THE NOMINEES

OF STATE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Well Selected Democratic Standard Bearer. Poor Convention Hall Accommodations. No Word for the Press.

Editorial Correspondence.

Raleigh, June 26, '96.

The first part of the State Democratic plan for a wise, safe and good home government has been accomplished. The Democratic Convention ended part one this morning at 4:35, in the Academy of Music, closing with naming the State Democratic Executive. It was a great assemblage of Democrats, this Convention, which has just closed. Such a gathering of Democracy is an inspiration, it assures stability to State Government, and creates a feeling of safety in all home institutions.

From Chairman Pott's opening speech to the final stroke of Chairman Manly's gavel announcing adjournment since die, there was intense interest manifested. At times there were vexatious delays, caused largely by an over exuberance of feeling which found expression in calling down speakers by side remarks, but it was always an orderly Convention, and Democratic throughout.

Raleigh is a Convention city, but it does not provide for its gatherings. This was especially true of the Convention just ended, which was crowded up in a narrow, poorly ventilated and most disagreeable place, bad enough to be confined in, in the best of weather, but which with the kind of weather prevailing the past two days, was simply a torture hall. At night a dismal obscurity prevailed, the place being just sufficiently lighted by gas to reveal its darkness. Raleigh ought to either provide a suitable Convention building, or else let some other city which can and will give such a hall, be selected as the Convention city.

Amidst all the display of eloquence, in the laudation of Democracy, its past and future leaders, its principles and its present successes, one factor which has contributed most generously, spontaneously, and has ever been most ready in defence of the Democratic party of this State, was not mentioned. This was the Democratic Press of North Carolina. It was present at the convention. Its members were among the delegates, and among the spectators. Upon the platform, the Press talked before the Convention opened, and after its close, its members, hot, weary, and nearly exhausted still worked on sending forth to the people throughout the State the glad news. It was the only ungracious act of the convention, yet it can be said that not a number of protest went up from these Democrats who daily go before the people, whose labors are incessant, never faltering for all that is highest and best for true Democracy.

The convention of 1896 must stand forth as one which placed a value upon its young Democracy. Among the earnest speakers, and hard workers of the convention were young Democrats, and they were well represented upon the several tickets.

Today, it is already announced that the nominations are displeasing to certain Populists. To the leaders of the Populists the men placed upon the ticket may be too strong, too anti-everything which opposes the will of the people, but to the voting Populist who wants men elected to office, who is for a stable, home government, the State Democratic ticket this year must prove irresistibly attractive.

The Executive Committee met this morning, continuing a temporary organization for the present, advocating a central committee of nine members, instead of the twenty which now constitutes it. A meeting for permanent organization will be announced in a few days.

The Congressional convention for the Third District will meet at Jacksonville, August 19th.

The following were the nominations:

For Governor, Cyrus B. Watson, of Forsyth.

For Lieutenant Governor, Thomas W. Mason, of Northampton.

For Secretary of State, Charles M. Cooke, of Franklin.

For State Treasurer, B. F. Aycock, of Wayne.

For State Auditor, R. M. Farman, of Buncombe.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction, John C. Scarborough, of Johnston.

For Attorney General, F. L. Osborne, of Mitchell.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, A. C. Avery of Burke, and George H. Brown of Beaufort.

DELEGATES TO CHICAGO.

First District—Delegates, C. F. Warren, B. B. Winburn, Alternates, H. J. Herlihy, E. J. Jones.

Second District—Delegates, J. W. Gresham, T. L. Emery; Alternates, R. B. Spaight, J. E. Woodard.

Third District—Delegates, P. M. Pearson, J. H. Curry; Alternates, F. R. Cooper, G. A. Brantman.

Fourth District—Delegates, M. W.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

HINTS OF A POLITICAL SCANDAL.

Interest Intense on Chicago Convention. A Squarely Fought Issue on Currency, President Taking Personal Interest.

JOURNAL BUREAU.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26.

Hints of a possible big political scandal in the near future have been dropped this week by leading silver men. No names are used and few particulars are given, but it is whispered around Washington that some of these who are shouting the loudest for silver in public are plotting in private to prevent the nomination by the Chicago convention of a ticket upon which all of the silver voters would be willing to unite, and it is further whispered that some sensational denunciations may follow the Chicago convention, if these plotters succeed in getting a ticket put up that the Populists and silver Republicans will refuse to support.

It did not seem possible two months ago that the Chicago convention could attract the attention it is now receiving. It will hardly do so whether the Presidential campaign shall be squarely fought between a gold ticket and a silver ticket, or whether there shall be a triangular fight, with all the advantages on the side of the gold ticket. It doesn't seem to make the slightest difference to those who are fighting to prevent the convention adopting a free silver platform and nominating a silver ticket that nearly two thirds of the delegates to the convention have already declared themselves to be silver men. This isn't complimentary to the gold cause, but it is sticky news.

