A REPUBLICAN INTERVIEW.

What Committeeman Patterson Says on Republican-Populist Fusion.

RALEIGH, N. C. October 10 -R. O. Patterson of the Republican State com mittee was interviewed this evening and in reply to the question "What is the next move your committee intends to take regarding the Populists" replied: "We are ing to try to complete the state ticket with the Populists. We will settle it if we can, so far as Lieutenant Governor and Auditor are concerned. It will be secomplished in some sort of way. We will not give the Populists both places." When asked "will you take down Henderson for Auditor?' Patterson replied "You can easily answer that yourself."
