WASHINGTON LETTER.

A BAD POLITICAL MIX UP IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

Bryan and Populists. Sewall Unknown. Republicans and Silver Democrats Plunged. Gold Democrats are Quiet.

JOURNAL BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13th.

National politics have had some bad mix ups in the past, but the present situation is a few points ahead of them all. Present indications are that those who have been predicting a general breaking down of old party lines this year will prove to be true prophets. It would seem that the Chicago convention by the adoption of a platform advocating many of the principles of the Populists and nominating ex-Representative Bryan, of Nebraska who has always in his state and during his two terms in the House affiliated with the Populists, has made it reasonably certain that the Populists and silver conventions to meet at St. Louis next week, would endorse his candidacy, but it is intimated by leading Populists that such endorsement depends largely upon individual pledges yet to be made by Mr. Bryan himself.

Although Bryan's nomination was not expected by anybody—probably not even by himself—until the day before it was made, it is generally admitted that with the exception of Senator Teller, who would have been certain to get the full populist vote and almost the entire silver vote, Bryan is about the strongest man the Democrats could have put up, and the fact that he is the youngest man ever nominated for the Presidency will have a tendency to arouse great enthusiasm in his behalf of the young men of his party. Mr. Arthur Sewall, of Me., the Democratic nominee for Vice-President, is well known in Washington, but is comparatively unknown elsewhere, outside of New England. It is a matter of opinion whether he adds any strength to the ticket. It is not probable that his party expect to get any electoral votes from New England.

One of the queer things is that the Republicans and silver Democrats profess to be equally well pleased with the platform and ticket of the Chicago convention. Republicans now confess that they were afraid the convention would nominate Teller, and express the greatest confidence in their ability to defeat Bryan and Sewall, even if the Populist and silver conventions endorse them and the bolting silver Republicans support them. (On the other hand, the silver Democrats profess to be absolutely certain that if their ticket is endorsed by the St. Louis conventions and supported by the silver Republicans, they will win. Both sides say that all they want is a square fight between the gold and silver ticket. Whether they will get that depends largely upon the action of the St. Louis conventions.

About the only people who do not profess to be satisfied with the situation are the Cleveland or gold Democrats. They acknowledge that they are very much dissatisfied, but when it comes to telling what they intend doing they are mum. It is believed to be probable that the gold Democrats will put up a ticket of their own in any event, and certain that they will do so if the Populist and silver conventions do not endorse Bryan and Sewall. Should these conventions endorse the Chicago ticket, it is thought to be most likely that the gold Democrats will mostly support the Republican ticket, as the surest way to defeat silver. If there are two silver tickets in the field they argue that Republican success would then be certain and that they could safely run a separate gold ticket solely for the purpose of keeping up their party organization in the Eastern States.

While there are plenty of Democrats who like neither Bryan nor the platform upon which he stands, there are also plenty who are inclined to endorse over both. For instance, below are opinions expressed by Democrats from three states, now in Washington: Ex-Congressman Brookshire, of Ind.,—"I served in Congress with Bryan, know him intimately, and prize his friendship. He is one of the purest men living; the whole trend of his nature is noble, high-minded and honorable; and his domestic relations are happy for he is a devoted husband and father. Feel positive that he can carry Indiana. Whatever may be said against free silver there is no disputing the fact that the movement has the people of the West and South behind it; they are going to rally around the 16 to 1 flag, and in the person of Bryan they have a leader who will strengthen their enthusiasm instead of weakening it." Mr. Anthony Walsh, a business man of Memphis, Tenn.,—"Outside of Memphis where the gold sentiment is very strong, the nomination of Bryan will be well received by the Tennessee democracy. Tennessee is ardent for free coinage, and the Democrats will elect their United States and National. I can't figure the possibility of danger in a single Southern state, and among the young men Bryan's candidacy will create a future of enthusiasm." Mr. J. E. McPherson, a business man of Louisville, Va.:—"The nomination of Bryan means that Virginia will go Democratic. The old Dominion is thoroughly saturated with the silver sentiment. I know plenty of men who were until recently advocates of the gold standard, who are now staunch believers in silver. I am a convert to the cause myself."

WHAT DEMOCRATS THINK OF THE TICKET.

Price Not Quotable. How Bryan Would be Received in New York. State Convention Meeting. Sound Money Democrats.

