NEWS ADVERT.

In the City of Elms and Vicinity, Gathered in and Briefly Noted. Superior court has adjourned for the term.

Snow commenced here about seven o'clock Tuesday. In the central part of the State it began before day.

Wednesday fair, preceded by snow or rain in the weather bureau prediction for today.

The Presbyterians propose to pack another Christmas box for the Barium Sprays' Orphan's Home, as they did last year.

An old colored man, Henry Coleman, who formerly belonged to Mr. V. A. Tolson of Cranston, died at Cranston a few days ago, aged 76 years.

Cotton made a little jump yesterday. January futures opened at 8.32 and closed at 8.37. Prices in New Bern were from 7.34 to 8c.

Dr. George L. Shackelford, formerly a New Bern dentist, died on Sunday at Smith's. The remains were taken to Wilmington and interred in Oakdale cemetery. Dr. Shackelford was 47 years of age.

DRY KILN FIRE.

At Cogdon & Co's. Very Little Damage Done.

Tuesday afternoon Capt. D. Congdon discovered one of the ventilators of the dry kiln of Cogdon & Co's mill to be on fire. He quickly gave the alarm and with the fire equipment the mill has for fighting fire, streams of water were soon on the blaze and soon after the fire department was doing likewise and the fire was gotten under control, with very little resulting damage to the building and none to the timber except by water.

The fire caught by means of a spark from a neighboring dwelling. There was no fire in the kiln at all at the time it occurred.

Another Handsome Monument.

Mr. J. K. Willis, proprietor of the East Carolina Marble Works of this city, has placed his order for the material for the Jonathan Haven's family monument. It will be of beautiful light Rutland Italian marble. In size it will be four feet eight inches at the base and stand thirteen feet six inches high.

The monument will be surrounded by a Roman arch and will otherwise be very pretty in design. It will be erected about four months from now.

Woman's Absence Lengthened.

We hear indirectly that the Revenue Cutter Winona has been ordered to remain in the waters about Cuba and Florida through the winter and until further orders, which may mean even a more protracted stay.

We feel for the need of keeping this cutter built for North Carolina waters away from the place and use for which she was designed in building. Why should she be kept away to practically do police duty for Spain against Cuba? We would like to see her back in the waters around us for which she was intended.

Methodist Progress in New Bern.

The year's work of the pastors of the two New Bern Methodist churches show well. During that time the labors of Rev. L. L. Nash, D. D., have resulted in the addition of 68 members to Central M. E. Church, and Rev. A. D. Betts, D. D., has had 47 additions to Hancock street M. E. Church, their respective charges.

Centenary M. E. Church has done exceptionally well financially, $550 more has been raised this Centenary year than was raised last year.

His First Stock.

Mr. S. H. Scott, of the new livery stables, who went off week before last after his stock, is back, bringing with him his first car-load of stock—twenty-five per cent selected horses and mules. They were carefully chosen and embrace both sound workers and good drivers. Among the latter are a fine and beautifully selected pair of bays and another of greys.

Off to Conference.

The steamer Neuse took out sixty-five or seventy passengers Tuesday night. About fifty of them were ministerial and lay delegates to the Methodist Conference at Elizabeth City. It begins today.

Among those who went were Revs. L. L. Nash and A. D. Betts of New Bern, Mrs. Betts accompanying her husband, Presiding Elders F. D. Swinell of the New Bern, and J. B. Brooks of the Charlotte district; E. H. W. L. Grimes and F. L. Garrison of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and Prof. Dred Peacock, President of Greensboro Female College.

Among the lay delegates from and near the city were Mrs. S. H. Scott and Mrs. J. A. Simpson of the city—they go as delegates from the Woman's Piousness and Home Mission Society; Mr. Daniel Lane of Blair, Mr. D. E. Aman of Palo Alto; M. W. H. Duncan, Miss Sarah Davis and Mrs. C. E. Sordmond, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Day of Beaufort.

