.

His Class at Jacksonville--Now Back in New Berne.

Prof. W. L. Smith, the writing school teacher, came up from Jacksonville Monday where for two weeks previous he had been teaching writing school. The school closed Friday. He had two classes numbering, combined, twenty-five, and embracing both children of tender years and adults whose ages ranged even to middle life.

Two very bright little girls, Miss Leah Thompson, aged ten years, daughter of Mr. Frank Thompson, and Miss Orla Canday, aged seven years, daughters of Mrs. Mary Canday, won the prizes of having made the greatest improvement.
Mr. E. H. Walton was the prize, a handsome gold medal, for best penmanship; he also received a diploma for having completed the course of practical penmanship.
Mr. Smith may possibly teach another class in New Berne. There is no doubt plenty of material in the town for several classes, people who could take a course in penmanship with great advantage.

United States Prisoners.

Deputy United States Marshal H. S.
Jarman brought up L. Frank Jones, a counterfeiter of Dupin county, last night.
Seven United States prisoners were lodged in jail yesterday to be tried, three of them were white and four colored. Some came over the A. & N. C. R. R.

There will be thirteen in today over the W. N. & N. R. rail, who are out under bond to stand trial for violations of the Internal Revenue laws.

Judge Meares Wins.

In the quo warranto proceedings at Wilmington of Chas. A. Cook vs. O. P.
Meares for the criminal judgment it was decided that Cook was not entitled to the place, and that Meares is the duly qualified and legally appointed Judge of the Criminal Circuit court until his successor is appointed by the next General Assembly.
An appeal was taken to Supreme court.

FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Minister Ransom's Status--Consul General Williams Esquator--Sound Money vs. Silver--New Political Alignments--Our Foreign Affairs.

Special Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19, '95.
I found at the State Department yesterday that the date of General Ransom's commission was February 23rd, 1895.
He was nominated and confirmed on that day. He took the oath of office March 10th in the afternoon, at which time his consular term had expired. The President's appointment was not complete until this date. There are precedents for this in the history of this Government. There are more numerous precedents on the side of those who favor the issue of the importance of Minister Ransom's tenure of office. Section 6, article 1st of the Constitution says that no Senator or Member shall be appointed to an office created, or the emoluments of which have been increased during his term of office. State Department officials informed me yesterday that if the President were to reappoint Minister Ransom, he could not draw a cent of his salary until he was confirmed by the incoming Senate. So the matter will stand as it is.

Consul General Williams of Havana, Cuba, is in this country. It has been alleged that he has become persona non grata, and that when he returns to his post his salary will not be granted him.
This is not so. His exequatur was granted when he was appointed in N. Y. about ten years ago and holds good until he is recalled by this Government.

A number of leading politicians in this city say a new alignment of political power is inevitable. The South and the West seem to be about to unite on a "silver" demand for the next President.
Others say the more conservative democrats will follow Cleveland's lead as indicated in his letter of last week and advocate "sound money." Mr. W. K.
Carr, a son of Governor Carr of N. C., has a strong letter in today's Post in which he says why he is not willing to accept the "sound money" slogan as unfortunate.

Senator John J. Ingalls is so thoroughly imbued with the idea that the West and South will unite on a silver man that he has made a speech in their favor for the first time in his life. He threw down the olive branch of peace to the South. He has spent years of his life waging the "bloody shirt" for all it is worth.

This Government intends to protect her interests in Venezuela in Cuba, and in the South American States. A dispatch to the State Department from Minister of Foreign Affairs of Venezuela concludes as follows: "The control by England of the entrance to the mouth of our great fluvial artery and of some of its tributaries, would expose to constant peril the industry and commerce of a large portion of the new world, would, in fact, bring into ridicule the famous and salutary Monroe doctrine, and would establish abusive practices which in the end might make difficult for some American countries their own political unity as free and independent states."

