FILLING PRESCRIPTIONS is most important duty of a Pharmacist. A life often depends upon his skill and exactness, and the substitution of one drug for another is dangerous to life, disorganizes and challenges to physician's intelligence, and justly entitled to his reward. We give what is called for at fair prices. ASSOCIATED PHARMACEUTICALS, 1000 BROADWAY, N. Y. CITY.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Senate Gets a Lively Speech from a New Senator.

Two Pension Office Appointees. Hallowell Matters Complicate the Tariff Situation. Influence on Senators for Monetary Reform. The President has an Awkward Question to Decide.

JOURNAL BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23. Senator "Billy" Mason made his maiden speech this week. It wasn't a long one, nor was it upon a new subject, but it shook up the Senate and drew applause from the galleries. Mr. Mason spoke in favor of his resolution directing the committee on Rules to report a rule providing for the closing of debate, and for the previous question. He started off by saying that it was agreed on all sides that the U. S. Senate was a great body, that being the view particularly of those within the body and on its pay roll; but that every one knew also that it was the only legislative body in existence incapable of doing business. He expressed the hope that he would be forgiven for these reflections, as he was still in the kindergarten class, and recognized that he was threshing over old straw, and added that intended to keep at it for the next six years. He declared the every one knew that while we profess to be a government by the people, when we reach the highest body in the government there is a rule of the minority. He said that as soon as a man entered the Senate doors his energies were directed to retaining power in the old way and added that emphasis: "I want to deliver a message from the people to the Senate of power possessed by a resolution was by a vote of 32 to 47. The committee on Rules—to die."

While there was some disappointment among the politicians over the giving of two such juicy plums as the First and Second Deputy Commissioners of Pension to men already in the Pension Bureau, it was an example of real civil service reform and will doubtless make Commissioner Evans' task an easier one than it would have been with deputies who were not familiar with the work of the office. The gentleman promoted was Mr. James L. Davenport, of New Hampshire, who entered the office during the Garfield administration, and Capt. L. M. Kelley, of Illinois, who was chief of the Certificate division during the Harrison administration.

Senator Perkins, of Cal., is taking an active part in the fight that is being made to abrogate the Hawaiian treaty. The Finance committee has been asked to put a clause abrogating it in the Dingley tariff bill before it is reported and Senator Mills has given notice of his intention to move its abrogation in open Senate, if the committee doesn't provide for it in the tariff bill. Three years ago the question of abrogating this treaty was voted on by the Senate, the vote being 11 for and 57 against abrogation, but it is claimed that circumstances have changed since then. Under the treaty, all the sugar produced in Hawaii come in free of duty. The value has steadily increased. In 1893 it was $3,000,000, last year it was $12,000,000. This represents the amount of money we pay the sugar growers on the islands. In the new tariff bill sugar is $30 a ton. As we remit the duty in favor of the Hawaiians, it means that we present them with a bounty of $30 a ton on all the sugar they produce. There is no reason why we should make this discrimination in their favor. While the value of our purchases from them has increased at the rate of $1,000,000 a year, our exports last year to them were only $300,000 greater than in 1892. This is the nub of the whole matter, so far as our imports or exports are concerned. The opponents of abrogation say that to do so would lose this government the naval station at Pearl Island Harbor, but when the matter was last up in the Senate Secretary Sherman, then a member of the body, said: "We have paid and doubly paid for that harbor. We own it now. It is our possession." This would seem to dispose of that part of the question.

The executive committee of the Indian apollo convention, which has been in Washington for several weeks trying to work up Congressional interest in legislation providing for the appointment of a non-partisan monetary commission, is now bringing the somewhat stereotyped petition dodge to bear upon individual Representatives and Senators. Resolutions signed by business men in all sections of the country, asking for this legislation at the extra session, are pouring into Washington in every mail. This method of influencing legislation is not as effective as it once was. It has been abused so often that the average Senator or Representative is not disposed to attach much importance to what are called "machines made" petitions for any purpose. One personal letter from a business constituent is more apt to influence a Senator or Representative than a printed petition signed by one hundred of his constituents. President McKinley finds himself in rather an unpleasant predicament, in dealing with the case of Chapman, the New York broker whose appeal was decided by the U. S. Supreme court and who must now go to jail for thirty days or contempt to refuse to answer questions concerning the speculation of Senators in sugar through his firm, unless the President pardons him. Some very good friends of the President are asking for his pardon, and under ordinary circumstances there would be little doubt of his granting it. But the President knows that if he does so his political enemies will at once ascribe it to the influence of the sugar trust and that his doing so may cause a political scandal. There are others yet to be tried on the same charges—one broker and two newspaper correspondents.

ANOTHER INJUNCTION.

Private Stockholders A. & N. C. R. R. Restrained.

