BOOMS HAD REST.

QUIET DAY AMONG POLITICAL AGENTS.

Negro Delegates' Rooms. Business Circulars Asking Hotels to Make no Race Distinction During Convention Week.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—By common consent, the advance guards of the several Presidential booms made this a day of rest from the arduous tasks imposed by politics.

At the hotels the gentlemen were "out" to all callers. Hon. Chauncey Ives Filley took a party through the show part of the city and eventually brought them up at the "Moose" as his Beaumont street residence is known.

The matter of accommodating the negro delegates at the hotels has begun to assume troublesome importance. There are sixty-six of these, including contestants. The Business Men's League, desiring to carry out every promise made in securing the convention, felt called upon last night to issue a circular, from which the following is taken:

"We ask that all places of public entertainment, hotels, boarding-houses, and bar rooms, at least for convention week, to accord to the reputable colored men who will come here representing their section and their people in the Republican party such treatment as any reputable and respectable person would receive.

"It is not believed that a great many would want to accept the privilege, but it will be very humiliating if one of them with colleagues and friends, or alone, should present himself in any public place and be refused admittance or service. It is hoped that all will endeavor to meet the situation as justice and prosperity require."

A number of enterprising local negroes have rented the old Calumet Club on Locust and Thirteenth streets, and fitted it up to entertain the colored delegates.

Last evening the Hon. R. C. Kerens, Missouri's national committeeman, and ex-Congressman Nathan Frank left the city to go to Canton, O. A telegram from Major McKinley was the cause of this trip, a telegram asking Mr. Kerens to come for a conference.

Messrs. Kerens and Frank arrived in Canton at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. They will remain until 9 a. m., returning to St. Louis via Chicago. The brief telegram from McKinley gave no hint of the object of the conference.

Among the arrivals this evening was Mr. W. B. Galtree, of Columbus, Ohio, who will decorate the McKinley headquarters at the Southern Hotel, and superintend the distribution of badges, lithographs and literature.

There will be distributed in this city 10,000 lithographs of McKinley and a badge will be given out, being a red ribbon bearing McKinley's picture and the words, "Patriotism, Protection, and Progress: Our Nation's Choice."

The gavel which will be used in calling the convention to order was made from a piece of timber from the building in which Missouri's ordinance of secession was passed. The gavel is now in the hands of Mr. Lee D. Bell, of Neosho, Mo.

On May 26 he wrote to Chairman Carter, tendering him the use of the gavel on opening the convention. Mr. Carter answered promptly, accepting the offer. The gavel is the handiwork of James Monroe, an ex-Confederate soldier, and a Republican.

May Declare for Silver. ST. PAUL, MINN.—The sound money Democrats are in a cave of gloom over the prospect that they will not have a majority in the State convention Thursday to name eighteen delegates to the Chicago national convention.

The gold standard men seemed to have a clean majority assured. The thirteen counties which held conventions on Saturday, however, changed the face of things. A count of votes today shows that of the delegates chosen 358 are for silver and 359 for gold.

Of the 122 yet to be chosen it is claimed sixty-five will be for silver, this will give the silverites the four delegates at large. They will also have at least six of the Congressional delegates, leaving the sound money men only eight delegates from Minnesota.

French Markets Quotations.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—The following are the latest prices on truck, quoted by J. F. Holston & Co.: Beans market full, 40c., halves, 30 to 40c.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The following are the latest prices on potatoes quoted by Fays and Dyer: $2.00 to $3.50.

PROBABLE CANDIDATES.

Who Will Seek Democratic Governmental Nominations.

MEMPHIS, N. C., June 8.—Upon careful inquiry it is learned that the names of Thomas Davidson, K. A. Baughman, James H. Carr and probably ex-Senator T. J. Davis will be presented to the Democratic State Convention, on the 25th of the present month for nomination. Each of these is a sound free silver man.

COLORED DELEGATES.

No Far Impossible to Find Suitable Quarters For Them.

SPECIAL. ST. LOUIS, Mo.—June 8.—But three members of the National Republican Committee have arrived for the meeting which takes place here tomorrow night. There appears to be considerable trouble in securing quarters for the colored delegates.

Committeeman Hill, of Tennessee, says, unless he finds suitable places for them soon, he will wire them to stay at home. He says they must be well cared for. Judge Long, the committeeman from Florida, says the same, and that colored delegates are being sadly neglected.

Free Silver in Control.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Conventions to nominate officers and select delegates to the State convention were held in eleven counties by the Democrats yesterday, and in every instance the free silver men were in control and instructed the delegates to vote for a free silver platform. In several places the gold standard men made a fight, but were outnumbered.

Kansas for McKinley.

TOPEKA, Kan.—The Republican State convention to select delegates to St. Louis adopted no resolution on the money question. To show how the Kansas delegation stands on the silver question, letters from nineteen of the twenty delegates were published.

Seventeen of the delegates declare they solve emphatically against the free coinage of silver and in favor of the preservation of the present money standard, while one is in favor of a bimetallic standard and one expressed himself in favor of the greatest possible use of silver, "with every dollar as good as every other dollar."

The delegates were instructed for McKinley by unanimous vote in the State and district conventions.

Populists Don't Want Teller.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 8.—The Progressive Farmer says, editorially today, that the Populists will not vote for Senator Teller, for President, even if the Democratic Party nominates him.

Die of Heat.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Two men have died from the effects of heat. One was Christ Anderson, a saloon keeper, and the other was a Polish dock laborer. The mercury did not go above 88, but the humidity was very great and made the heat difficult to bear.