Special.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Senator Calvin S. Brice when he was asked today whether he would repudiate the Chicago ticket and platform said, "I am not ready yet to be quoted on the subject until I have had my own convention, or heard from friends in Ohio, and learn what they are going to recommend."

The desire that nominee W. J. Bryan, shall have formal notification exercises in this city, has given rise to much discussion about the treatment he would get from local democrats.

The Sheehan element in Tammany Hall say that they would give Bryan a warm welcome, but many Tammany leaders say that the Populist candidate would not stay in the West.

State chairman Hinkley has issued a call for a meeting next week of the State convention, which will be held at Saratoga, the latter part of August.

The gold men will make a strong effort to condemn the National Democratic platform.

W. C. Whitney, David B. Hill and other leaders are arranging a sound money conference of the Eastern Democrats which will take place soon.

CALM BEFORE THE STORM.

Diplomatic Affairs Regarding Crete Reach This Stage. Porte Will Be Given a Short Time to Reply.

BERLIN.—There is no doubt that Europe has reached a period of armistice in the diplomatic warfare over Turkey, but the governments are relying too much upon the showing up of matters in Crete and the unlikelihood of a recurrence of important events in that island. This is the official impression here.

Dr. Nicolaides, the official representative of the Cretan reform committee, who is now in Berlin, distrusts the present comparative calm and regards it merely as a brief truce before the breaking out of the storm.

The only chance of permanent peace in Crete, he declares, is in the intervention of the powers and the granting of autonomy to the island. Apart from the opinion expressed by Dr. Nicolaides, advice have been received here from Crete to the effect that although the Christian deputies will attend the opening of the session of the Cretan assembly they do not intend to engage in debate with the Moslem deputies, but will present to Berovitch Georgi Pasha, the newly appointed Christian governor of Crete, who will preside, a document setting forth the claims of the Christian Cretans, to which will be added a demand for universal suffrage and the recognition of the Cretan flag, with the cross thereon.

They will give the porte a short time in which to respond to the demands, and if the porte's reply shall be unfavorable, as it certainly will be, the Christian deputies will constitute an independent assembly.

In the meantime the insurgents will seize the advantage afforded by the Turkish troops being forced into inactivity, and occupy all the strategic points in the island.

Ratification for Bryan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Rousing mass meetings were held in nearly every city in the West to ratify the nominations of Bryan and Sewall. The meetings were addressed by prominent Democrats, free silver Republicans and Populists and great enthusiasm was manifested.

New Cases of Cholera.

CAIRO.—The number of new cases of cholera reported throughout Egypt was 962. The deaths numbered 331. Among those who have died from the disease is Major Owen, of the Sudan expedition, who commanded the outposts at Aslugol Wells.

German Crops Abundant.

BERLIN.—Reports received from the south of Germany and Austro-Hungary say that in those sections the harvest of wheat and rye is unusually good. In Roumania the harvest of wheat and corn is very abundant.

Fatal Bicycle Accident.

WILKESBARRE, Pa.—George Stone, a druggist, and Charles Sanford, an engineer on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, residing at Athens, Pa., while coasting down a hill on a tandem bicycle near Campville lost control of their wheel and crashed into a bridge. Stone was instantly killed and Sanford was fatally injured. The former is married; the latter single.

Detroit Paper Hints.

DETROIT, Mich.—The Free Press, the leading Democratic newspaper of Michigan, announced that it will not endorse the Chicago platform or candidates. The Detroit Tribune, Republican, had previously bolted the Republican party and declared for free silver.

Bad Drowning Accident.

BELLOWS FALLS, Vt.—The village of Cambridgeport, covers miles from this town, is mourning for one of the saddest drowning accidents that has occurred in this city for many years.

The victims are two young daughters of Rev. F. D. Goodrich—Rosabel, aged eighteen, and Lillian, aged twenty—graduates from the State Normal School.

About 11 o'clock the girls told their father they were going walking. About 3 o'clock the daughters not having returned, the father and mother went to the river nearby and soon found the body of one daughter in shallow water near the shore.

A searching party was organized, and after some time the body of the other daughter was found in twelve feet of water. Both had evidently been dead for some hours.

The bodies were cast in improvised bathing suits, which indicated a sudden determination to go to the river for a bath. Both expected to teach the coming year.
