WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Troubles in Cuba Have the Attention of the Senate.

Delay on the Tariff Bill. Other Bills that will be Sighted. No Chance for Hawaii's Queen.
Senator Morrill. A Chess Tournament.

JOURNAL-BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 14.
The big guns of the Senate have been ranging away on the Cuban question this week with renewed energy. Senators Gallinger, Allen, Morgan, Hale and four have been leaders in the debate the first three being on Cuba's side and the other two talking in Spain's interest.

Senator Allen made a spirited speech in favor of resolution directing the President to arrest the trial of General Cervera the Cuban leader, by a Spanish run-head court martial. Senator Henry replied in a calm and impressive manner, alluding to the aspirations of the ousters of the government in establishing the Senate as the stay and resistance against those impassioned and ardent gusts of sentiment that had wrecked every other republic on earth. He declared that the resolution was base and a mere report and prophecy; and that the prophecy was far from being an exaggeration. In closing he said "when the time came for any well-considered movement in behalf of humane warfare I trust it would have his support, but the question now is, whether the United States would act on guesses and prophecies giving an affront to Spain."

Senator Hale endeavored to side-track the resolution by a motion to refer it to a committee on foreign relations but his motion was lost. Senator Gallinger then made a most impassioned speech in favor of the resolution. He began by referring sarcastically to Mr. Hoar's having a habit of setting great questions at a wave of his hand. In closing he said "that was one of the most fervid and in-dignified speeches heard in the Senate for many years he said "Thank God there is yet in the American heart sympathy for the oppressed and a love for freedom, for independence, for constitutional government. I offer my prayer that notwithstanding the fact that the great power of Spain is being exercised to crush Cuban independence these people will yet gain their freedom." The most of applause which followed the speech showed that Mr. Gallinger has traced a responsive chord. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The Senate committee on finance has adopted a report that as the bill is so crude and will require such extensive amendment they will not be able to report it to the Senate before May 1. They have found it necessary to re-write the administrative clauses of the bill they were a effective as they were passed by the house. Only two schedules, chemical and cottons, have been thus far disposed of. None of the more puzzling schedules such as wool, sugar, hides, &c., have been touched as they will be the last to be revised.

Two other matters of interest before the Senate are the arbitration treaty and the bankruptcy bill. The treaty will have to be voted on this session. Since the adoption of the many amendments to it a friends have grown indifferent as to its welfare and there is no aggressive work in its behalf. If it should be voted it is very probable that it would be defeated, and to escape the censure which this action would undoubtedly bring upon the Senate, it is quite possible that the treaty will be permitted to lie undisturbed. Senator Chandler will vote against the treaty, although he is in favor of the principle of arbitration. He thinks the other day in executive session that some happier time could be proposed in which to establish a permanent court of arbitration with England, than when the guns of that country were in concert with those of other countries aimed against the Christians in Turkish Crete.

Ex-Queen Lili of Hawaii has requested the President to upset President Dole's administration in Hawaii and order a general election with herself as one of the candidates for the office of President.
She declares that if the people of her native island were given the opportunity they would elect her as their President.
She declares that if it had not been for the interference of the United States Minister Hatch and the crew of the U.S. cruiser Boston she would not have been deposed and she therefore demands the aid of this government as a reparation for the wrong done. The President is not in sympathy with the dusky ex-queen and he will not interfere in any manner.

Senator and Mrs. Morrill have issued invitations for a reception Wednesday evening, April 14. The date marks the eighty-seventh birthday of the Senator. and the gathering will be a marked event of the spring season. The Senator has served his State for thirty years continuous service in the Senate besides having been one of its Representatives in the 31st, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, and 39th Congresses. If he finishes his present term he will have had 64 years of continuous service in the Senate.

A chess match has been arranged between representatives of the English House of Commons and the members of the House of Representatives. The game is to be played by cable, the English players sitting in one of the chess-rooms in the House of Commons in London and the American players sitting in one of the committee rooms of the Capitol.
This chess match promises to bring the members of the two legislative bodies in closer relations and to have a good influence upon their intercourse. The Representatives have a good team picked and a close match is expected. The Britishers are experts and they hope to give the Americans a few points of chess.
