NORTH CAROLINA.

VARIOUS POLITICAL STATE ITEMS OF INTEREST.

No News Obtainable From Jones. Butler Knows Nothing, Settles Defeat of Penitents Given, Russell's Plurality, From Both Sides.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 5.—A thing which puzzles many Democrats here, is why no news as to National election can be had. Not a word has come from Chairman Jones today, although Chairman Manly has repeatedly wired him for news. Senator Butler wired, today, that he did not know how the vote stood. Thomas Settle is the only Congressional candidate defeated by Democrats, he is beaten by 240 votes. Republican State Chairman Holton gives the above figures.

The anti-Democratic nominees are elected by majorities ranging from 1,400, for Richmond, Pearson, to 4,300 for Stroud. Chairman Holton announces that Judge Russell's plurality is 12,000.

Democrats admit that Russell wins, but by much smaller figures, something like 5,000. Tom Mason, for Lieutenant Governor, runs ahead of the Democratic ticket, and there is some talk that he may get in, though this seems unreasonable.

A Dry Grip.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 5.—Late Populist Candidate, W. A. Guthrie, was here, today, and he said, "I am the happiest defeated man you ever saw in all your life."

No Riot After All.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 5.—Governor Carr was notified this afternoon that a riot was threatened at Oxford, and was asked to order troops on duty. He put the local Company on duty, but at 8 p. m. all was quiet there.

State Pension Board.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 5.—The State Pension Board reports that there are 5323 pensioners on their lists, an increase of 278 over last year. Of these 2758 are widows.

Four Years More.

LYFOOT, Neb., November 5.—Bryan says he does not concede McKinley's election, until the figures sent by the National committee warrant it. He says the fight must go on for four years more.

Burned to Death.

NEW YORK, November 5.—Mary Decker was burned to death, and eleven other inmates of the Harlem House, were injured by an explosion and fire this afternoon.

Something for Ben.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., November 5.—It is stated that McKinley will offer Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, the portfolio of Secretary of State, in his cabinet.

The Stock Market.

NEW YORK, November 5.—The stock market went up this morning, but lost all the advance and closed slightly lower tonight. The chief breaks were in Tobacco and Sugar Stocks. A quarter of a million dollars in gold was deposited in the United States Treasury, today.

Tariff to be Increased.

NEW YORK, November 5.—Hanna says the tariff will be increased. He praises the Democrats for their aid, and thinks the silver is in peril.

United States Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 5.—The latest returns under the United States Senate, Republicans, 44; Democrats, 32; Independents and Populists, 12; doubtful, 2.

May Elect the Retirees.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., November 5.—Chairman Manly says that the failure to count the Populist vote for Bryan will cause McKinley's majority, if not wipe it out.

Coming to Albany.

NEW YORK, November 5.—Returns from Kentucky, North Dakota and Wyoming are coming to Albany. The Democrats claim Kentucky by two thousand. It will require an official count to decide Wyoming and North Dakota.

Bryan carried North Carolina by 5,000 and Tennessee by 10,000. Oregon goes for McKinley, and California is close with indications for McKinley.

Nervous Troubles are due to an impoverished blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier and NERVE TONIC.

DISMISSED FOR CAUSE.

Campaign Workers Find no Place After Absenting Themselves in Political Work.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 5.—Thomas E. Adams, a nephew of Senator Blackburn, an agent at Seal Islands, was dismissed by Secretary Carlisle for political work done in the campaign.

William Ryan, of New York, returning here after campaigning in New York found his place gone. Secretary Harmon has removed James H. Crouch, Assistant United States District Attorney, for West Virginia, for being a candidate for an elective office.

Mark Hanna's Statement.

NEW YORK, November 5.—Mark Hanna issued a statement this afternoon claiming California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan, North and South Dakota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming, 267 electoral votes, thus insuring McKinley's election.

He says the incendiary utterances and pretended claims which question the accuracy of the above claim should not disturb the public.

Bryan's Vote in North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 5.—Chairman Manly said at 8 p. m. tonight, "Bryan's majority in the State is 15,000." Chairman Holton, says, "Bryan carries the State by 6,000."

Committee H. L. Grant makes the remarkable statement, that there is so much scratching, that the Republicans may get some electors. The Democrats laugh at what they term this, an absurd statement.

Telegraphic Items.

Bryan, Ohio.—The home of Edward White's, near Pioneer, was destroyed by fire and his two girls, five and twelve years, were burned to death.

