Notices of Church and Society and all other advertisements from which revenue is to be derived will be charged for at the rate of one cent a line.

THE DAILY JOURNAL (except Monday) is delivered by carrier in this city, at 10 cents per month in advance, $1.00 per year in advance, $10.00 per year in advance, $100.00 per year in advance.

Five cents per line will be charged for articles of Thanks, Resolutions of Respect and Eulogies; also for Obituary Notices, but those which the editor himself shall give as a matter of course.

The Journal will not under any circumstances be responsible for the return or the non-return of any rejected manuscript. No attention will be made to the rule with respect to either letters or notices. Nor will the editor entertain correspondence concerning rejected manuscripts.

THE "REPUDIATION" CONTROVERSY.

The exceedingly sharp and interesting controversy which is now taking place in the columns of the JOURNAL, over the matter which the JOURNAL briefly outlined in its editorial columns, yesterday, has passed the stage of "personalities" and is at the point when the real meat of the subject is receiving a careful and thoughtful analysis.

While the able opponents on either side are holding their respective positions, and the reading public is weighing both sides of this issue, as set forth by writers in these columns, it would seem superfluous for the JOURNAL to add, at this time, anything to the controversy.

The public is getting more and more light upon the subject, and at present it does not need assistance to prejudice it in favor of either side.

The issue in dispute is of intense importance. It affects every citizen, and every vital interest of this community, and the controversy now going on will bring every hidden fact in issue to light, to be judged impartially, and sentenced in like manner.

Until the issue has been fairly presented, and its entire character revealed, there need be nothing said by the JOURNAL which would add to divert attention from either side of this controversy, or anticipate what writers may wish to say on the subject, or prophesy as to the verdict of it all.

It is too great a question to be passed upon lightly, but it will be passed upon in due season.

Deafness Cannot be Cured!

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A Noted Atlanta Case.

For four years I have been afflicted with a very troublesome nasal catarrh. So terrible has its nature been that when I blew my nose small pieces of bone would frequently come out of my mouth and nose. The discharge was copious, and at times very offensive. My blood became so impure that my general health was greatly impaired, with poor appetite and worse digestion. Numerous medicines were used without relief, until I began the use of Botanic Blood Balm—B. B. B.—and three bottles acted almost like magic. Since its use, over a year, not a symptom has returned, and I feel in every way quite restored in health. I am an old citizen of Atlanta, and refer to almost anyone living on Butler street, and more particularly to Dr. L. M. Gillam, who knows my case.

DEVOID OF ANIMAL LIFE. A Ceaseless Struggle Between Fire and Water in Antarctica.

"The Antarctic is a continental land unique in the world," writes General A. W. Greely in an interesting article on "What May Be Found at the South Pole" in The Ladies' Home Journal.

"The barmaid judges her customers by the cut of their clothes. If you want to attract her attention, you must present yourself with a silk hat and a handsome cane in your hand and a suit cut in the latest fashion. The high hat is no longer worn. Without that there is no possible chance of success."

"But in this mixture that comes here to drink and chat," I said, "how do you distinguish the men of the world from the others?"

"I recognize them by three things," she said boldly, "by their figure, by their clothes and by their complexion. For the most part they are tall and thin, dressed in the latest fashion and have a complexion more or less bronzed. This last trait is the surest sign."

"What becomes of the ship that sinks in midocean? If it is of wood, it takes in the first place, considerable time for it to reach the bottom. In 100 or more fathoms of water a quarter of an hour will elapse before the ship reaches bottom. It sinks slowly, and when the bottom is reached, it falls gently into the soft, oozy bed, with no crash or breaking of any kind."

"Of course, if it is laden with pig iron or corresponding substances, or if it is an iron ship, it sinks rapidly and sometimes strikes the bottom with such force as to smash in pieces. Once sunken, a ship becomes the prey of the countless inhabitants of the ocean."

"They swarm over and through the great boat and make it their home. Besides this they cover every inch of the boat with a thick layer of lime. This takes time, of course, and when one generation dies another continues the work, until finally the ship is so laden with heavy incrustations, corals, sponges and barnacles that, if wood, the creaking timbers fall apart and slowly but surely are absorbed in the waste at the sea bottom."

"Iron vessels are demolished more quickly than those of wood, which may last for centuries. The only metals that withstand the chemical action of the waves are gold and platinum, and glass also seems unaffected. No matter how long gold may be hidden in the ocean, it will always be gold when recovered, and this fact explains the many romantic and adventurous searches after hidden submarine treasures lost in shipwrecks.—Exchange.
