The new Tariff on woolsens went in effect, Jan. first and the goods which I can show have all been regulated by that schedule as to values.

WHY Do people complain of hard times, when any woman or man can make from $5 to $10 a day easily. All have heard of the wonderful success of the Climax Dish Washer; yet many are apt to think they can't make money selling it; but anyone can make money, because every family wants one. One agent has made $478.06 in the last three months, after paying all expenses and attending to regular business besides. You don't have to canvass; as soon as people know you have it for sale they send for a Dish Washer. Address the Climax Mfg. Co., 45 Starr Ave., Columbus, Ohio, for particulars. Joe's 6 dm.

NEWS DRIFT

In the City of Elms and Vicinity, Gathered in and Briefly Told. We have the pleasure of presenting to our readers this morning another of the poetic gems by Mr. T. C. Badham, of Edenton. It is on "The Ladies Mission."

Rev. T. J. Gattis, of Durham, is in the city, the guest of Rev. L. L. Nash, D. D. He preached last night at Hancock Street M. E. church.

The meeting of the North Carolina Press Association begins at Greensboro to-day. Friday the editors are to take a trip to Morehead. A special car will be put on for them.

All officers and managers of the "Female Benevolent Society" are earnestly requested to meet at the home of Miss Metts this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, as business of much importance to the Society is to be transacted.

Yesterday Mr. Marvin W. Nash, son of Rev. Dr. Nash, bought out the bookstore of Mr. H. L. Hall and will continue the business at the same stand. We hope to see him make a good thing of the business.

The State Agricultural and Mechanical College is rapidly growing in public favor. Last year, though only six years old, the College enrolled two hundred and forty students. This is, we believe, a more rapid growth than any other institution in the State has ever made. Its announcement appears in this issue.

Sunday as little Rosa Danenberg was passing along the street with some companions about her own age, one of them called out to a dog in a yard where they were passing. The dog sprang out after them and overtook Rosa who was running from him and bit her three times so badly that she is kept in the house, though not confined to her bed.

Col. Ried Whitford, Major W. H. Chadbourn, jr., and Capt. E. K. Bryan have gone up the Neuse river on U. S. steamer Gen'l Thom. They expect to visit Rich Kettle, Biddle's Landing and other watering-places on the river. They have been there before and know the attractions well. We are told that chaplains have been secured for the party at each place.

Engineer McSorley Resigns. Much to the regret of the Company, Mr. C. J. McSorley has tendered his resignation as Engineer of the Atlantic Steam Fire Engine Co., No. 1, which was accepted. Mr. McSorley's reason for tendering his resignation was his removal from the city.

On receipt of the resignation, the Atlantic held a meeting last night and elected Mr. Walter D. Barrington to fill the vacancy. Mr. Barrington, it will be remembered, was Chief of the Department last year, and he made a faithful and appreciated Chief Engineer.

Mr. Barrington being permitted to Engineer made change in some of the other officers. The officers of the Company will now be known as:

Walter D. Barrington, Engineer. Jacob L. Hartsfield, Foreman. Geo. C. Jones, Ass't. Foreman. Thos. D. Caraway, Capt. Hose. Geo. D. Roberts, Secretary. Herbert B. Smith, Treasurer.

W. T. McCarthy, was also elected Captain of the hand hose reel team at this meeting, and the boys will now go to work and practice for championship hose reel race. We understand that they will have their first practice this evening at 7 o'clock.

No Failure.

Other proposed excursions from New Berne this summer have failed, but the excursion to Mt. Airy which is advertised to leave here by the W. N. and N. Road, at 7 o'clock next Tuesday morning, 23d inst., will positively go, and those fortunates who participate may count on having a delightful trip, and a recuperative, health-giving, sojourn among the mountains of the west.

The trial and worn out person in need of healthful recreation cannot select a better opportunity for toning up the system and obtaining a well merited and needed rest.

At this season of the year, everyone requires a change of scene and air, and for owners of limited bank accounts this four dollar trip is the very thing.

Mr. I. W. Hughes' Funeral. The remains of Mr. I. W. Hughes arrived yesterday evening and the funeral services were held from the depot, Rev. Jno. S. Long, officiating. Many friends were in attendance.

Mr. Hughes, as we stated, was coming home from St. Louis to visit his parents. He registered at the Benbow House Saturday night, partook of breakfast Sunday morning seemingly in his usual health, remained in the office until about 11 o'clock and that was the last seen of him until a servant found him in his room dead.

