NO COME DOWN.

JUDGE RUSSELL WILL CONTINUE ON TICKET.

Prohibition Convention at Salisbury. What Reputed Politicians Say. Butler Quibbles Regarding Russell, and Talks Generally.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., July 4.

The absence of the 4th was confined here to the closing of the Public Building, the display of National and State flags and fireworks in the evening at Pullan Park. Formerly thousands of country people used to come in on the 4th, but this is the case no longer. One of the street sights was the presence of scores of wagons loaded with home grown water-melons, large and cheap, much earlier than ever before.

The Governor's Guard returned this morning from Richmond, where they made a very fine appearance. It was rumored yesterday that Congressman Skinner of the Populist State Committee would go to Chicago to see the Democratic National Convention, but today he positively denies this. He said that at the committee meeting yesterday it was asked whether any of those present contemplated going to Chicago, and all said no. In May Dr. Mott, chairman of the National Silver Party, told me there would be a couple of hundred silver men and Populists there, looking out for what might turn up.

Cy. Watson, the Democratic leader, says that this year's campaign will be a bitter one, but one full of argument against the Republicans.

The State Prohibition Convention will be held at Salisbury, August 19. That party has decided to nominate a full State ticket. It is said it will, in some districts, at least, nominate Congressional candidates.

J. Z. Green is one of the delegates to the National Populist Convention at St. Louis. He publishes five Populist papers. He says it seems to him there will be three State tickets in the field in North Carolina. Like all the other Populist delegates he is for Teller. All of them unite in swearing that the Democrats must nominate Dr. Culler Teller to get the solid silver vote. Ex-Congressman "Back" Kitchen of the Populist State Committee, was very frank when he declared that the Populists and free silver men generally could not in his opinion consistently decline to endorse any man nominated on a silver man platform at Chicago who is satisfactory to the western bolters and is endorsed by Teller and his followers.

Kitchen was equally frank when he declared the North Carolina populists would fuse with which ever side they could make the best terms with.

Most of the populists who were here yesterday say they believe there will be 8 state tickets in the field. Your correspondent asked Senator Butler this question: "Is D. L. Russell to be taken down or come down from the hand of the Republican State ticket. He replied: "Without going into this question at all one thing is certain. That is the majority of the voters of this State will never endorse the ticket nominated June 25th by the Democrats. The fact is the majority of the people are for a non-partisan judiciary and any party which endeavors to pack the Supreme court they will not endorse. They are not going to give three men of one party a chance to construe the law. Secondly, not only every man outside the Democratic party but at least half those affiliating with it believe in honest election and will never support any ticket which will make it possible for some and conditions such as we have had on election day to return, provided they are sure they cannot vote a ticket which will make the conditions worse. As to the electoral tickets it makes little difference, for if there were four in the State, three for silver and one for gold the latter could not get a plurality. If the Republicans want to run a gold ticket I don't care. I propose that they should do so and that the gold Democrats should fuse with them, so we can see how many of the latter there are."

Senator Butler never did say, nor would he say, whether Russell and the Republican electoral ticket would come down. In fact there is "backing" all along the line as to this matter.

Your correspondent asked several of the delegates to Chicago whether they approved of the policy of making the free and unlimited coinage of silver the supreme issue in the party this year? E. J. Hais replies "yes." R. D. Fosberg said: "I think it is the only sensible thing to do. I think the best way to do this is to nominate Teller for President. This eliminates all party issues from the contest and forces the issue between gold and silver." Alternate R. R. Lacy said: "I think free coinage more important than protection, but do not wish to see it the supreme issue."

The same question was asked others not delegates. Editor Josephus Daniels of the News and Observer replied: "It is the supreme issue. The people have made it so. I approve of it." James O. Macfise said: "I certainly do, because it has made itself the issue. I would not on any account give up a single principle of democracy and I believe they are all as vital now as they ever were, but this one question has so asserted itself as it put everything else behind it, for the times. This is in all kindness to the Eastern democracy, to which we now owe everything in the past and from which we hope much in the future." Ex-State chairman Richard H. Battle replied: "I do not. Having carried the country four years ago against the McKinley tariff for high protection it seems to me a partial abandonment of one of the distinctive principles of the party to subordinate that issue to any other when the Republican party has nominated McKinley as the embodiment of the high protective principle, and secondly because the Democrats are honestly divided on the question whether it is practicable for the United States alone to establish a double standard without the assistance of other nations."

TALK OF HILL.

For Temporary Chairman Seems to be Growing. The Senator Relaxes to Discuss Matters.

Special. CHICAGO, July 4.—Tonight there is more talk than ever of Senator Hill, of New York, being elected temporary chairman. The silver men agree he can do no harm. Senator Hill still refuses to discuss the probability of his being named for the place.

McKinley at Ease.

Special. CANTON, O., July 4.—Major McKinley spent a quiet time at home today, signing letters in reply to correspondence. No delegation arrived today.

Bit from Snake Bite.

Special. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 4.—Josiah Ennemet, Sr., the founder of Wataguga, aged ninety one years, who was bitten last night by a snake, died this morning.

GOLD MEN ACTIVE.

Special. His Mass Meeting Presided Over by Whitney. Silvermen Say Will Hold One Themselves. Senator Morgan Sits.

