PRESENT LEGISLATURE BEHIND PREVIOUS ONES.

Bills introduced. Yarbors to Open. Judge Norwood Promises to Reform Butler Still Hot. Capital City Items.

JOURNAL BUREAU,
Raleigh, N. C., January 26, '97.

The following are some of the bills introduced in the Legislature yesterday.

Mr. Person to maintain an insurance department, and to consolidate the insurance laws of the State. He asked to have 250 copies printed. It was a bill of about 75 pages of foolscap.

Mr. Clark, to require the registration of the name of partners. Mr. Clark asked that it may not go to the committee. He had some bills, introduced three weeks ago, and the committees were so large he could obtain no report.

Resolution to appoint joint committee to make changes in election and county government laws, passed second and third reading.

Mr. Lusk, to authorize clerks of criminal and circuit courts to take private examinations, and to probate wills, deeds, etc.

Mr. C. D. Derry, to instruct our Senators to support a bill permitting the election of Senators by the people.

Mr. Dockery, to charter the Eastern Hospital for the colored insane.

Mr. Dockery for the government of the penitentiary.

These two bills of Dockery's are simply to give these two State institutions into the control of Governor Russell.

Mr. Whedbee announced that President Sherman would be inaugurated, and there would be a special train to carry the members who would go free of charge on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Mitchell did not want Senators to be under obligations for free passes. Mr. Whedbee said that it would not, the United States authorities had arranged a train.

Most of the Senators arose, signifying their intention to go.

Mr. Metcalfe thought our constituents would not like for the Senate to adjourn, and thought some ought to stay over on the business.

Mr. Whedbee thought it best for all to remain and prevent those who remained from doing any business that might be wrong and hurt all.

Yesterday Mr. Brown gave up his lease of the Yarbors and that hotel will be opened February 10th. The owners of the property give the hotel into the hands of Mr. H. B. Raney.

The collapse of the Southern Building, and Loan Association touches some Raleigh people pretty heavily. C. C. McDonald was the agent in North Carolina.

Judge Norwood writes that if he is not impeached he will mend his ways, but Governor Russell is determined to make an example of him.

The address by Dr. Curry before the joint session of the legislature yesterday on education was a fine one. He advocates a six months term of public school with trained teachers. And that no one should be allowed to vote unless he can read his ballot.

Dr. Marshall's condition is still unchanged.

There has never been so little done in any previous legislature as has been done in this. Three weeks have just been wasted.

Senator Butler was hot last night when told the Republicans had not decided which side they would recognize. The Chamber of Commerce met to night to consider the street car question and other business points.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

LIVERPOOL news was rather discouraging both in tone and spot sales, which was only 8,000 bales.

New York opened at about the same, and the close is 7.11 for March, a net gain of 8-100 since yesterday. The situation is practically unchanged.

Yours truly,

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Decision Affecting Seamen. Postal Law Amendment. Oldest Senator. Supreme Court Reopens.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 26.—The case of Robertson, a seaman, against Baldwin, a United States marshal, of San Francisco, which was decided in an opinion by Justice Brown, of the United States Supreme Court, is of vital interest to every man who works for wages under contract in this country. One of the leaders of this city who read the decision, said that if the United States Supreme Court has justly constructed the statute, it is high time that it were changed, for there is no other remedy; inasmuch as the Supreme Court, as now constituted, will not reverse itself.

Specifically the case is only that of a few seamen who shipped at San Francisco, went under contract to Astoria, left the vessel at Astoria, were arrested at San Francisco by a justice of the peace, kept in jail until the vessel was ready to sail, removed in irons to the vessel, and on the high seas were ordered to go to work. They refused and the vessel put back to San Francisco. The master of the vessel, Arragon, on which they were, set aboard, endeavored to enforce their work, and the sailors, one of whom is Robertson, applied for a writ of habeas corpus. The United States circuit court decided in favor of the master of the vessel and then the case came up to the Supreme court on appeal.

The Supreme Court's opinion appears to be that as the service on the part of the sailor was voluntary at the inception of the contract, it must be held as voluntary until the termination of the agreement of service.

Senator Chandler has proposed an amendment to the postal laws making the rate of postage on letters after July 1 next 1 cent per half ounce.

The Senate committee on Foreign Relations at its meeting Monday morning did not make good Senator Sherman's prediction of last week to the effect that a report would be made on the Anglo-American arbitration treaty. The whole matter went over until a meeting later in the week.

If Senator Morrill, of Vermont lives till March 3 next he will have served five full terms in the United States Senate, which no man has yet done. His nearest competitor was Senator Benton of Missouri, who served four terms and a half.

The Senate is a proverbially slow moving body, but it occasionally puts on a full head of steam. Its feat, accomplished Saturday, of passing 104 pension bills in 93 minutes is probably without parallel.

Commodore George W. Melville, engineering-chief of the Navy, is convalescing from the effects of a severe operation performed on him, which is believed to have eradicated the cause of serious intestinal disorder which he contracted in Siberia after the Jenette disaster, and which has frequently since that time threatened his life.

Chief Justice Fuller announces that the Supreme Court will take the usual February recess, beginning next Monday, and ending Monday, March 1. He also announces that the several cases assigned for last week, to be argued before a full bench, would go over until the reassembling of court, in March.

Cardinal Gibbons, wearing the red skull cap that is the insignia of his high dignity, was in the marble room for a short time the other afternoon and afterward occupied a seat in the Senate diplomatic gallery.

A school house building, near Perry, Ok., collapsed and twenty-five children were entombed for some time. Several children will die from injuries, and Miss Jennie Jones, the teacher, is in a critical condition.

Wages were reduced 10 to 20 per cent in several of the Centerville Manufacturing company's mills at Manville. The company manufactures plumb and plumb goods, and the reduction is due to the illness in the market.

Enrico Fontanari, a Tyrolean, has been arrested at Cincinnati, Ohio, for murdering Mary Forplann, an Italian, and robbing her of $1,800, which represented the savings of forty years from the proceeds of fruit vending.

The large tannery of the Elk Tanning Company, of Ridgway, located in Curwensville, Pa., and the main buildings, including an immense stock of leather and undressed hide, were destroyed by fire. The loss is between $120,000 and $150,000.

The Stuffed distillery at Chicago has been closed. This will cut off two-fifths of the revenue of the internal revenue office in Chicago, and throws fourteen government officials out of employment. The distillery has been paying $2,000,000 a year in taxes to the government.
