TALK IS DOCKERY.

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS DISCUSS THE BOLTER.

Was for Single Standard Before State Convention, Says His Critics. Secretary Hymns Tells What he Knows of Dockery.

Special. RALEIGH, N. C., August 31.—At the Republican State headquarters, all the talk today was of Oliver Dockery's attack on the Republicans.

Secretary Hymns said, "Dockery is very inconsistent. He once was devoted to Allison. A short time before the Republican State convention he wrote a letter advising the gold standard, which was intended to further his candidature for Governor, but with held it at a friend's solicitation. During the convention he expressed himself as a single standard man. I do not know what our committee will do, but if I had my way, I would remove him from our ticket by telegraph, not waiting for the mail. The Republican party is too rich in material to have a man as candidate for Lieutenant-Governor who is denouncing the remainder of the ticket. Even the supporters of his own wing of the party are denouncing his language."

Bryan's Movements.

Special. RIPLEY, N. Y., August 31.—Candidate Bryan arrived this afternoon. After rather an uninteresting drive, he addressed a large number of farmers from the balcony of his hotel.

At three o'clock he took the train for Cleveland, Ohio.

In his speech he referred to the fact that both of the political parties for the first time had taken a plain stand on the money question.

He said the best government was formed by the people who took an active part, and did not display too much confidence in same.

Alleviates to Notify Bryan.

Special. CLEVELAND, O., August 31.—Candidate Bryan will be notified by the Silver party in Lincoln, Neb., on September 8.

Chairman Groot made a demand that Senator Teller make a speech, but Teller has other engagements.

Chairman Jones will be requested to have Teller postpone his engagements.

Son of His Father.

Special. WHEELING, WEST VA., August 31.—William H. Wilson, son of Postmaster General Wilson, was elected a delegate to the Indianapolis Convention.

He says that his father believes that the success of Bryan will be a tremendous misfortune.

MUST RUN AGAIN.

Official Declaration of Primary Vote in South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C.—The official returns from the recent primary election, held in this State, show a total vote of 78,331, of which the candidates for United States Senator received as follows: Evans, 38,802; Earle, 31,092; Duncan, 8,387. Evans receiving 627 less than a majority, the State executive committee has ordered a second primary, limited to Evans and Earle, for September 8.

All of the present Congressional delegation were renominated except Strat of the Fifth district. He will also run on a second primary. Elliot of the First district is the only gold standard nominee.

It is believed that Earle will be nominated. Tillman will not interfere in the contest.

Laurada Heard From.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Acting Secretary Wike, of the Treasury Department, received a telegram from United States Consul at Port Antonio, Jamaica, saying that the suspected filibuster Laurada is at that port, after having landed at Navassa and transferred men and arms to the tug Dauntless, which slipped out of the port of Brunswick, Ga., a few weeks ago and embarked a party of men at Woodbine, Fla., since which time she has not been heard from. The Laurada cleared from Wilmington, Del., August 6.

Free From Contaminations.

FALL RIVER, Mass.—The various mills in the city are free from the provisions of the outbreak agreement. Some of the mills have stopped for a longer time than the agreement called for, but this voluntary extension of the shut-down feature was due to the weak market, the rise in cotton and the high rate of later.

The mill establishment will continue to operate as usual. The American Linn, Astoria, Fall River Manufacturing, Robinson, Bradford, Warranong, Melrose, Merchants, Westman and Pocomt will not stop next week, and these mills produce something like 75,000 pieces. There is some doubt expressed as to whether half-a-dozen other mills producing 20,000 pieces, will start. The Cotton will run two weeks and if limits does not show any improvement will then shut down.

CROP BULLETIN.

State Report for the Week Conditions not Changed. Cotton Eastern Carolina Fast Improvement.

Special. RALEIGH, N. C., August 31.—The State crop-bulletin issued today says, that during the past seven days, crop conditions have not materially changed. Rain has fallen here and there, but over large areas the drought is unaltered.

Cotton in the east is practically past improvement, it is half open and is being picked rapidly.

Cotton is no longer growing in central districts, and looks dry. Picking is rapid. Reports from the Western district say picking has progressed uninterruptedly, and that there is much shrinkage in the size of the boll, as well as shedding, but of late some cotton is blooming.

Tobacco cures thin and what remains is poor.

Li at West Point.

Special. NEW YORK, August 31.—Li Hung Chang's visit to West Point was a good deal of a failure, because of the heavy rain, and he would not endanger his health by leaving the Dolphin.

CRUISER BANCROFT.

Preparations Made for her Departure to Dardanelles.