Special. CHICAGO, July 4.—The sound money men held a big mass meeting here tonight. The meeting was presided over by Wm. C. Whitney, and was participated in by Ex-Gov. Flower, of New York, Senator D. B. Hill, Ex-Gov. Russell, of Massachusetts, John L. Fellows, of New York, Ex-Secretary Don Dickinson, of Michigan, Senator Gray, of Delaware, and others almost equally prominent. The silverites will have a counter rally next Monday.

Senator Morgan, of Alabama, who was a delegate to the Convention, was taken sick while en route here, and compelled to stop over. Some say this may interfere with the Cuban plank in the platform, which the Senator had in charge.

Maryland Delegate Resigns.

BAITIMORE, Md.—Merion De Kalb Smith, one of the delegates-at-large from this State to the Democratic National Convention, has resigned from the delegation, and will not go to Chicago with the rest of the delegation. Mr. Smith, who was Comptroller of the State under Gov. Brown, says he sees no use in going to Chicago, as, in his opinion, the silver men will have it all their own way. It is announced now that there will be four silver votes among the Maryland delegation.

Railroad Avoidance of Postage.

WASHINGTON.—The Postmaster General recently discovered a clever scheme on the part of certain railroads to avoid postage on mail matter intended for officials of the railroads and their employees by an arrangement of mail between the roads whereby the baggage masters in large envelopes. The scheme was worked principally in New York, New York city, Buffalo, and other terminal points exchanged mail matter, thus avoiding postage. The outcome of the discovery was a communication sent by the Treasury Department to railroad officials, stating that the Revised Statutes would regulate postal routes for carrying mail other than in regular mail-cars, except when all the letters are enclosed in stamped envelopes.

WILMINGTON LETTER.

SHIPPING BUSINESS VERY DULL.

Delegation to Richmond. Shelter Silver Cross. Baseball. Music. Fourth July Observed. A. C. L. News More Room.

JOURNAL BUREAU, WILMINGTON, N. C., July 4, '96.

The harbor of Wilmington has a deserted look these summer days, the shipping being less than usual, and carried on principally by small trading schooners. The lumber mills are not shipping lumber to any extent.

The only exception in the river business, is the large amount of Phosphate, that is brought here from Charleston. This is for the Navy's Guano Co. For the rest the muddy waters of the Cape Fear flow on with scarce an interruption to the sea.

The Naval Reserves have returned from their week of hard work down the river and seem to be contented. We were sorry to have such a small representation from the Eastern part of the State.

There was quite a delegation to Richmond from this point, to take part in the ceremonies, of the first and second of July.

The Shelter of the Silver Cross has been opened for the summer at Ocean View Beach. This is a house or at least a stop-over place for all those who cannot afford a summer's outing at the seashore. It is a great blessing for Wilmington's poor, who are enabled to enjoy the cooling breezes of the ocean, through the large heartiness of the Circle of King's Daughters. About thirty inmates were there this week.

Baseball has an inning this week. High Point being our boys' opponents. The large crowds that attend, show this to be a much enjoyed pastime.

We have a band at last that is a credit to the town. They arrived from Charleston this week and will play here a summer. As an advertisement they have been playing on the streets much to the delight of the small boy.

Fourth of July is very generally celebrated here this year. Most of the stores have closed. Large numbers are over at Lake Waccamaw, a splendid place to spend a day. Great crowds are at the beaches, where yacht-racing is the order of the day. The fishermen are on the deep, despite. Even those who are so unfortunate as to spend the day at home, are resting and doubtless as happy as their more restless neighbor.

The Parcell house, which has been entertaining travelers for nearly thirty years, closed its doors this week, probably for the last time. The Orton has been leased by the old Parcell management and will be improved if there is any way it can be done. Since the change the Orton House has taken on a new and more lively appearance, the porch being filled with guests.

The Atlantic Coast Line requires more room for its general offices and will build a large annex to its present handsome building on Front St.

It seems reasonably sure that a railroad will be built between our city and Southport. One of our civil engineers is now employed to push the work, and ere long we should have rail connection between that pleasing little town and Wilmington.

Judge Russell is seen occasionally upon the street. He is as large as ever, and has a look that says: "I will be located at Raleigh next year." Will he wear his duster in the executive mansion?

Expedition Leaves for Cuba. Key West, Fla.—Deputy Collector Knight received an order from Washington to release the arms and ammunition recently seized on the steamer City of Key West. Upon their release they were placed on board the steamer Three Friends. She left at midnight, ostensibly for Jacksonville.

Shortly after her departure the schooner Dottie, with sixty-two Cubans, left the harbor, and it is now conceded that another expedition has been successful in getting off, as there is no doubt that the Dottie transferred her men to the steamer. Many prominent Cubans were among those who left.

Telegraphic Items. In the House of Commons, Mr. A. J. Balfour, First Lord of the Treasury announced the withdrawal from Parliament of the Irish education bill.

The Irish American Military Union went into a four days' camp at Avons Avons Park, Bridgeport, Conn. This is the first encampment of the organization ever held in this country.

William Warren, of Winnipeg, Man., while intoxicated, cut his wife's throat and gashed her face and head terribly with a razor. He then drew the weapon across his own throat, dying almost immediately.

London.—In the House of Commons, Mr. George N. Curzon Parliamentary Secretary to the Foreign Office, in reply to an inquiry regarding the subject, said that the port had agreed to apply immediately the measures which the Powers demanded for the purpose of restoring tranquility in the Island of Cuba.
