Patal Accident at a Regatta.

LONDON, ENGLAND -The Royal Albert Yacht Club Regatta was continued at Southsea over the forty-six mile course. The slarters in the big race were the Alisa, Brittannia, Satinita, and Meleor. The yacht race for small raters started over the same course as that sailed by the big ya his, but only once around-twentythree miles. The starters were the Suint. While both races were in progress the Meteor came into collision with the twenty-rater, Isolde, dismasting her, and throwing her crew into the sea. All of the boats stopped at once and began the accomplished. The races were then rescue of the Isolde's crew, which was

The big yachts had finished the first round of the course and were just starting on the second round, when suddenly the boats of both classes seemed to have become jammed together. The Isolde, which was sandwiched between two rachts of the larger class, received a severe blow from the Meteor, causing her must to suap in two and fall overboard, shock was a heavy one, causing the Isolds to careen, and as she did so all on board were spilled into the sea. Her er, Baron von Zedwils, was struck on the head by a block or a piece of the proken must. He was uncon taken out of the water, and lin this contaken out of the water, and jin this condition was hurriedly conveyed on board a steam yacht to the club-house of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club at Ryde, where he received every possible medical attember. It is understood that be did not regain consciousness, and that he died soon after reaching the club-house.
