WILLING PRESCRIPTIONS is most important duty of a Pharmacist. A life often depends upon his skill and exact-ness, and the substitution of one drug for another is dangerous to life. Altho

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Minority Program in the House the Only Possible Course.

The Chances for the Paris Exposition Bill. Tariff Fighting Between Senators. Fate of Arbitration. The Senate Committee. Roosevelt
at his Desk.

JOURNAL BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.

If the House is to continue its present programme, as seems reasonably certain, it may be a little difficult for that body to respond to President McKinley's special message asking that the necessary legislation for the official participation of the United States Government in the World's Exposition to be held in Paris in 1900, be put through Congress. It could, of course, be done by "unanimous consent," but important as the matter is, there might be objections in the House, not because they might object to the legislation itself, but because they might object to that method of passing it. The method that will most probably be adopted, will be to report a special rule from the Committee on Rules, just as was done when the House passed the left over appropriation bills. Many persons regard this matter as one of the most important that will come before this session of Congress, and one that should be speedily disposed of, as the time will be none too much in which to arrange for a creditable showing for Uncle Sam at the Paris Exposition. There should be no politics in this.

It is difficult to understand what the minority of the House expect to gain by the seemingly wrangle among themselves which characterized the two last meetings of the House. It seems to be an unjudicious person that they ought to see that Speaker Reed gave them recognition on their claims of "personal privilege" just to allow them to thump each other for the edification of their opponents and for the amusement of the crowded galleries. And it ought to be equally clear that the editor of the local paper, who declared that Representative Bailey, of Texas, wore a red collar, and who was denounced by Mr. Bailey, as a malicious and infamous liar, has taken sides in the wrangle more to gain notoriety for his paper than for anything else.

Some of those engaged in this wrangle have claimed that Mr. Bryan was opposed to Mr. Bailey being the leader of the minority in the House. This may be true, but if so Mr. Bryan took special pains when he was in Washington last week to leave a contrary impression, by being particularly attentive to Mr.
Bailey. The whole thing is a tempest in a teapot anyway. The majority of the House sometime ago decided upon a programme which they have so far carried out to the letter, and which everybody knows they can continue to carry out just as long as they desire, regardless of what the minority does. The wrangling in the minority is over the somewhat ridiculous question of whether the will of the majority shall be quietly bowed to or whether the minority shall kick their heels against the stone and butt their heads against an immovable brick wall every time the house meets, the Baileys being for quietly submitting, and the anti's for kicking butting and howling.

The Republican members of the Senate finance committee are finding the tariff fight quite warm. Western Senators have made demands that a duty be put on hides and that radical changes be made in the wool schedule, and both demands are being bitterly fought by eastern Senators. These fights may delay the reporting of the bill to the Senate out if they are fought to a finish in the Committee, it will greatly lessen the time that will be needed to get the bill through the Senate.

If the arbitration treaty is not ratified during the present week, it will probably not be ratified at all. Opinion differs as to how the vote will stand if Senator Davis succeeds in getting one taken. It is confident that the treaty will be ratified, but the opponents of the treaty appear to be equally confident that it will not be. It would not be very surprising if the vote was never taken.

The vacancies in the Senate committees will be filled probably this week.
Although they are to be filled under an agreement between the Republicans and the Democrats, the Populist and the Silver Republicans are not to be discriminated against. The agreement was reached by both sides receding a little from their original demands and is, as most things of the sort are, a compromise, but the general impression is that the combined silver forces will get slightly the best end of the deal. The Republicans will retain the chairmanships of all the important committees, but there are a number of them upon which the opposition will continue the majority.

Hon. Theodore Roosevelt has assumed his duties as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and now that Department is the center upon which many argumentative newspaper writers are going for interesting matter.

THE STATE CAPITAL.

Fine Easter Weather. Death of Marshall Barber. Supreme Court. Revenue Collections. The Governor's Movements.

JOURNAL BUREAU,
RALEIGH, N. C., April 19.
No one could have wished for a more glorious day than yesterday—Easter Sunday. The churches were well filled, and the music was fine.

At the church of the Good Shepherd the collection at the three services was for the building of the new Memorial church. The morning collection was $3.138. The Sunday school offering and the night collection increased this amount very largely.

At Christ Church a prayer of Thanksgiving went up when the beloved pastor of that church Rev. Dr. Marshall appeared in his robes in the chancel and conducted the services. His recovery from his recent serious illness is a source of gratitude not only to his congregation but to the people here generally.

Last October Mr. Marshall Barber and Miss Crawford of this city were married and yesterday the young husband crossed over the river, there to await the coming of his loved ones. For five weeks Mr. Barber had been ill with appendicitis, and on Saturday an operation was performed from which he never rallied.

Yesterday the street cars were again put on the tracks. The new cars have not yet come so only the five that were saved from the fire last winter are in use.

Two members of the Legislature have resigned their membership to accept another position. They are, Senator Rulins of Buncombe and Representative Williamson of Mecklenburg.

The Supreme court today devoted the entire session to the hearing of the three appeals which will be heard. The docket is not so heavy as one as usual. The court will adjourn for the term early in May.

Miss Nannie Branch Jones, Sponsor for North Carolina at the reunion of U.
C. V. at Nashville, has appointed the following maids of honor to accompany her: Misses Elizabeth Hlralale, and Jane Andrews, Raleigh; Lucy London, Pittsboro; Mary Bridges, Tarboro; Louisa May Lamb, Williamston; Julia Alexander, Charlotte; Nellie Virginia Harper, Hickory; Willie Ray, Asheville.

The collections in 1893 in this revenue district from whiskey and fruit brandy was $104,736. That was a big fruit year.
Last year they were $178,833 and this was mostly from whiskey as there was not little brandy made.

The Governor declines an invitation to deliver an address on industrial matters southern Press on the 28th. On the night of the 29th, he gives a reception at the Mansion to the Capital Club of this city.

Eugene Denison, son of Capt. C. B.
Denison of this city has been appointed assistant clinical physician at the hospital of the University of Maryland.
Greenville will probably get the railroad from Snow Hill. A $15,000 subscription will secure it.

TURKEY DECLARES WAR.

Commander in Field Ordered to Assume Offensive. The Sinking of a Greek Steamer Promptly Recalled.

CONSTANTINOPLE.—The council of ministers, after a session at the palace, declared that war had broken out on the frontier, owing to the incursion of the Greeks on Turkish territory, and Edhem Pasha, and the Turkish military commander, was ordered to assume the offensive.

The Porte has handed his passport to the Greek minister to Turkey, together with a note announcing the breaking of diplomatic relations between the two governments.

ATHENS.—The Turkish batteries at Preveza, were, according to the treaty of Berlin, the Turks had no right to erect a fortification, fired on and sunk a Greek steamer, the Macedonia, while she was attempting to leave the Gulf of Ambracia. The crew of the steamer were saved by boats from the shore, but the captain of the Macedonia was severely wounded.

Upon receipt of this news the Greek government sent orders to the Greek fleet in the Gulf of Ambra to bombard Preveza. Consequently the bombardment at Preveza commenced at 6 o'clock in the morning. Preveza, which is in Epirus and eighteen miles from Arta, is strongly fortified.

The Greek minister at Constantinople has been recalled and the Turkish minister has asked for his passport; they have seen handed him, and he has left Athens for Constantinople.

An invasion by Echem Pasha, the Turkish commander, is expected, and the Greek army has taken up position for the purpose of being in readiness to repel the advance.