One Hour at Guilford Battle Ground. Have you seen the big red poster giving the details of the Mt. Airy excursion? If not, procure a copy and read it. It is in its way a literary treat in which the most interesting and salient features of this delightful trip are portrayed, and while necessarily limited in its enumeration, nevertheless presents a picture of prospective enjoyment that cannot be rivaled.

We learn of very many of the who people of New Berne, and vicinity good intend to take the trip. We take the following from the Wlt. Messenger.

The indications in Wilmington are that the largest and nicest crowd of folks that ever went on a mountain hunt will take in this excursion. There will be no crowding, as the management has arranged for the addition of coaches along the line. The train will be stopped an hour at the battle field of Guilford Court House in order to give the excursionists an opportunity to go over this historic spot, made famous by North Carolinians in the struggle for American independence. This will be worth the trip."

Massacre Notice. A special communication of St. John's Lodge No. 3 A. F. & A. M. will be held in Masonic Hall Wednesday evening July 17th, at 8 o'clock sharp for the purpose of installing officers, reception of communications and work in F. G. Degree. By order W. M., J. H. HACKBURN, Sec'y.

THE PAMICO MURDER CASE.

The Woman's Body Recovered and Inquest Held.

Her Neck Found Broken in two Places--Verdict That Her Husband Committed the Deed--Plata Proof--He and Two Burglars Attempt to Break Jail--Now Securely Shackled.

The body of Laura Thomas, the colored woman of Stonewall, Pamlico county who was murdered Friday by her husband, (an account of which we published in Sunday's Daily JOURNAL) was recovered Saturday afternoon several hours work by dragging. Coroner Hooker summoned a jury with the following citizens on it: S. W. Forebee, J. T. Riggs, Wm. Harris, Alvin Daniels and Prof. W. E. Nelson.

Dr. J. P. Redding was also summoned to make a post-mortem examination. The woman's head and neck were badly bruised and her neck was found to have been broken in two places. The verdict of the jury was that she was murdered by her husband, Gabe Thomas.

After Thomas had been arrested and placed in jail it was found that he and two burglars confined with him had in some way come into possession of a file and nearly filed one of the bars of the cell through. The jail is a brick one with steel cells.

This occurred Sunday night. Since that time the prosecution has been taken of hand cuffing Thomas and fastening him in addition by a chain to the floor. The two burglars have also been shackled.

A correspondent writes us an account of the murder, it shows the evidence against Thomas to be direct and conclusive. We make the following extracts from it.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE KILLING. "On Friday evening, Gabe Thomas and wife went to Mason Point, fishing ground. After they had been fishing awhile they began quarreling. Several fishing boats were fishing some distance from them but near enough to hear them quarreling and see him hit her, after a while the witnesses saw Gabe throw his wife overboard; his father living near the landing, Gabe went to his house.

The news soon spread and the constable of Stonewall summoned a posse of men and went to the house of murderer's father and captured him. He denied all and said his wife fell overboard."

"They have lived a very disagreeable life, he several times leaving her and she him and fighting like cats and dogs. He is a very noisy negro. I understand this morning that Gabe and the two burglars that broke into Jno. Rice's store some time ago, came near getting out of jail on Sunday night. Some of their friends had got a file into the jail to them and they were filing their way out. I understand the sheriff has them well shackled in the cells and also on the lot track of the ones that carried them the file."

Since the above upon the Pamlico murder affair was put in type we learn that the man who furnished the prisoners the file by the means of which they came so near escaping has been caught and that the one who came to New Berne and purchased the file is known but could not be found. Both are colored.

Coming and Going.

Mr. C. C. Jordan left for Washington City as a visitor to the Young People's Baptist Union which is about to meet there.

Rev. Mr. Farries of Goldsboro, who has been spending some time at the seaside, came yesterday morning returning home.

Miss Mary Harvey of LaGrange, who has been visiting at Mr. W. H. Oliver's, left for her home.

Mrs. Wm. Marshall and Mrs. C. S. Hill left to visit at LaGrange and Seven Springs.

Dr. Blackhall passed through en route to Raleigh from the Atlantic Hotel.

Mr. Sam'l W. Forebee of Pamlico came up from Morehead and went on through by the A. and N. C. Railroad on a pleasure trip. He looked as if he was anticipating some important business in the tobacco belt region of our State.

Col. John D. Whitford left for another southern trip.

Mrs. Ralph Gray and children, Mrs. H. L. Gibbs and children and Mrs. H. C. Lumsden, left Tuesday by schooner for Chesapeake.