A bill recognizing the belligerency of the Cuban revolutionaries has been prepared in this city, and will be introduced in Congress when that body convenes next December. It was drafted at the suggestion of a team of Representatives and Senators who are in sympathy with the efforts of the Cubans to throw off the yoke of Spain, and these gentlemen will use their influence to pass it through both Houses.

Hon. R. F. Bunn and Fred Woodard are here trying to compromise about the appointment of a Postmaster at Rocky Mount. As Mr. Woodard was elected and Mr. Bunn was neither re-nominated nor elected, it looks like Mr. Woodard ought to win. Half the town of Rocky Mount is in Edgecombe and Mr. Woodard is in Edgecombe and the other part in Nash and Mr. Bunn's old district. Mr. Woodard and re-nominations Mr. Bassett for postmaster and Mr. Bunn Mr. Wilcox. An early settlement of the contest is probable.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Christian Advocate mentions a booklet containing several species delivered on several occasions by Prof. W.
E. Abernethy which it pronounces "gem of real oratory." The book is offered to the public by Prof. Arthur T. Abernethy as a means of aiding in liquidating a debt still outstanding against Rutherford college.

"The Southern Baptist Convention, which meets in Washington City on May 10th, is termed the "Judges Convention," in honor, doubtless, of the Convention's university. The Southern Air Line has already announced special rates on special trains to the Convention city from North Carolina."

"When the Federal troops occupied Richmond during the late war a bond for $34,000, made out in the name of the sinking fund commissioners of Virginia, was stolen from the State Capitol. It has since been returned to the commissioners by Gen. William Mahone, of Virginia, to whom it was sent by the executor of the will of the late Gen. Benjamin F. Butler. Spoons!"

New Publication.

A medical work of practical family value; Specific Manual by Frederick Humphreys, M. D. This revision of a work which has been before the public for over 40 years, is a somewhat remarkable one. Its venerable author, in his 80th year, here gives the result of a half century of professional experience, and of over forty years of constant perking of his now famous Homeopathic Specifics.
A copy will be sent postpaid on request.

THE OPENING IN THE SOUTH.

For Cotton Mills of every Description-- from Coarse Goods to the Finest.

Mr. Chas. F. Stodder of Boston, in a letter to the Manufacturers Record, admits the continuance of advancement in the South of the cotton industry and does not express any antagonism to the movement, but takes the view that the changed condition, the increase of mills in the South by local capital, and the additional investment of Northern capital in the South will give this country a firmer hold than ever on the world's trade. He says:
"We wish you full success in converting our New England ideas, as we believe the continued establishment of new mills in the South will not be detrimental to our local interests but that it will be the beginning of this country's control of the world's trade in cotton goods."

The Manufacturers Record considers that the views of Mr. Stodder are the rational ones to take. It declares that there is room enough for a steady and rapid expansion of the cotton mill interests of the South, even without any decadence of the present mill business of New England, but that the latter may have to change the character of their production to the finer varieties alone.

The Record says of the Southern movement:
"We believe that the building of large mills in the South by New England companies in order to maintain their foreign trade will enable them to produce goods at so much less than these same goods are now costing them in New England as to enable them to push their productions into foreign markets to far greater advantage than they can do at present."
"This southward movement is simply a combination of New England capital and Southern advantages, which must result in an extension of the exports of cotton goods from America. In the meantime the South itself is busily at work building its own mills, but ready to welcome the incoming of New Englanders."

The above outlines the situation truly.
The northern manufacturers are welcome with open arms in every community which they choose to enter but at the same time the South is going ahead and building mills without depending on the coming of outside men and capital.
There is capital enough in New Berne to establish a hundred thousand dollar mill easily if the right men were to make up their minds to do so and we hope they will.

As the plans upon which it is proposed to establish the New Berne factory is to be presented at the next meeting for consideration, amendment (if desired) and modification, the meeting will be an important one. Everyone at all interested in the establishment of the factory should be present and do everything in his power to give the enterprise a good start from the very foundation.