Fall River, Mass.—George Fiala, aged sixty, a farmer on the Fish Road, North Fiverton, was gored and trampled on by a young bull, and died two hours later.

San Francisco.—The whaling schooner Palena arrived from the Arctic with the first mate, H. P. Bowen, in irons. He is charged with the murder of Frank Jones, the vessel's second mate. Bowen was delivered into the custody of the United States Marshal.

Nashville, Tenn.—Dr. Bradford, who shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Haley in Henry County on Friday last, committed suicide by shooting himself. He went to his father-in-law's residence, ate a hearty meal, and walked out into the yard and took his own life.

Shelbyville, Ind.—Constable Campbell arrived with a warrant for the arrest of Willis Smith, charged with offering John Reed $5 to vote for McKinley. He went to Smith's house, and found him locked in an upper story room. Upon being refused admittance the officer broke down the door. Smith hit the officer on the head with a club, fatally injuring him. Smith is under arrest.

Canto, Cal.—The half eaten body of John Mudgett, a wealthy ranchman of Canto, was found in the embers of his burnt home by W. H. Davis, a neighbor. Mudgett lived alone on an immense tract of land. He was a reputed hoarder of wealth, and it was rumored that he had money stored about the house. His body was unmistakable evidence of death by violence before the flames reached him. Both lower limbs are missing.

Railroad Prosperity.

CHICAGO.—The Illinois and St. Louis are greatly increased traffic within the next few weeks. They say that now the section is over, the merchants throughout the West and Southwest who have been delaying the ordering of their goods will now, that they have some assurance of the way the markets are likely to turn, demand their winter stocks, and this is expected by the roads to make a vastly improved business. In addition to this the grain will begin to move almost at once.

The presidents of the Western roads will meet to choose the successors to J. A. Monroe and J. J. Fletcher, who have declined to act as members of the board of administration of the reorganized Western Passenger Association.

The estimated gross earnings of the Rock Island Road for the month of October were $1,671,956, a decrease from the corresponding month of last year of $68,459.

NEXT STATE ASSEMBLY.

Estimates on Both Houses. Republicans Likely to Have Majority on Joint Ballot.

RALEIGH, November 5.—Chairman Holton's estimate is that the Republicans will have 58 members in the House, the Populists 26, and Democrats, 18, and that the Democrats will not have over 6 in the Senate.

The Republicans are calculating on having a majority on a joint ballot over both Democrats and Populists.

Spotted a Hold-up.

BELLEVILLE, N. J.—John Klein, general agent of the Hartford Life and Annuity Insurance Company, in this State, who has an office at No. 189 Market street, Newark, was the intended victim of a robbery here.

He went to the Soho section of the township to transact some business, after which he engaged Daniel Campbell to drive him to Bloomfield. The vehicle was a two seater one, and the insurance agent occupied the rear seat. When the carriage was near the Morris Canal bridge two men jumped from the side of the road, and while one of them grasped the horses by the bit, the other approached the wagon, armed with a stout club.

Addressing his remarks to Mr. Klein, the highwayman said: "Come, Mister, fork over the cash." The agent did not move, but coolly looked at the fellow.

"If you don't hurry up," continued the man, "I'll knock your brains out." At the last word he struck at Mr. Klein, who dodged, the club striking the back of the seat.

The man then tried to get into the vehicle, but Campbell reached quickly around and grabbed him by the throat, and with the aid of Mr. Klein the fellow was forced backward into the road where he fell.

Campbell then struck his horse a stinging cut with the whip, and the fellow that held the horse was compelled to let go as the animal bounded forward.

Mr. Klein had in his possession a considerable sum of money belonging to his company, which he had collected in the afternoon, and it is that the would-be robbers knew this.

Firing on Dredgers.

ANNAPOLIS, Md.—Capt. John Gladden of the police schooner May Brown, had an exciting chase after dredgers. The police boat left Annapolis at a late hour and upon getting out of the harbor two vessels were seen dredging off Thomas Point. Shortly after midnight they were surprised by Captain Gladden, who fired a shot across the bow of one of the vessels as a signal to surrender. Instead of doing so the oyster violators set sail and started down the bay. Captain Gladden opened fire with Winchester rifles in order to cut the rigging and lower sail. He then brought the rapid-firing cannon to play, and after firing about fifty rounds gave up the chase on account of the extreme darkness.