Asked to Stop War.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Secretary Olney has written a letter calling the attention of the Spanish Government to the unsatisfactory condition of affairs in Cuba, and suggesting that it cannot be expected, in view of the interest and public sentiment here, that this country will refrain from interference if the war is not brought to a speedy close.

The letter is friendly and diplomatic in tone, refraining from any expression of sympathy with the revolution, but calls attention to the evident sentiment of the people of this country, and is firm in the intimation that a speedy termination must be put to the struggle.

The W. C. T. U. Adjourns.

HALEIGH, N. C., June 8.—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union State Convention, which has been holding its annual session here, adjourned today. Mrs. M. L. Cutland, of High Point, was re-elected President. The Convention endorsed the Reform School, compulsory education, and absolute prohibition.

Shots His Wife.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind.—James Pruitt and another man were playing cards in a box-car at Ansty. Their wives discovered them and locked them in the car. Pruitt fired a revolver through the side of the car, thinking the locking was the work of men. The bullet took effect in his wife's abdomen. The wound will probably result fatally.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

CONGRESS ABOUT ENDED ITS FIRST SESSION.

Adjournment Probable by Wednesday. House Sustains President Cleveland. Morgan's Warlike Speech.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE. WASHINGTON, June 8, 1896.—Going on—almost gone. That represents the present condition of the first session of the Fifty-fourth Congress. Adjournment may come tomorrow, but it will certainly not be later than Wednesday.

Beyond the regular appropriation bills this session of congress has put very few laws upon the statute books, and to say whether those few were good or bad depends so largely upon the point of view that your correspondent will not venture to record his opinion of them. Like most other Congresses upon the eve of a Presidential election, this one has left undisposed of some of the most important bills which were before it. To deplore this would be simply a waste of time. It has always been so and will continue to be so, until the average Congressman ceases to be like the average man—more intent upon looking out for his own interests than those of other people.

For once at least the House has shown itself to be in accord with President Cleveland. By a vote of 149 to 40 the House sustained the President's veto of the general deficiency bill. This bill was vetoed because it contained an appropriation of more than a million dollars to pay twenty-year-old French spoliation claims and another of nearly $175,000 for a doubtful private claim. The House passed a new deficiency bill with those and some other objectionable items left out. These appropriations were put in the bill by the Senate and kept in by the Senate conference, and there are few members of the House who are not glad the bill was vetoed. It is doubtful whether one-twentieth of these spoliation claims are now in the hands of descendants of the original claimants. They have been mostly bought up by speculators for ridiculously small amounts. An appropriation to pay them was vetoed by President Pierce.

Whether intended or not, Senator Morgan's warlike Cuban speech, which was so ridiculed that the Senate galleries were cleared and the speech finished in secret session, is believed by lots of people to have been rather pleasing than otherwise to President Cleveland. Those who hold this belief also believe that President Cleveland intends doing something startling in connection with the relation of this government to the Cuban revolutionists between now and the meeting of the Chicago convention. It appears that the Republican Senators took some such view of the Morgan speech, as Senators Sherman and Lodge took a leading part in the shutting of the Senate doors while the speech was being made.

Notice that the fight for the distribution of the regular appropriation bills among the Senate committees, instead of having them all acted upon by the committee on appropriations, as at present, is to be renewed at the next session of Congress is revived by the introduction of a resolution by Senator Proctor, of Vermont, providing for the change.

A New York business man who has just returned from a trip through the great agricultural States, says the grainists are literally bursting with firm products for which there is no local demand, and which transportation charges make it unprofitable to ship to distant markets. "It is not to be wondered at," he says, "in the face of such conditions that the agricultural people are in favor of free silver. They are disgusted with the present status, and are willing to risk the silver-cure. Eastern people who never get away from home seem surprised at the strength of the silver cause, but if they would take a trip as far West as Omaha they would understand the reasons that are behind the movement."

Senator Warren, of Wyoming, is one of those who doesn't fancy the idea of trying to tell his constituents why Congress adjourned without acting upon numerous bills in which they are interested, and he stated on the floor of the Senate, when the resolution for adjournment was offered, that he would rather sit for weeks longer, and even to lose his vote in November, than undertake to explain to the people of his state why the Senate could not remain in session and dispose of bills in which they and other Western people are interested. Mr. Warren was in a minority—a very small minority—and he must make those explanations as best he may.

Notwithstanding the constant watching of the Father Marquette statue by the Capitol police, somebody has succeeded in slightly disfiguring it, by breaking the fathers from the head dress of one of the Indians on a bronze relief tablet on one of the sides of the pedestal. The stone resolution accepting the statue and thanking the state of Wisconsin for it was among the long list of bills and resolutions which were pushed over to the next session after having been acted upon by one or the other branches of Congress. It is said there was politics in the postponement of this particular resolution, and hence probably was.

The Moscow Disaster.

PARIS.—The Eclair learns that in the disaster on the Hodynysk Plain at Moscow last Saturday, on the occasion of the distribution of free food and drink to the populace, 3,873 persons were killed and 4,000 injured.

Heavy Storm in Ohio.

CANTON, O.—A heavy storm passed over Canton and vicinity. The Canton & Massillon Electric Railroad is blocked with a huge landslide. The Catholic Church at West Brookfield was destroyed by lightning. Two hundred feet of side track and main track of the Cleveland, Lorain Railway was washed away.

A number of houses in Canton were struck by lightning and two children of Samuel Sell were badly shocked. Trees innumerable were uprooted, cellars flooded and lawns, gardens and street damaged.