THE VIOLET'S CREW

Kill a Man-Eater—The Monster Captured in Hatteras Channel—Bad Weather for Ducks.

A special to the Washington Post from Norfolk, Va., under date of Monday, Dec. 9th, says that although the heavy downpour of rain, which set in shortly after the President and his party were settled in their blinds in Cape Hatteras channel, prevented their enjoying much sport in bringing down ducks, it is said that they had some exciting game to look after.

A large man eating shark was killed by the crew of the Vindicator, Mr. Cleveland and his companions evincing the fiercest interest in the capture of the monster. The President's gun has thus far brought down twenty-two ducks and three swans.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank the members of the New Bern Fire Department for their assistance in putting out the fire at our dry kiln yesterday, also the neighbors who so quickly responded.

MERRY WEDDING BELLS!

The Henderson-Powell Nuptials.

The Ceremony Witnessed by a Host of the Popular Bride and Groom's Admiring Friends.

The marriage of Miss Emma Elizabeth Henderson, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson, to Mr. Albert Holland Powell, took place on yesterday afternoon at five o'clock in Centenary Methodist Church, the Rev. R. A. Willis, of Fayetteville, a former beloved pastor, officiating.

THE BRIDAL PROCESSION.

which entered to the music of the wedding "March from Tannhauser," played by the well-known excellent organist, Mrs. J. A. Meadows, included some of the best members of New Bern's fashionable society.

The spacious church, handsomely and tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and filled with faces all aglow with interest and joy in the happy nuptials of the gracious and popular bride and groom, presented a rare scene and a beautiful joyous occasion, as the bridal party entered the main aisle of the church in the following order:

Messrs. T. W. Waters and Alex. Justice, acting as ushers, and preceding with grace the groomsmen and bridesmaids, who with light and measured step followed by two; Mr. B. Neal and Mr. John Staley Thomas, Miss Emma Katie Jones and Miss Kathleen Bryan; Mr. J. T. Hollister and Mr. P. S. Cox; Mrs. J. T. Hollister and Miss Harriett Bryan Lane; Mr. George Henderson, Jr., brother of the bride, and Mr. N. C. Hughes, Miss Paul Powell, sister of the groom, and Miss Carrie Asenfeld; Miss Adelaide Cutler, a cousin of the bride, who acted as maid of honor; the lovely little Miss Vic Le May Dewey and bright Master John Holland serving as flower girl and page.

The groom, whose face was radiant with gladness, arm in arm with his brother, Mr. W. B. Boyd, who was best man, led the bride, who with graceful dignity and ease, from the right hand aisle, as the BEAUTIFUL BRIDE leaning upon the arm of her father, entered the center aisle following the bridal attendants.

THE BRIDE AND GROOM.

Miss Henderson possesses a charming simplicity and force of character which attract all persons whom she meets, and the kindness of a strong sympathetic nature and a commanding personality are at once recognized as the charms of her cultured mind and heart.

Surely the personal influence of her life is to be increased and crowned by her marriage with one of the truest and most enterprising young men who has ever merited success in New Bern. His past career in the banking business has been a bright and brilliant future. He has a legion of friends.

The bride's gown was of white brocade satin, with pearl trimmings. She wore a tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair ferns. She was a picture of exceptional loveliness of Southern womanhood.

The pretty maid of honor, wearing a pink brocade silk gown, with her bouquet of La France roses, never looked lovelier.

The bridesmaids wore exquisite white gowns, and the ushers and groomsmen were in full dress suits.

During the marriage ceremony, soul-stirring musical strains from the "Meditation" by Gounod added a solemnity to the utterances of the minister's sacred words. When the vows, which make two lives one for life and heaven, were said, the organ pealed forth in enraptured accents the famous wedding march of Mendelssohn, and the groom with his bride, followed by the bridal party, moved down the main aisle of the church happy in the realization of their solemnized pledged loves.