Important Decision by Supreme Court on Poll Tax Rate. It Changes Different Sections of the Act.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RALEIGH, N. C. April 22.—On application of Robert Hancock, Judge Adams grants the injunction restraining the private stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railway from a meeting. It is returnable 9th ult. The Supreme court this evening filed a very important decision. It is in the case of the Governor against the State Auditor to settle the poll tax. Three members of the Supreme Court, Faircloth, Furches and Montgomery, concur in the opinion that sections 2 and 3 of the Revenue Act are unconstitutional and void, leaving the corresponding sections of the act of 1893 in force. Section 2 of the new act made the poll tax $1.25, and section three made the rate tax 46 cents. This decision cuts the School Tax law from 20 to 18¢, on the $100 valuation.

THE STATE CAPITAL. Manning Suffers Paralysis. The Insurance Convention. Dispute of a Clerkship. Crop Damage.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C. April 23. The estimate of the damage done the State by the last cold snap is put at about a million dollars; but it is said by the weather people that what was saved from this spell will run no more risk, for warmer weather is from now on to be expected. A warm wave will reach us tomorrow. Yesterday it was 68 degrees in Chicago and 54 here. Prof. Von Herman, of the weather bureau here laughingly asked last night if 90 would suit you by May 1st. Dr. Manning, of Chapel Hill yesterday had a severe stroke of paralysis, one side of his face is paralyzed and his speech is badly affected. The latest news from him is that he is some better. The insurance conference to be held at Southern Pines on April 27th and 28th promises to be well attended. Mississippi will send 20 delegates, and the other Southern States will be well represented. The Diocese convention of the Episcopal church will meet in Good Shepherd church in this city May 12th, and the State convention of St. Andrew will meet on the 13th. The Portsmouth Dramatic club will present the beautiful opera "Prince Bonnie" at the Academy here on the 29th. The penitentiary board yesterday took up the clerkship vote again and it resulted in a tie, which chairman Dockery refused to break, so the matter was postponed until the next meeting. It is claimed that Wimbush, the clerk elect is not a Republican, but that he is supported for McKinley. There is a squabble over who shall have the clerkship of the U. S. District Court. Mr. Riddick has been the clerk for years. J. B. Fortune and J. N. Shook are the new applicants. The judges appoint the clerk, so Judge Joff and Simonton, and whatever Judge Joff gets the appointment at Washington will name their clerk. Major Garlington, who inspected the Agricultural and Mechanical College, also inspected the National Cemetery here and has gone to New Berne to inspect the cemetery there. Superintendent Smith of the penitentiary has gone to the State Farm at Castle Hayne near Wilmington to attempt to send more convicts there. Commissioner Patterson, Secretary Brewer, Dr. Battle and Prof. McCarth are gone to Southern Pines to inspect orchards and see how badly the locust fruit scale has damaged them. The new act gives this board considerable power. The killing of Mr. E. T. Pender senior, by falling between cars at Lenoir, is heard here with much sorrow. It was a son of General Pender of the Confederate army. The State Librarian will distribute 500 sets of Colonial Records. The receipts of tobacco are now falling off very much, showing that the bulk of the crop of 1896 is already on the market. TO CURE A COUGH IN ONE DAY. The Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists sell them. If it fails, return the money. If it fails, return the money. If it fails, return the money.

Judge Melver Renders His Opinion on the Majority Cases.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. WILMINGTON, April 23.—In the Majority case in the Superior Court Judge Melver decides that the act allowing the Governor to appoint councilmen was unconstitutional.

A BLAZE OF WAR.

Turks and Greeks are Fighting All Along the Whole Line. The Greeks still Hold Eryvras.

ATHENS.—The latest advices as to the situation at Damasi show that the Turks made a sortie from the town and attacked the Greek position. After severe fighting the Greeks drove the Turks back across the frontier within a few guns. The Turks have descended from Damasi Pass on Kartirvahi. The result is not yet known. Very heavy fighting has been in progress at Melonina Pass. The Greeks are endeavoring to take by storm the Turkish position on the hill opposite the entrance of the ravine. The Greeks were repulsed upon each occasion with tremendous loss. The Turks have a strong reserve force ready to be brought into action if needed. During yesterday's fighting in the same locality a Turkish general of brigade was killed. Larissa is overcrowded, food is scarce, the hospitals are full, and there is an urgent appeal for nurses and surgical assistance. The wounded are arriving hourly and all the surgical operations must be performed without chloroform, as there is none to be had. A telegram from Larissa says that 10,000 Turks are engaged and that Crown Prince Constantine has arrived on the scene of action. The Greeks are maintaining their positions. All the dispatches from Athens admit that the situation is extremely grave. Fighting appears to be going on along the whole frontier line. It is rumored that the King will start for Larissa on Monday next.
