ONLY POLITICS.

AT PRESENT DISCUSSED AT CAPITAL CITY.

Mr. Young Must Explain His Views
The Durham Murder Case, The Railroad Assessment, State Museum, Austrian Colony.

JOURNAL BUREAU,
RALEIGH, July 25.
Nearly all the talk here is political and much of it of course is regarding the St. Louis Populist convention. The hope was quite freely expressed today that the Populists would nominate their own man for president, as not a few Democrats are sick of Populist ways at the convention. A Populist named Bagwell, a member of the legislature from this county, says the country Populists are saying that "Bryan must prove his character; he must be strictly with us before we support him." Bagwell says the Populists like Bryan pretty well but think he is in a mighty bad company. This is a snare at the Democrats. When told of it a Democrat said: "This is what our people get for feeding with Populists. Spier Whitaker, speaker of the nomination of Tom Watson said: "It means two acts of election and the election of McKinley, unless there is some sort of agreement."
A convict was brought to the penitentiary today from Alexander county to serve 15 years for murder in the second degree.

The results of the meetings held by the "anti-fundamentalists" Cramples as shown by the fact that six of the victims of religious mania caused by his teaching and preaching are in the asylum here. And yet this is in North Carolina where people last year laughed at Schlatter the healer and his poor dupes.

The Republicans here are puzzled by the attitude of James H. Young, member of the Republican State Committee, in declaring that there will be no McKinley electoral ticket in this State. Negro Republicans say that Young will have to explain.

The State musical festival which was to have been held at Morehead City has been abandoned. It is difficult to get up these festivals in this State. The last one was held here in October 1894.

A big cotton crop seems to be quite well assured. The plants are large and certainly well fruited.

The trial of the murderers of J. C. Farrington at Durham has led to some curious developments about Herbert Womble, the white man who murdered his mulatto mistress here and who appeared to have absolutely faded out of sight. Now in the Durham trial it is in evidence that some people had seen Womble and that a woman named Annie Rooney was said to be carrying food to him while he was in hiding near that time. Not long ago one of Womble's companions was tried for murdering a woman at Durham. George Bryant has now been added to the list of those charged with participation in the Farrington murder.

Today a special meeting of the State railway commission was ordered to be held early next Monday morning. Vice President A. B. Andrews asks for a rehearing on the valuation of the North Carolina railway. The commission valued that part of it between Charlotte and Salem at $12,000 per mile, which is $2,000 above the maximum of all other main lines. Col. Andrews at the first hearing declared that the rate ought not to be higher than that of other main line roads. The reason why the commission made the rate so high is because the road pays better than any other in the State, yielding 7 per cent on its capital stock.

The farmers' institutes begin August 8, in Watauga county, and will then be held in Surry, Alleghany, Stokes, &c., ending in Davis, 8 counties in all. The meetings will be 2 days when requested.

The new arctic wells at the Agricultural College here are completed and yield plenty of excellent water. There are six wells.

At Grace church, Weldon, next Tuesday, the pastor, Rev. Edward Benedict, will be married to Miss Kate Long, Bishop Chambers officiating.

The curator of the State museum who is also the taxidermist, is now in making specimens of all the birds of the State as rapidly as possible. The skins are in fine condition. There will be over 200 specimens.

B. C. Beckwith of this city is appointed a member of the State Board of Public Improvements, to succeed Ed. Chambers South, who resigned upon appointment as State proxy of the North Carolina railway.

A colony of Austrians has purchased land near Grassboro, in Guilford county, and will arrive there in October. Each colonist takes fifty acres.

Silver Paper at Chicago.
Special.
CHICAGO, July 25.—The rumor regarding the establishment of a new Democratic newspaper by silverites has taken definite form.

The paper will start within a fortnight. Thomas Cannon will be editor, among the other silverites are Lester Trice, George A. Wood, John R. McLean, of Washington.

THE POPULISTS.

Time Filled up With Speeches and Delays, Bryan Finally Nominated.

Special.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 25.—Convention called to order at 9:30 a. m.
Judge Wm. L. Green, of Nebraska, took the platform, but was interrupted, and retired.
Chairman rapped for order and hoped scenes of yesterday would not be repeated. Judge Green refused to speak.
J. B. Weaver made eloquent plea for the nomination not endorsement of Bryan General Fields, second nomination and moved rules be suspended and nomination made unanimous.
"Stump" Ashby said he was ready to endorse Bryan if he would endorse Populists platform.
Roll call of States frequently interrupted by the confusion in the hall.
Telegram from E. V. Debs, requesting that his name be not presented, was received.
Delegates from nearly every State endorsed Bryan's nomination.
Ignatius Donnelly's name being mentioned for nomination, Mr. Donnelly refused to allow his name to be used.
General Coxey, was nominated. Objection was made to Coxey's nomination, and finally Coxey's name was withdrawn.
A motion was made and adopted that the National committee be given plenary power to transact all necessary business of the party after adjournment.
Bryan was nominated, official ballot being Bryan 1,042; Norton 321.
Convention at 4:46 p. m. adjourned sine die.

WILMINGTON LETTER.

THE CITY OVER CROWDED WITH VISITORS.

Hot and Hottish Weather. A Hotel for Ocean View. Wrightsville Encampment. Blackfish Excursion.
JOURNAL BUREAU,
WILMINGTON, N. C., July 25, '96.

From rainy weather we have changed to a heated spell. Umbrellas that were raised to protect from the falling rain in the past, are now raised to keep the penetrating rays of old Sol, from tired brains.
The man who tells about the hottest day he ever saw, has made his calls this week and entertained (?) all who would listen with tales of hot days when he was young.
What the Aldermen tried to accomplish, in prohibiting the bicyclists enjoying the pleasures of the wheel the hot weather has completed.
Only the most hardy venture out these days, and they prefer the time when the sun has sunk below the horizon, and moonlight covers all the landscape.
What to do with the excursionists has been the constant thought of those who have "board and lodging," or "rooms to rent." Eleven hundred people poured into town Wednesday, when darkness had enshrouded all objects and with the instinct peculiar to all nature at that hour of the day, immediately besought themselves for place to rest their heads, tired with travel.
As the early bird catches the worm so was it with the most agile of the crowd. The loiterers, were repaid by their slowness by finding no where to stay. Trains carried the surplus to the beaches. Down there, the incomers begged to be allowed to remain even on the porches for the night.
This overcrowded aspect evidently had its effect on the Chamber of Commerce, for in its session this week an earnest effort was made to have a large hotel erected at Ocean View Beach. It met with hearty endorsement and surely money can be raised for this much needed improvement. Since the burning of the splendid hotel at the Hammocks near the ocean, no adequate accommodation has been made for the summer visitor. It is to be hoped the Chamber's movement will meet with success.
Yesterday completed the week's encampment of the Second Regiment at Wrightsville. It has been a week of gayety for soldier boys and Wilmington girls. Friday the boys came up from the sound. They were a wornout crowd of men, for the early and late hours of drill coupled with the hot weather were a severe strain on men used to the interior of stores and offices. During the week three dances were given, and Wilmington's fairest girls were there to make it pleasant for the visiting militia, at the same time enjoying themselves.
The fishermen took another day out on the ocean, Friday. The usual number of cases of sickness are reported, and evidently some good story tellers were on board if we are to judge from the tremendous hauls of black fish that were made.