THE ARRANGEMENTS

for the marriage-day were complete, and the splendid nuptial hospitalities were characteristic of the generous bride and business like groom.

THE BRIDAL PROCESSION is elegant, the expression of the finest taste and judgment.

MANY WARM HEARTS

went valuable and useful presents. There are among the number some of the choicest and most elegant ever received in our city.

THE HOME OF THE BRIDE, on the evening before her marriage, was made a center of rare enjoyability and pleasant social intercourse and a "bridal feast" was spread seldom equalled in our society circles.

All the bridal party seemed to be inspired by the cordiality and grace and congeniality of the noble daughter and her devoted good mother.

THE BRIDAL TOUR.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell left immediately after the ceremony for a Southern trip. They will visit, among other places of interest, the Atlanta Exposition and spendable in St. Augustine, and when they return will take possession of their new home adjoining the home of the bride's parents.

That insupportable sick and tender benedictions should fall to them in their married life is the common sincere wish of a host of the warmest heart-wishing friends. A FRIEND.

Feasting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Johnston wish to tender their hearty thanks to the members of the Church of Christ, who so liberally and pleasantly filled their larder with good things on last Monday evening.

Mr. Johnston specially thanks Mr. W. A. McIntosh for the nice rocker presented by him.

A telegraphic brief to the Charlotte Observer, states that the Revenue Cutter of New Bern has made a great capture of coast-wise men-of-war, intended for Cuba, at Port Sable. It is reported that the Cuban rebel leaders, Marco Gomez, Roloff and Serafin Sanchez have united their forces and are leading an army whose forces are variously estimated at from 4000 to 8000 men. The Spaniards are advancing to meet them and a battle is expected.

A QUIET HOME MARRIAGE.

Miss Marie Cox, One of New Bern's Lovely Daughters, Weds Mr. H. L. Paylor, of Goldsboro, a Popular Young Man Formerly of This City.

Mr. Herbert Lee Paylor, of Goldsboro and Miss Marie Frank Cox of New Bern were married Tuesday morning, December 10th, at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. J. Cox, mother of the bride in this city. Rev. R. C. Beaman pastor of St. Paul's M. E. Church, Goldsboro officiating. They were married by gas light in the darkened parlor which had been nicely decorated for this occasion with flowers. A ring was used in the ceremony.

It was a private marriage, no one being present except the immediate family and near relatives, except one intimate friend of the bride.

The bride was attired in white organdy with satin trimmings. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a black dress suit.

The bridal party left immediately after the ceremony for High Point, the former home of the groom.

The bridal party as it left New Bern consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Paylor, Mr. J. H. Paylor, chief clerk Hotel Chattawaks, of New Bern, and Miss Irvin Paylor, of High Point, brother and sister of the groom and Miss Stella Roberts of New Bern. At Durham they were joined by Mr. John E. Matlocks of Pollockville, who is taking a post graduate course at Chapel Hill, and at Greensboro by Miss Ida Paylor, of Danville, cousin of the groom. The whole party will spend a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Paylor, parents of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Paylor will, upon leaving High Point, take apartments at Hotel Keonun in which the groom is chief clerk.

Mr. Paylor spent a year and a half in New Bern, first as book-keeper of the Citizens Bank, then as head clerk of Hotel Chattawaks, from which position he went to his present one, his brother succeeding him in the Chattawaks. During his stay here he made many friends in New Bern, and his lovely wife, a native and life-long resident of this city, has a very large circle of friends.

The bride is a most amiable young lady, and the groom's devotion to business augurs well for his future career.

The presents they received were most tastefully selected and were elegant, valuable and very numerous.

The most cordial good wishes of New Bern friends follow Mr. and Mrs. Paylor to their future home.

WILMINGTON TO HOLD A FAIR.

The Popular Scheme Again Set on Foot by Wilmington Merchants of That City—$10,000 Wanted For It.