Mr. P. H. Pelletier and family are back from Beaufort.

Mrs. C. E. Foy returned from Morehead.

Miss Pattie May of Greene county, who attended the district conference at Newport, is now visiting Mrs. J. A. Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Cox left for a sojourn at Seven Springs which is growing in favor each year. Mr. Fovelle who conducted it with much satisfaction last year is still in charge.

Miss Maggie Tucker is back from Kinston where she has been visiting friends.

Miss Jennie Hughes came up from Beaufort.

Mr. E. E. Harper, accompanied by his wife left to attend the North Carolina Press Association at Greensboro.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents in Richlands, near Allam Springs, last Wednesday morning the 10th inst., Mr. Charles E. Palmer of the Swainsboro Lumber Company, and Miss Lizzie Barber, the accomplished and beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Barber, were happily married, Rev. Daniel Reid, our eloquent preacher, officiating. We wish Charlie and Lizzie a long life and a happy one. They arrived here, Swainsboro, about 3 o'clock, p. m., looking as pleasing as a basket of chips. They will make this place their home for the present. Two more souls made happy and two hearts made to beat as one. My the Lord bless them forever. G. W. W. J. J. 1161.

At T. H. Carmichael's, Watson Building. Bay, Locky & Co's extra fine melons, Gray Jordan, Florida Favorite and Dark Ice Buds. Also eggs and fine spring chickens--plenty of them--and South River cabbage mixed without fertilizer. J. J. 1161.

TO ESTABLISH A COLLEGE.

Investigating to Select a Site for a "Northern" Methodist College--Columbus, Polk County Seeks It--The Plan--Strength of the Denomination.

Presiding Elder W. Q. A. Graham, Principal of Graham Academy, Marshallberg, passed through Tuesday en route to Columbus, Polk county.

The denomination to which Mr. Graham belongs, is locally commonly called "Northern" Methodist to distinguish it from the prevailing "Methodist Episcopal church, South." They, however, do not accept for themselves any distinguishing appellation except Methodist Episcopal.

They have considerable foothold, as we have shown before, in the immediate coast region of Loie State and in the mountain region. They have an annual conference with 61 travelling and 75 local preachers and a membership of nearly ten thousand as a basis for their work.

They are now taking steps to establish a college of high grade at some point in the State. They now have five good good schools of academic grade and it is planned to consolidate them under one incorporation with the proposed central school of high grade. The plan is unique. It is to be a regular system of affiliated schools and one college.

Mr. Graham goes to Columbus for the purpose of investigating some inducements offered at that place for the college. Mr. B. P. Stearns of Cleveland, Ohio, proposes to donate $10,000 and others have pledged large amounts to locate the central college at that place.

New and Old Sweet Potatoes at Once.

It is now a little past the middle of July and sweet potatoes of last year's crops are still for sale on the market.

It is so late in the season that some farmers are already coming from the new crops of the early varieties. It is remarkable for one fall crop of tubers to lap over into another like this.

THE LILIES MISSION.

THOS. C. BADHAM.

Go hide my secret lilies, in her glossy autumn tresses-- Impressed in the fullness and the richness of her hair-- And let thy lowest whisper fall of perfume and carress-- Be the sweetest word of fondness that ever rested there.

Oh, let it be a symphony of music to the ear-- Like the meeting of the waters, or the ripply to the stream. And say it, oh, so softly, that the angels cannot hear-- Or the footfall of a fairy break the sweetness of the dream.

Oh, nestle, nestle lilies, fondly to each autumn curl-- And fill them with thy kisses, thy fragrance unto death-- For the favor that you bear me, like the castle to its pearl-- Is the vigili of its safety in the sweetness of thy breath.

And tell her that an idol through the purity of love-- Though the heart is fixed forever in the passion that it bears. Is as innocent a longing, as the wooing of the dove-- Or the glance of sweet confession, that a gentle maiden wears.

Then with deep and tender feeling, my eager love impart-- Through the sweetness of thy pleading, indignity impressed-- That the tremulous emotion may awaken in her heart, The delicate attention of her ever present guest.

The Doll-Trade.

The new paper doll, issued by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass., is certainly a beauty. Its pretty face, and many changes of fashionable clothing and hats, make it a favorite in every doll family to which it goes. The small sun of twelve cents, in stamps, brings this doll-trade to any little girl who wants the very prettiest and sweetest of dolls.
