BOND ISSUES.

THREATENED IF DINGLEY BILL IS NOT PASSED.

Sen. Cullom Favors Pushing Revenue Raiser at Coming Short Session. Favors Tariff Revision in 55th Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 2.—The necessity for the passage of the Dingley bill at the short session is growing stronger every day.

The government is running behind each month, already the deficit for the present fiscal year is over $10,000,000. Five months of that year are still gone. Seven more months and the total shortage would reach $160,000,000. It will then be bond issues after bond issues.

Republican Senators are waking up to this fact. They are getting in trim for the caucus to be held this week. Then they will try to decide on a course. If possible the Dingley bill is to be passed. In the other case the silver Senators are to be placed on record so clearly and plainly that the entire country can place the blame and place it at once.

Senator Cullom of Illinois, appreciates the situation. He sees that the Republican party is in a pretty bad fix. It must help the country, and it has not control of the Senate. If the short session cannot pass a measure like the Dingley bill, he sees but little hope of a tariff bill being passed at the extra session. In a talk yesterday with a Times representative, he said:

"I have not talked much about what will be done at the short session. There seems to be a diversity of opinion among the Republican Senators, and I thought it best to wait until we had met and could have a chance to talk over the situation. Something must be done to meet the deficiency in the Treasury. Of that there is no doubt.

Some of us think that the election of McKinley and the restoration of confidence will boom things so much that enough revenue will be received to tide us over our troubles and until the tariff of today can be revised. I do not know how this will be, but I hope it is the case. I want to see the tariff revised as it should be.

"In the meantime I know that we are running behind. The quickest way out of the difficulty would be to pass the Dingley bill. Then while the tariff was being revised this measure would still be in force and would bring us in sufficient revenue to meet our obligations.

"But I do not know that we can pass the Dingley bill. It will just depend on the stand our silver friends take. They have the majority now and can do as they please. If they are inclined to fight it out for silver, why we cannot do a thing. On the other hand, if they are inclined to let the will of the people be supreme in the matter there will be no difficulty.

"I can only see trouble ahead of us in the next Senate, too. We have not a majority, and any tariff measure brought before it will have to be passed either by free silver or gold Democratic votes."

"Suppose neither the Dingley bill nor a revision of the tariff can be passed, what then, Senator?"

"Nothing but bond issues," was the reply, "and they will be suicidal, I think, though, the Secretary of the Treasury should have authority to borrow money under certain conditions, and I would like to see such a measure on the statutes. But I hope for the best and trust we will have no more borrowing."

"What will be done with finances?"

"I think the Republican party will settle the silver question within the next four years to the satisfaction of everyone. Just what plan, of many, will be followed I cannot say, but I feel sure it will be settled."

The Senator thinks many free silver Democrats in the Senate are coming over on their tariff views. He was talking with Senator Harris the other day and that gentleman told him that since a revenue had to be raised from customs duties he believed they should be laid on articles competing with American goods.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

December 3. THERE are no new features in the markets to record today. JANUARY delivery closes at 7.90 which is a net gain of 4-100 compared with yesterday's close. THE weather is reported very unfavorable in various sections of the South, and surely if this is a fair sample we are getting here, the report may be accepted as quite reliable. This weather will naturally interfere with marketing and receipts, but when this is understood by the trade, it will have little effect on values.

Yours Truly,
J. J. LATHAM.

STATE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

State Attorney General Decides It Cannot Act Now. Adjourns to January 11th, 1897.

RALEIGH, N. C., December 2.—The Electoral College met again at noon today, ten out of its eleven members being present.

A telegram from Tyre York the absent one announced his sickness.

The opinion of the Attorney General was read, that the College at this session, held under the State law, had no power to declare or fill a vacancy, because the time for doing this is at the meeting when the vote is cast, which is fixed by federal statute, as the second Monday in January which is the eleventh of that month.

The College, after an hour's session and after receiving certificates of election from Governor Carr, adjourned to January 11th.

Both Confident of Winning.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 2.—Both Fitzsimmons and Sharkey are confident of winning, tonight. Fitzsimmons is the favorite in the bet.

Ice Gorge Threatens.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., December 2.—The water is twenty seven feet deep in the business portion of the city, which is now doomed. The efforts to break the ice gorge with dynamite have failed. The gorge is growing larger every hour, the water rising inch by inch, the ground, under the water, is being washed away.

THE STORM.

seven inches snow at Raleigh. Traffic blocked. Winter Grain Routed.

RALEIGH, N. C., December 2.—The snow storm which began here this morning, became a blizzard this afternoon. Seven inches of snow has fallen with the promise of more, tonight, as its fall continues. The snow is driven by a North east wind, and is drifted badly. Street cars are unable to run, but the trains are nearly on schedule time.

The storm is the worst in several years, it is especially trying, following the summer weather. It will benefit the winter sown grain of which the acreage is considerably larger than usual.

Stock Market Higher.

NEW YORK, December 2.—Stocks were higher, today, on a better foreign demand, and a higher London market.

A Fight for Work.

TRANTON, N. J., December 2.—Blas Salvator and William Lenox were shot in a riot which occurred between the different race factions in their endeavor to find work in laboring on the city reservoir. The Italians and negroes underbid the Germans and Irish which precipitated the trouble.

Fighting in Cuba.

HAVANA, December 2.—The insurgents last night attacked the town Guonabacoa, in the Province of Havana, near here. They were repulsed after firing a house. Each side lost one man killed.

Take Notice!

The best thing for New Berne that has ever happened. An enterprise that will be ever a success. We are now sawing cook wood, stoves or range lengths, the very nicest kind, and storing it away under large shed houses, keeps dry always in rainy weather, and never gets wet.

We keep a large stock of this kind of wood. We cut the prices on sawing, so we are better prepared to do it cheaper than elsewhere, and we now deliver it in your wood houses or anywhere you want it, without any trouble to you, only give your orders to BIG HILL, the Shingle Man.

You can also do Big Hill a favor, by reporting to him, if his own carts don't deliver the wood anywhere the customer may want it put. We have polite draymen and nice teams ready to serve the good citizens of New Berne. If they will only take hold of an enterprise like this, one that has never been offered to New Berne like this before.

Respectfully,
BIG HILL, The Shingle Man.