Special. WASHINGTON, D. C., August 31.—The Cruiser Bancroft has been ordered to leave Annapolis, tomorrow, for New York, where she will be docked and changes made, preparatory to starting to the Dardanelles.

The Bancroft carries more sail than any other cruiser.

OPPOSED TO WEYLER.

Spanish Element Aroused Over Sugar and Coffee Crops.

Key West, Fla.—Great excitement prevails in Havana over Weyler's decree in regard to the sugar and coffee crops. It is believed if issued the decree will be strongly opposed. Serious complications are expected from the Spanish element.

It is rumored the conservative party held a secret meeting and decided to ask the home government for Weyler's recall, and if refused, to forcibly expel him as was done to General Dulce in the last war.

It is understood that Consul Lee has strongly protested against the notice posted at the entry of Cabana fortress, stating if the American consul presents himself there to detain and arrest him. Lee has also demanded that Weyler make a full investigation of Charles Govin's death.

It is reported that Quintin Bandera and sixty followers have crossed the southern section of the Trocha and are now operating around Pozo Bedondo. It is understood Bandera will assume command of the forces in Havana province, heretofore under Gen. Zayas, who was killed in a recent engagement.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

SEWALL'S WITHDRAWAL REPORTED QUITE PROBABLE.

Tom Watson Helps This. Are Republicans Alarmed? Lack of Management in Bryan's Affairs. Populists Need no Education.

JOURNAL BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug 31st. That there is much more in the story of the probable retirement of Sewall from the Democratic ticket, after the Maine election, than those connected with either the Democratic or Populist National Committees will admit, is generally believed in Washington. A prominent Democrat said: "I do not wish my name mentioned as saying so, but my own belief is that the only fault in the story of Sewall's retirement from the ticket was that it was prematurely made public. It was, of course, the intention of those who were engineering the scheme that the retirement should appear to be entirely voluntary on Sewall's part. The publication of the matter has made that impossible, and may result in defeating the scheme altogether." Although the cocky position taken by Tom Watson undoubtedly helped along the scheme to bring about Sewall's retirement, it was not the intention of those engaged in working up the Washington and that Tom Watson should get any benefit out of it. The idea was that after Sewall retired, the Democrats on the National committee were to claim that he had done so in deference to Populist opposition, and to ask that the Populist National Committee bring about Tom Watson's retirement from their ticket in deference to Democratic opposition. Then with both Watson and Sewall out of the way, the joint Committees would select a new candidate for Vice President. In order to get the consent of the Populists to Watson's withdrawal, the Democrats were prepared to agree that the new candidate should be a Populist and that he should be from the South. According to trustworthy information, that was the way the programme stood when the story of Sewall's withdrawal was prematurely made public by a Maine Populist. As a matter of course the Chairmen of both Populist and Democratic National Committees decline to admit any knowledge of this scheme.

Republicans are either alarmed or skillfully pretending to be alarmed over the reported large defections from that party in the agricultural sections of the middle West. According to a story given out by friends of McKinley, a canvass just completed shows that sixty per cent. of the Republican farmers of Iowa have announced their intention to vote for Bryan and free silver. This statement would have excited much more interest if it had not been given out by Republicans and accompanied by another story detailing the trouble Chairman Hanna was having in getting campaign contributions, because of the belief in the East that the defeat of silver was already practically accomplished. The policy of frightening one's side into harder fighting has more than once been successfully put through in politics, and Mr. Hanna may be trying it again. The silver people are not giving figures, but they say Republican defection will give them most of the middle Western states, unless there is a change of sentiment between now and election day. On those states say there is already a change of sentiment and that the defection is not greater in one party than in the other, and that McKinley will carry them all.

There are ominous mutterings concerning the management, or rather the alleged lack of management of the Bryan campaign, which may break into an open storm in the near future if there isn't a change. It is charged that the campaign managers have neglected opportunities which they should have taken advantage of, and some of those who make the charges say that Bryan is largely to blame for insisting upon having his own way about many things which should have been left to the discretion of those who have had more experience in managing National campaigns, and that Bryan is too much inclined to be a rainbow chaser to be allowed to control things. They say that it was Bryan's disposition to chase rainbow instead of seeing wood that disqualified Senator Gorman, who had partly promised to help manage the campaign, and they are now trying to persuade Gorman to hold, and Bryan is said to have promised him that he would not attempt to interfere with him if he would.

The Populists National Committee is confining its work to assisting in smoothing out the obstacles to harmony in the several States and in making arrangements for Populist stump speakers. It is sending out very little literature. Senator Bulth, Chairman of the Committee, says the Populists do not need education on the financial question, because they have long ago posted themselves; and that the average cross road Populist can easily out argue any who have been in public life for years, when it comes down to silver.
