Shot By His Playmate.

PITTIBURG .- James Slack the fourteen year old son of Attorney John C. Slack, of the Fidelity Title and Trust Company, was shot in the head and inatantiy killed by Halsey Williams, jr., while out bunting blackhirds with two other boys at Shield's Station, a few miles from this city. The shooting was the result of an uccident. Young Wil. sent out, the Populists sending directly liams is a son of the late Halsey Williams to Populiats and the Democrats to Demcashier of the Fifth National Bank of Pittsburg.

Sad Drowning.

BRIDGETON, N. J-The yacht Bertha, which left Camden for a cruise down the than ever the difficulties of his campaign. Delaware Bay, capsized off Fortescue during a squall and one of the party, Miss difficulties now, for, in spite of all that Mamie Harper, aged ninetcen, of Camden,

The yacht was in command of George Harper, a brother of the victim, and the ther persons aboard were Mrs. George Puller, of Camden and ber infant, and D.

Pulley, of Camden and her inlant, and D. Grace of Newport and his two sons. The party was homeward bound, when a sudden squall struck the yacht and cap-alead it. Fishermon on the beach at For-temps rescued all but Miss Harper, who who cannot in the companionway when the lost went over. The survivors were enred for at a hotel at Forlescue. The yacht came assiore at Portescue and the body of him Harper was recovered.

The lack of money is one of his greatest has been said about big contributions by the silver mine owners and others interested, the fact remains that the Democratic National Committee received very little money. Senator Marion Butler and his culpaid leagues, of the Populist Legislative Campaign Committee, all neat and trim, and dressed in stylish clothes, stopping at Governor Levi P. Morton's expensive hotel, just across from the Democratic headquarters on one street and the Reheadquarters on one street and the the-publican headquarters on the other, and holding their meetings in Senator Batler's high-priced spariment consisting of parlor, bedroom and bathroom, would equally astoniah some of the rank and file of their own party and some of their mis, who get their ideas of the ance of Populists from caricatures and cartoons. No committee of bankers, or gold buzs, or of any other variety, could be in better clothes or better clr-

ances than these Populist mana-
