tion of being the author of the first thrilling incident in the present House of Representatives.

He threw a bombshell into that body soon after it convened by offering a resolution impeaching Thomas F. Bayard, ex-Secretary of State and now United States Ambassador to the Court of St. James, for high crimes and middenications.

crimes and elist measures.

The greands advanced in the resolution were the attenances of Mr. Bayard delivered before the Edinburgh, Scotland, Philosophical Institute, November 7. In this speech Mr. Bayard spoke of "Protection" as a form of "State socialism," and said it had done more to "foster class legislation," "breed inequality," "corrupt public life," "lower the tone of national representation" "blind the public conscience," "cre-"blind the public conscience," "create false standards," "divorce ethics from politics," than any other ain-

Mr. Barrett's resolution had been preceded by one of his colleague's Mr. McCall, (Massachusetts) in a milder tone.

Mr. McCall's resolution went down before an objection and then it was that Mr. Barrett sprang his impeachment resolution as William Sultan, I suit clothes constituting a question of privi-

Mr. Crisp, the leader of the minority, made an unavailing attempt to contest the privilege nature of the resolution. Speaker Reed overruled his point of order and the resoluwas thrown into the arens of debate, where it remained for three

The Republicans took the position that Mr. Bayard's speech constituted an offense against the country that called for a stern rebuke, if not his recall.

The Democrats took the position that Mr. Bayard's utterances did not by any stretch of the imagination stitute grounds for impeachment. Mr. Turner (Georgia) sp-plauded them and asserted that they were not even a breach of propriety. He took the position that the resolution was largely "buncom-be" to give the Republicans an op-portunity to air their protection

Those who took part in the de bate were Messrs. Barretts; Massachusetta; Dingley, Maine; Grow, Pennsylvania; Hitt, Illinois; Can-Pennsylvania; Hitt, Illinois; Cannon, Illinois (Republicans); and Messrs, Crisp, Georgia; McCreary, Kentucky; Money, Mississippi; and
