WANTS DISCUSSION.

MAJOR GUTHRIE WANTS TO MEET CY. WATSON.

Guthrie Requests Manly and Ayer to Arrange Meetings. Also Wants Russell. The Pop Nominee is Funny.

Special.
RALEIGH, N. C., August 17.—W. A. Guthrie arrived here today. He requests chairman Hal Ayer, of his State committee, to confer with chairman Manly regarding a joint discussion between Cy Watson and himself, and also requests Ayer to ask Manly to join him in requesting Republican chairman Holton, to invite Judge Russell to join in the feat of joint debate.

Guthrie wishes all candidates to have a hearing. He requests Ayer to arrange with Manly for appointments to begin the first week in September and continue two or three weeks, or as long as arranged for with Manly.

Guthrie laughed as he said, "In case all three of us engage in joint discussion, I will try to keep peace as much as possible. I told Russell before my nomination that in a three-cornered discussion I supposed we would have to have an understanding. That one day he and I would jump on Cy Watson, the next day Watson and myself would jump on Russell and the third day he and Watson would jump on me. In this relation each one would at some time get the last speech."

Speaks From a Fence.

Special.
POUGHKEEPSA, N. Y., August 17.—W. J. Bryan was obliged by the crowd today, to make a short speech from a rail fence.

He said he was bound out for a rest. He advised the men to study the silver question and vote for it.

Killed in a Fire.

Special.
LEXINGTON, Ky., August 17.—In a fire in a church of the Baptist Association, in Elliott county, yesterday, nine men were killed and four injured, while rescuing women and children from the burning church.

Foraker is Satisfied.

Special.
New York, August 17.—Senator J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, arrived here today. He is busy preparing to sail for Europe, Wednesday.

He says he is well pleased with the progress of the campaign in Ohio, which was opened by the Democrats, last Saturday.

GORMAN FROZEN OUT.

Practical Proclamation That Votes and Money Must Come From the West and South—Jones Disappointed.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Candidate Bryan has broken away from the rule of Senator Jones, Senator Gorman and the other conservative Democratic managers and has dictated the selection of Chicago as the main headquarters of the Democratic National Committee, and Chairman Jones, very much against his will, announced the selection of Chicago, together with the names of as many of the Executive Committee selected as had responded favorably to the telegrams asking them to serve, up to the time that he left for his summer home at Frostburg, Md.

Chairman Jones is disappointed and displeased that it was not for personal pride he would be very likely to retire from the active management of the campaign, but as it is he will stick it out and stay in Chicago most of the time, although he will have branch headquarters eastward to the homes of the Congressional Campaign Committee, and he has a long distance telephone put in order that he might communicate with his advisers here and especially with Senator Gorman, who positively refused to go to Chicago or to take a place on the Campaign Committee after it was determined by Candidate Bryan, against his advice and against that of Senator Jones and the other conservatives of the National Committee, that the headquarters would not be in Washington.

Governor Alford, who had personal reasons for wanting the headquarters in Chicago, where he thinks it will help his campaign for re-election, and who is also opposed to having Senator Gorman on the Campaign Committee, as was Senator Thomas, killed two birds with one stone when an influential Candidate Bryan to follow the Chicago. The radicals have won.

Senator Gorman has evidently refused the formal typewritten statement given out by Senator Jones yesterday, to take any active part in the campaign management now that his advice has been disregarded as to the location of the headquarters; but he will keep his promise to his friend, Senator Jones, to give him the benefit of his experience and advice from Washington, and will talk with Senator Jones over the long distance telephone from time to time.

The selection of Chicago is accepted here as a formal concession of the Eastern States by Candidate Bryan to McKinley and Hobart, also an admission by him of personal disappointment at his treatment by prominent Eastern Democrats, and particularly those of New York City. It is also an acknowledgment of the fact that no money contributions can be obtained in the East for the Bryan and Sewall campaign.

The battlefield and the bank of the campaign are both in the West, and this is Candidate Bryan's great reason for deciding in favor of Chicago. The practical politicians among the regular Democrats who have been planning their faith in Bryan's election largely to the hope that Senator Gorman would take a place on the Campaign Committee and a large part in the management of the campaign are almost panic-stricken by the announcement that the Senator is not going on the committee and is going to confine his public efforts for the ticket to Maryland and "the adjacent States," which means Maryland alone, they think. They now doubt the probability of success for the Chicago ticket.

Not Nansen by Chance.
LONDON.—The Captain of the Windward has sent a long dispatch from Explorer Jackson to A. C. W. Harnworth, one of the promoters of the Jackson-Harnworth expedition. The dispatch says that Mr. Jackson and Dr. Nansen accidentally on June 17 on an ice floe southeast of Cape Flors.

The meeting was most remarkable, owing to Dr. Nansen being uncertain as to where he was both of his watches having stopped and he having been misled by errors in Payer's map. Moreover, he was quite unaware of Jackson's presence in Franz Joseph Land. He evidenced the greatest surprise and delight at meeting Jackson. Members of the Jackson expedition during the Spring had been unknowingly within a few miles of Dr. Nansen's quarters.

Mr. Jackson then proceeds to detail his own doings. He says he devoted most of the past year to exploring the western part of Franz Joseph Land. He made accurate maps of the territory. He discovered new regions, especially a large tract of land beyond the heretofore known limits of the island, with a magnificent headland covered with ice from foot to summit, and a huge rampart of ice that could not be passed over at its base. Here the party met with a series of furious gales, fogs, and driving snowstorms. Frequently they barely escaped being smothered by the ice.

Another lofty headland was discovered up Cambridge Bay. A series of hardships and dangerous adventures was rewarded by valuable scientific collections. The phenomenal mildness of the Spring caused disappointment. The melting of the ice and the consequent openness of the sea prevented the use of sledges in journeys northward. A number of valuable photographs were taken, picturing the terrible arctic nature of the ice-capped country.