President Cleveland is making a personal attempt to get the southern delegates to the National Convention to abandon the idea of voting for a free coinage platform. He is sending out large numbers of two personal letters. One of them is addressed to southern men of prominence whom he has met, appealing to them to give their influence towards preventing the debut of the administration by its own party convention. This letter goes in strong on southern sentiment and gratitude, and recites what the prior has done for the south during his two terms presiding among other favors bestowed on the south like Cabinet positions, two Associate Justices of the U. S. Supreme Court, and two Ambassadors. The other letter is being sent to business men in New York and other eastern cities who have intimate financial relations with the south. In it these eastern capitalists are urged to notify their southern patrons that if the southern delegates to Chicago persist in voting for the free coinage of silver they need not say for further financial aid in their business enterprises from eastern capitalists, and that when their outstanding obligations are due no further extension of time will be given them, but they will be required to settle or suffer the consequences. It remains to be seen what will be the effect of these two remarkable letters.

The silver men are not allowing their opponents to do all the fighting. They are going to have their representative men meet in Chicago next week, a week ahead of the convention, for the express purpose of making an iron clad programme for the convention which cannot possibly be upset. The anti-silver leaders are also going to Chicago next week, and the anti-conventionalist promises to be quite as interesting as that which will occur in the convention itself, and may really settle in advance just what the convention will do. Everybody in Washington, Republicans, Democrats and Populists alike, are engaged in discussing the possibilities and probabilities of the convention, and there is the wildest possible difference of opinions as to what the outcome will be.

That secretary Teller will not be the nominee seems to be one of the few certainties. A new silver campaign button has made its appearance. It is a reproduction in metal of the ordinary field daisy, with sixteen numbered white petals and a figure one on the yellow center. This button originated in Washington and the designer has applied for a patent. It has been endorsed and adopted by the American Bimetallist League.

Those who said before Congress adjourned that President Cleveland had a war scare up his sleeve which he would produce whenever he thought it expedient to do so are no more than ever convinced that they were right. The premature publication of the nature of the report which Gen. Fitz Lee, our Consul General to Cuba, has made to the President upon the condition of affairs in Cuba is what convinced them. It is argued that this report will furnish a basis for the President to act upon, if he so disposed, and that if he takes any action favorable to the Cuban Spain will be compelled, by public opinion which is already much influenced against us, to declare war against the United States. Meanwhile Gen. Fitz Lee is in diplomatic hot water. He wrote a letter containing very decided opinions to a relative who made the mistake of showing it to a newspaper man. Consequently the Spanish minister wants his official seal, and according to diplomatic etiquette he is entitled to it, but whether he will get it is altogether another thing.

For Over 50 Years Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by Millions of Mothers for their Children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, always all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

DOES EITHER KNOW.

Senator Morgan Declares that England Never Would Consent to Bimetallism.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26.—Senator Morgan comes out in a strong appeal for silver, and answers to Secretary Whitney's gold statement, saying that England would never consent to bimetallism, and that the country must make the start.

Murderers Hanged.

CANON CITY, Colo., June 26.—Thos. Colt, Ed. Noble and Daniel Romero, murderers of policeman S. L. Brown, were hanged here today.

Powder Exploded by Convicts.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 26.—An explosion of powder caused by convict miners at Busby mountain, killed the son of the proprietor, William Joyner, a stranger named Miller, and seriously injured many others.

Corbet to Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—James J. Corbett and "Evil" Starkey have signed articles this afternoon to fight for a purse of ten thousand dollars.

Carlisle Will Vote for McKinley.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., June 26.—Ex-Secretary of State Charles Foster says that Secretary Carlisle told him, that if the Democrats endorsed a free silver President, he would vote for McKinley.

Another to Run.

RALPHON, June 26.—Since the Democratic State Convention adjourned it is rumored here that the Populists will nominate W. A. Gilmer for Governor.

Harrison Retained.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26.—Misslet Anderson has received a telegram from Venezuela, that the British Surveyor Harris was captured. Secretary Olney will notify the British Ambassador of the capture.

Don't Like Silver Outlook.

BOSTON, Mass., June 26.—Massachusetts Democrats in some quarters are feeling of a third party on account of the likelihood of a free silver success at Chicago. It had not been for this, they say, Democrats had a sure victory.

Hartford Bicycles Another

Reduction!

Are the sort of Bicycles usually listed at $80.00 to $100.00. We sell them exactly on their merits. We know, and you know, that HARTFORD'S are not as good as the famous COLUMBIAS—Standard of the World ($100.00 to all alike)—but neither is any other brand. That is why there are varying prices in bicycles. Hartford's are splendidly made—better than most bicycles—and they

First:—We want to assure you of the truthfulness of its substance.

We mean just what we say.

From now until they are gone, we offer everything that's summery in Dry Goods at absolute cost.

We have three reasons for doing this.

FIRST.

We Must Have Room for our Fall and Winter Stock.

SECOND.

The decline in the price of goods which will enable us to place them at a less price next season.

LASTLY.

We refuse positively to carry them through the winter season.

We are desirous of always giving our patrons the newest and noblest styles. We believe we cannot do this with a former season's goods.

You can readily see our motive in offering such tremendous cuts. We must close them out. This accounts for this early date which we have set to have this sale.

Those who are preparing to leave the city for the summer can take advantage of the cut, as they will have ample time to make their selections.

Our stock is as nicely assorted as at any time before during the season.

We advise you, if you are open for Bargains, not to miss this sale.

To show you some of the reductions you'll get, we quote a few prices below.
