The Brooklyn Floats Again,

PHILADELPHIA - The United States ruiser Brooklyn was successfully floate ut of the dry dock at League Islan svy-yard Wednesday. She now lies at nchor in the Delaware river, where the nishing touches will be given before e big ship is declared seaworthy. It will be remembered that on Januar

), while the Delaware river was fillecith floating ice, Captain Cook, of the brooklyn decided to remove his ship om her dangerous anchorage. The icrevented the vessel from going up thbelaware, and Captain Cook decided t un her down the river to a place of safe y. The ice interferred with the pilot' iew of the channel lines, the result beln; hat the cruiser struck on Schoone edge Rock and had some of her botton dates damaged.

She was put in the dry dock, and sine hat time a number of men from Crampa shippard have been engaged in replacing he damaged plates. It is expected that he Brooklyn will be ready to make her nalden trip under the United States flag n a few days.

GREEKS DRIVEN BACK.

The Porte Sends a Warning to the Greek Government. Any Further Raid Into Turkish Territory Will Be Regarded as a Declaration o

ATHENS,-The Greek Insurgents, ac cording to dispatches from the front have sustained considerable losses and are retreating before superior forces An Officer sent by Edhem Pasha to Kra nia, with instructions to ascertain the exact situation in that vicinity, confirmthe statements previously made that the Turks have driven the insurgents back across the frontier, inflicting a loss of fifty killed on the latter,

LONDON.-The Evening News this af ternoon publishes a disputch from its special correspondent at Athens saying that the Turkish government has for ually informed the Greek governmen hat any further ned of irregulars int Furkish territory will be regarded by notice on all telephone companies asking Furkey as a declaration of war upon th that they show cause why the rem part of Greece. The Vienna correspondent of the Time says that one of the least favorable con equences of the course of action taker by the powers is that it has not only full ed to overawe the Greeks, but there are inen -takable signs that it has diminish ed the prestige of the European concert The Constantinople correspondent of the London Standard will say tomorrow "During the cabinet council at the palace on Sunday the Sultan was in constant communication with the Czar an he Kaiser. His ultimate decision will lepend upon their advice, which many vell informed people here believe will ne in favor of the Turkish invasion of Freece. There can be no question that he policy of Turkey will be regulated 'rom St. Petersburg and Berlin.' VIENNA. - The best informed diplomat iere regard war as inevitable. They say he strain cannot much longer be borne by either Turkey or Greece, and that the ime is passed for the powers to attemp o intervene. In view of the dangerou position assumed by Greece, the question s reiterated whether she does not count pon some power coming to her suppor at the crucial moment

Remains Ready for Removal.

NEW YORK .- When the workmen who save been employed in the old tomb of leneral Grant for three days finished heir day's labors at 5 o'clock Tuesday vening everything was in readiness for ae removal of the body to the crypt of he new tomb. The men announced hat they had extracted all of the 167 olts from the steel easing that covered he coffin, and that the coffin could be aised and carried out at any moment.

The sarcophagus, too, is all ready for he reception of the coffin. The great lid ton in weight, has been raised by meanof a derrick three feet above the sarcoplagus proper and blocked up with wood. t will be a simple matter to slide the offin into the hollowed-out portion and Irop the lid down upon it.

A new feature of the Grant memorial elebration has been added to the programme in the shape of a parade of the quests of the city from the Fifth Avenue totel to the monument in the morning

As matters have been arranged they will be all driven in open carriages if the weather is fine over the same route which he military para le is to follow. The arriages will form in a regular procesdon, two abreast, led by troops. In the irst carriage drawn by four horses, will e President McKinler, former President Frover Cleveland, Mayor Strong and Jeneral Horace Porter. Following them in other carriages will

e the diplomatic corps, members of the abinet, governors of states, senators nembers of Congress, generals, admirals and all sorts of notables.

Late News Items. John P. Altgel I has been enjoured from lisposing of his property, which is in rolved in the Globe Savings Bank failure. There will be a legislative investigation of the manner in which the university unds was lost in the bank. Secretary Long says he is not to be lictated to by the armor people, and intinates that if they refuse to accept the price named in Secretary Herbett's reort he will proceed to have the plates nanufactured by other firms.

The two American armor-making firms ave just been asked to make proposals for delivery to the Russian government or the armor for two battle-ships. It is pacified that a quick delivery is re juired, and it is understood that Euro pean makers have not yet been asked to enter.

Vice President Hobart has brought to the attention of the Senate a letter from Mayor Strong, of New York, inviting the Senate to be present in that city on the occasion of the transfer of the Grant nonument to the city of New York the letter assures the Senate that the ceremonies will be of an imposing character belitting the occasion.

Following the signal success of the Chautauqua of the Mountains in West Virginia, a similar institution, although on a much larger scale, is to be started in Norfolk. The Chautauqua by the sea will hold its first session in that city, be ginning June 15, and continuing one onth. More than fifty lecturers, in cluding college professors and other dis linguished men, have already been en gaged, and the association will be incorrated shortly.
