CLEVELAND AND GOLD.

HE FAVORS A DEMOCRATIC GOLD TICKET.

Urges Hill and Tammans to Inaugurate a Movement to Put a Third Ticket in the Field.

Special.
New York, July 15.—It is said that Secretary Herbert's declaration about the Chicago Convention represents the administration which is much troubled over the question of the advisability of nominating a third ticket.

Democratic goldites understand that Cleveland is urging Hill and Tammans to work to this end in order to avoid the necessity of being driven to the support of McKinley.

Hill, Whitely and others interested in the gold campaign announce that they have nothing new to report, but expect to have in a few days.

From the State Capital.

Special.
RALEIGH, N. C., July 15.—The Populists are considerably stirred up by the news that Teller will not allow his name to go before the Populist National Convention.

Teller has an editorial in his paper highly eulogistic of Bryan. The Populists are urging the Populist not to endorse Bryan but to make a nomination at St. Louis.

Found Hanging to a Tree.

Special.
ANNAPOLIS, I. T.—Near McGill, sheriff of Thibodemo county, came in from Thibodemo, the capital of the Chickasaw, Nation, and reports that three white men were found hanging to a limb near Beggs Pond, a few miles from Thibodemo. The men were strangers in the neighborhood, and the crime is a mystery. It is generally believed that they were horse-thieves, and were followed and captured by a party of Indians and sent up.

They were still hanging when the sheriff left the scene. The bodies will be taken down by the Federal authorities.

BRYAN AND MCKINLEY.

If There's No Joint Debate Between Them It Won't be the Democrat's Fault.

TOLEDO, O.—If William J. Bryan has his way Ohio will be the storm center of the ensuing campaign. The Democratic candidate promises to stump this State and to deliver at least one address in Toledo.

Mr. Bryan is desirous of having a joint debate on the currency with Mr. McKinley, and he will let McKinley select the time and place.

Among the callers upon Mr. Bryan just after the nomination was Peter H. Deegan, of this city, alternate at large.

"Can we hope to see you in Ohio during the campaign, Mr. Bryan?" he asked. "You certainly can," was the prompt reply. "I expect to make a number of speeches in Ohio between now and election."

"What! invade the home of McKinley?"

"I know Mr. McKinley very well," returned Mr. Bryan, "and esteem him highly as a man. We were together in Congress and worked together in the Ways and Means Committee. He is an excellent gentleman and thoroughly honest in all he says and does."

"If you come to Ohio you may happen to meet him," was suggested.

"I would not ask anything better than to meet Mr. McKinley in joint debate," said Mr. Bryan, his eyes kindling, "right in his own State and at his home."

The conversation was continued in an informal way for some time and Mr. Bryan several times referred to his desire to meet McKinley.

To Welcome Bryan.

Special.
New York, July 15.—Congressman Salzer and others have organized a Bryan Club No. 1 and propose to give Bryan and Swall a warm reception and welcome.

Another Bond Issue.

Special.
New York, July 15.—Bankers here regard the general financial situation as very grave and say that another bond issue will be necessary.

Two Old Ladies Burned to Death.

BALTIMORE, Md.—Mrs. Loretta Woolford, aged 84 years, and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Schieffelin, 85 years old, were horribly burned at their home, No. 1210 Riverside avenue, and both died. The old ladies were about to retire for the night. A small kerosene lamp which the older woman carried fell from her hand and exploded. The blazing fluid ignited their clothing and when neighbors succeeded in extinguishing the flames both women were burned almost beyond recognition.

California Bimetallists for Bryan.

SAN FRANCISCO.—At a meeting of the California delegates to the national convention of the Bimetallist Union, to meet at St. Louis on the 23d instant, they declared for Bryan and Sewall, the nominees of the Democratic National Convention. Thirty-eight of the forty-five delegates to which California is entitled were present, and the resolution was carried without a dissenting voice. Chairman Baker, of the State silver organization, states that the forty-five votes of California will be cast as a unit for Bryan in the coming convention.

Non-Partisan Reception to Mr. Sewall.

BATH, Me.—At a meeting of citizens it was voted that an elaborate public reception should be given to the Hon. Arthur Sewall upon his return to this city. The reception will take place in custom house square, where addresses will be made from a platform. The Republican and Democratic city committee have been given full power to act and will labor together to make the occasion a memorable one.

Declares for Bryan and Sewall.

NEW YORK, Va.—The Norfolk Virginian, whose owner and editor, M. Glenman, was one of the sound-money delegates to the Chicago convention, and who challenged every vote of the Virginia delegation as announced under the unit rule, will declare its support of the Democratic nominees.

Populist Party for Bryan.

WASHINGTON.—Mr. J. H. Turner, Secretary of the National Committee of the Populist party, has issued a manifesto advising all Populists to ratify the nomination of Bryan at the Populist convention St. Louis on July 23d next.

In the course of his address he says: "The truth of it is that the only point the Populists now have to decide is whether or not they will take Mr. Bryan, whom every goldbug in the country has denounced as a Populist, for our next President of the United States, or whether they will take Mr. McKinley, who represents everything that the Populists have denigrated and just the opposite of everything they have advocated since they have been a party."

Poison in the Stocking.

DOWNTOWN, Pa.—The funeral of Miss Dennis McNamee was particularly sad, and it attracted to the Catholic Church hundreds of people. Many of these were Dennis's friends, who had attended the fatal dance with her.

Miss McNamee was one of the girls who, on the Fourth of July, attended a picnic at Solitude Grove, near this place.

She danced a great deal, and a hole was worn in the heel of her stocking. The shoe rubbed the skin off the heel, and the perspiration affected the color in the stocking.

A day or so later she complained of pain in the heel. A physician was summoned, but the poison had done its work, and after a few days of intense suffering she died.

Telegraphic Items.

D. H. Martin, Secretary of the Southern Textile Association, says that of the 2,500,000 spindles in the South, 1,923,000 will be stopped for varying terms.

The Wata Iron Furnace, at Middleboro, Ky., closed last night. Two hundred men are thrown out of employment. The cause is the low price of pig iron.

A petition asking for the pardon of Warren F. Putnam, late President of the National Granite State Bank, of Exeter, N. H., who is now serving a five years' sentence in State prison for embezzlement is being circulated and quite generally signed.

Tests of the Justin shell were continued at West Vienna, N. Y., in the presence of a large number of army officers. Among those present Maj. Gen. Miles, J. C. D. Azavolo and Adel Montu of New York, the two latter representing the Cuban Junta.

He Has Skipped Out.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—Joseph Myers, cashier of the Carolina Central freight depot in this city, has disappeared, being short in his accounts to the amount of $3,500. The company was due him by check for $800, so that his real shortage is $2,700. He had become infatuated with a mysterious, but handsome woman, who has also disappeared, and it is presumed they are together. Myers is a married man.

Looking for Trouble.

An interesting topic now discussed by politicians is whether or not Mr. Bryan will be endorsed by the Populist convention at St. Louis, and, further, whether sound money Democrats will decide later on to put an independent ticket in the field.

All information drifting to Washington from Chicago, New York and other sources indicates that Bryan will have determined opposition at St. Louis, and that sound money men in the Democratic party may be forced in the near future to decide that it will be much better for them to put an independent ticket in the field than to vote for McKinley, or stay away from the polls.
