FUSION OR NOT?

MANLY SAYS, "YES," AYER, "DON'T KNOW."

The Question of Division of State Electoral Vote. The Hanna Name Revived.

Special.
RALEIGH, N. C., September 1.—Democratic State Chairman Manly was asked the direct question this afternoon, "Will there be electoral fusion of Democrats and Populists on a division of the electoral?" And he replied "yes."

Populist Chairman Ayer was asked the same question and he answered: "I don't know."

The Democrats have positive advice that despite denials Hanna will pour money into North Carolina.

Struck Diamond Shoal.

CAPE HENRY, Va., September 1.—An unknown brig rigged steamer, with a black funnel, from the South, bound North, struck the Outer Diamond Shoal, this afternoon, off Cape Hatteras.

The life savers have gone to her assistance.

POPULISTS TO MEET.

State Central Committee Meet Next Friday. Matters of Importance.

Special.
RALEIGH, N. C., September 1.—The Populist State Central Committee is called to meet here next Friday morning.

It is conjectured this is to consider three things. First, electoral fusion with Democrats, second, whether there shall be a State fusion with Republicans, third, to discuss the matter of the nomination of a candidate for Attorney General, that is whether to endorse Walsler, the Republican candidate, or to nominate a straight out Populist.

CALLED HOME.

Rev. James B. Bobbitt Died Yesterday at Raleigh. A Prominent Methodist and Editor.

Special.
RALEIGH, N. C., September 1.—The Rev. James B. Bobbitt died here this morning, age 61.

Dr. Bobbitt was for twelve years Editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, the organ of the North Carolina Methodist Episcopal Conference, and for forty one years a member of that Conference. His health broke down six years ago.

Driven Out by Turks.

CONSTANTINOPLE.—At Kaskelin the houses of a number of Americans, living in that place, were attacked by the Turks, the male heads of these domestic establishments being absent. All of the Armenian servants in the dwellings were killed and the houses sacked.

The ladies escaped to Yanikol for protection, having lost their personal effects. The estimates of the number of persons killed in the recent disturbances here are increasing.

The police discovered an Armenian bomb factory in full operation. The work of making bombs was carried on in an underground vault near the northern walls of the city. The British embassy here will oblige all the English families who have taken refuge upon the chartered steamer Hungary to their homes.

Double Tragedy in Tarboro.

TARBORO, N. C.—A terrible tragedy occurred here. J. L. Dawson, a liverman of this place, and Lillie Pope, a woman of ill-repute, were found dead in the house of the latter. A bullet hole was in Dawson's temple, and the face of the woman underneath the eye was torn by the passage of a bullet from the pistol that was found in her hand. No other signs of violence were found on the body of either.

It is believed that the woman murdered Dawson in a fit of passion and jealousy and killed herself. Dawson's body was taken to L. G. Grange, where his police. Lillie Pope's body was sent to Hillsboro for interment.

To Prevent Suicides.

CLEVELAND, O.—At the morning session of the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias, a resolution was introduced prohibiting the payment of death benefits to suicides, whether the victim be sane or insane, or whether the self destruction be brought about by delirium tremens, despondency, narcotics or opiates.

If the deed is done within a period of five years after his reception into the order, the suicide's heirs will not get a cent.

A move is on foot to cut the time down to one year. The resolution will elicit hot discussion, but will probably pass.

Thieves Following Bryan.

ELIZ, Pa.—The gang of sneak thieves and pickpockets who have been following W. J. Bryan in his campaign tour and working the crowds that go to hear him speak, made a haul in Ripley, where Mr. Bryan made a speech before leaving for Cleveland. While the Bryan procession was passing F. A. Stringer's Ripley branch of the First National Bank of Westfield, the clerks went out to look at the crowd.

When they returned all the ready cash amounting to $400 was missing.

THE BOLTOCRATS.

Cleveland Boom Continues. Wattersburg Hill Strong. No Signs of Contention. Harmonious Convention.

Special.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., September 1.—President Cleveland's boom continues this evening despite the efforts of friends to cry it down.

Henry Wattersburg is still a strong favorite.

About one half of the delegates are here.

There are no signs of any contest, every indication of the convention is that it will be harmonious.

Vanderbilt is Better.

Special.
NEWPORT, R. I., September 1.—Cornelius Vanderbilt was reported as improving, today.

Visits China Town.

Special.
NEW YORK, September 1.—The celestial visitor, Li Hung Chang, visited China Town this afternoon.

This evening he will be dined at Delmonico's.

TO COME DOWN.

Dockery to be Taken Off Republican State Ticket next Week.

Special.
RALEIGH, N. C., September 1.—Members of the Republican State Executive Committee inform me it is to meet next week, and will take down O. H. Dockery.

Public Debt Statement.

Special.
WASHINGTON, D. C., September 1.—The Public Debt Statement was issued this afternoon. It shows a net increase in the public debt, less cash in the Treasury, amounting to $12,843,000.

The total cash in the Treasury amounts to $849,389,000.

OVATION TO BRYAN.

He Receives Great Demonstrations in Columbus, Ohio. Makes Speeches.

Special.
COLUMBUS, Ohio, September 1.—Never was there such a general demonstration as when Candidate Bryan reached this city, this evening.

Farmers from miles around came to town early, and remained to participate in the demonstrations which are anticipated will excel last night's, at Cleveland.

Mr. Bryan made several speeches to different parties.

Spanish Claim a Victory.

MADRID.—Official advices from Manila say that the insurgents, 2,000 strong, made an attack upon the outposts of that city in an endeavor to surprise and break the line of defense. The rebels were repulsed with a loss of sixty killed and a large number wounded. The Spaniards had six killed and several wounded.

Calmly Awaited Death.

PITTSBURG, Pa.—An unknown man with remarkable nerve, ended his life at Jack's Run, Allegheny, by placing his neck on the rails of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway and calmly awaiting the approaching engine of death.

"I do this to save others," was written on a slip of paper, found in a pocket, but nothing was discovered indicating who the self-murderer might be. A card in another pocket bore the name of John G. Haller, No. 102 Second avenue. Haller is not known at the address given. The unidentified body lies on a cold slab in the morgue.

AGAINST DOCKERY.

REPUBLICANS INSIST ON TAKING HIM DOWN.

Populists Say Will be Kept on their Ticket. Henderson County Republicans Denounce Dockery.

Special.
RALEIGH, N. C., September 1.—The Republican clamor against Oliver B. Dockery, and the demand that he be taken down as their nominee for Lieutenant Governor continues.

The Populist State Chairman Ayer was asked today, what his party would do if the Republicans revoked their endorsement or nomination of Dockery, and he replied, "We will do nothing. He is our man now. He was put on our ticket without reference to what the Republicans might do."

The Hendersonville Republican club last night unanimously adopted resolutions denouncing Dockery for his attack on the Republicans.

The two hundred members of the club declare that as Henderson county Republicans were the first to declare for Dockery, so they are now the first to repudiate him as a traitor to his party, and pledge themselves that he shall not receive a single Republican vote in that county.