A movement is on foot for a Fair to be held in Wilmington some time next year. A committee of merchants made a canvass, and obtained subscriptions ranging from $30 to $250 and they think it will be easy to secure $10,000.

Two prominent manufacturing firms who have heretofore given only $20 each, or "Welcome Week," said they would give $250 each, and two retail merchants who gave $50 each, put their names down for $200 each.

Several suggestions have been made as to the Fair and one is to have certain days of the Fair given complimentary to certain counties in the State, all counties to have representation, and the Fair open to all productions of the State.

If the needed sum of $10,000 is assured one of the greatest gatherings ever held in the State will be assembled in Wilmington the week of the Fair—Wil. Cit.

MOVEMENT FOR HOSPITAL.

For White People Only—By the East Carolina Benevolent Association—Plan of Raising Funds.

At a regular meeting of the East Carolina Benevolent Association it was ordered that a book be opened at the drug stores of Messrs. F. S. Duffy, R. Berry, The Bradham Pharmacy and T. A. Henry for subscriptions to establish a hospital in this city for white people only.

W. B. Boyd was chosen Secretary and collector, and T. A. Green, Treasurer. As soon as a sufficient amount is subscribed, the association proposes to call a meeting of all the contributors and let them elect a board of managers. Said board to have full control and management of the same.

W. B. Boyd and T. A. Green are authorized and empowered to represent the E. C. Benevolent Association in said board.

Any sum or sums may be paid to W. B. Boyd, Secretary, or T. A. Green, Treasurer. When it is not convenient for subscribers to pay at once, the secretary will call on them at a more convenient time.

The need for a public hospital is real. We will be able to see the new organization which has taken in hand the work of establishing one, succeed in the effort.

There is already a fund of $750 in hand in the city for the purpose. This is the donation of Christ Church Relief Society and is available when funds are made up from other sources to carry the movement on to completion.

The people understand the need for such an institution, and we believe that now is a favorable time to press the matter. By concerted action of all interested—churches, benevolent societies, city government, etc., the establishment of a suitable one can be secured.

Special Notice.

E. C. D. & O. D. Line.

Our patrons will please take notice that on and after today no freight will be received for shipment after 5 p. m. on sailing days of steamers.

JONES CO. SPECIAL COURT.

Three Ordinary Cases Tried

Then Came the Noted Beaufort Life Insurance Cases of Alleged Fraud—Dr. Perkins Submits—Trial of C. R. Hassell in Progress.

The first case of importance in the special term of Jones county Superior court called Monday was the State vs. W. B. Huff, assault with gun. This was the affair mentioned in THE JOURNAL several days ago, where Huff shot a negro whom he had arrested and who was trying to escape.

The negro had broken into government quarters here, and stolen from Capt. S. E. Well. Huff was left to guard the quarters. The negro came and had broken into the house and opened Capt. Well's trunk when Huff discovered him and ordered him out. He came out and tried to escape but Huff fired at him twice, hitting him in the legs. He escaped but was caught soon after. Huff was bound over to court and when the case was tried he was acquitted.

The next case called was State vs. Frank Teachey, col., larceny. This was the negro who was shot by Huff, as mentioned in the above case. Teachey pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

The next case was State vs. Wm. Willis, receiving stolen goods. He was found guilty and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

THE BEAUFORT CASES.

Tuesday when court convened, the Beaufort insurance cases were called. The first case called was State vs. Dr. L. W. Perkins and C. R. Hassell of Carteret county, conspiracy to defraud certain insurance companies.

Dr. Perkins submitted and the trial of Mr. Hassell is going on at this writing. The examination of the first witness, Dr. Perkins, is not finished yet. There is no telling when these cases will be finished, as each one consumes considerable time.

There are nine cases in all. The State and insurance companies are represented in all cases by Messrs. Pearson, Solicitor Richardson, Allen, Parnsall and Hinsdale, and the defendants by Messrs. O. H. Guion, W. W. Clark, L. J. Moore and Chas. L. Abernethy. L.
