WILL BE INVESTIGATED.
Tillman Resolution on Sugar Scandal to be Reported.

Our Minister to Turkey May Not be Received. Talk of Change in Tariff Bill. A Lull in the Cuban Agitation. Morgan Called to Time.

JOURNAL BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C., May 31.
The question of another and more searching investigation of the scandalous charges made against Senators in connection with sugar legislation, in accordance with the resolution offered by Senator Tillman, of S. C., and followed up by the most sensational speech of the session, is in a fair way of being decided by circumstances regardless of the personal wishes of Senators. If information is really desired, there was never a better time to get it. The grounds upon which Mr. Havemeyer, President of the sugar trust, was given a verdict of "not guilty," by direction of the judge, show plainly how a Senate Committee may compel him to give information or go to jail, and the imprisonment of Chapman, light as it is, will make brokers think twice before they refuse to answer questions. Senator Aldrich's statement that the only man who knew the contents of the sugar schedule of the tariff bill, excepting the members of the sub-committee that prepared it, before it was reported to the Senate was Senator Jones, of Nevada, seems to have made it incumbent upon that gentleman to say whether he furnished the information upon which it has been alleged that other Senators speculated in sugar stock, especially in view of Mr. Aldrich's having added that no member of the sub-committee gave any information to anybody. The Committee on contingent expenses, of which Senator Jones, of Nevada, is chairman, has decided to report the Tillman resolution to the Senate, with a recommendation that it be adopted. If anybody else but Senator Tillman had offered that resolution there wouldn't be the slightest doubt of its being adopted, and there isn't much anyway. If the resolution is adopted, Senator Tillman will, in accordance with rule and precedent be made Chairman of the investigating committee, and he will find out something or know the reason why.
When the head of a foreign nation objects to receiving the man nominated by the President confirmed by the Senate to represent the U. S. as ambassador or minister to that nation, he is merely exercising a prerogative that is recognized by all nations, and the minister has nothing left but to resign. Although it is denied at the State Department that any official notice of objection has been received by this Government from Turkey, it looks as though Hon. James B. Angell, late President of the University of Michigan, would be a victim of the persons non grata hoodoo. It is admitted by officials that they have knowledge of an attempt to poison the mind of the Sultan against Mr. Angell on account of his prominence as an advocate of the Christian religion, but they say that statements have been made which will satisfy the Sultan and that Mr. Angell will, within two weeks, start for Turkey.
He may, but the impression in Washington is, that he will not.
The Senate is making a fair rate of progress with the tariff bill, which is being discussed and disposed of by paragraphs. Everything has so far been quite business like, but trouble is feared when the wool and sugar schedules are reached. The Republicans are so far following their steering committee solidly, and upon nearly every paragraph they have had votes from Populists and upon several from Democrats, and in nearly every one yet passed upon the duties have been raised. If the talk of Republican Senators can be depended upon, the increased beer tax and the duty upon tea will both go, and their places be taken in the bill by an internal revenue tax upon bank checks, deeds, mortgages, etc.
Everybody has settled down to the conviction that it will be impossible to get the Cuban belligerency resolution before the House so long as Speaker Reed says no; consequently there is a decided lull in the Cuban talk, and everybody is waiting to see what President McKinley will do after Mr. Callahan returns from Cuba and makes his report. Everybody connected with the administration, from the President down, has grown reticent on this subject. This reticence is said to be caused by the President's determination not to allow the Spanish Minister to get a hint of his intentions before he gets ready to set, but rumor gives a dozen other reasons for it.
Senator Morgan caused a sensational scene in the Senate and was promptly called to order when he made an attack upon Speaker Reed and the House, for following out its programme of only meeting twice a week. Mr. Morgan asserted his belief that Congress is not constitutionally in session, and that the legality of a tariff law enacted under such circumstances may be successfully contested in the courts.

THE STATE CAPITAL.
Gov. Russell at Nashville. Dates of Commencements. Museum Being Filled. Meeting of the Board of School Examiners.
JOURNAL BUREAU, Raleigh, N. C., May 31.
Governor Russell and party of 22 ladies and gentlemen left yesterday afternoon via S. A. L. for Nashville. They will reach there this afternoon, and return to Raleigh the end of the week. Governor Russell requested Lt. Reynolds to act as his representative at Chapel Hill commencement this week.
Today being a legal holiday of course all banks and public offices are closed. This afternoon the graves at the National Cemetery will be decorated, by members of Post Meads of this city.
The Washington Post, an independent Republican paper says of the Tribune, that broke the end of the week, that it made no attempt to enter the legitimate field of journalism but its aim was to promote the political ambitions of certain parties. There is very little hopes of its being revived.
Rev. James Batle Averitt has accepted the invitation of the Ladies Memorial Association to deliver the address at the placing of the headstones at the graves of the North Carolina soldiers buried at Winchester Va. He names September 17th. the anniversary of the battle of Sharpsburg as the day best suited.
To-morrow the R. R. commission meets, and then the reduction of telephone rates will be definitely arranged.
Chapel Hill claims the attention of the public this week in its commencement exercises. They begin to-morrow.
June 7th-10th are the dates for the Agricultural and Mechanical College commencement.
June 7th is to be Raleigh Day at the Woman's Exposition in Charlotte. It is earnestly hoped that the Capital will be well represented there.
The many additions to the State museum will soon fill the new department which is almost ready for occupancy. Curator Brimley is now busy on an 800 pound turtle. He has on hand the 9 foot shark and 12 foot saw fish, besides many smaller varnints.
The directors of the Blind asylum meet June 14th to elect new officers.
Splendid rains fell yesterday, last night and today, so the farmers are well satisfied, as it was much needed.
Governor Russell is going to try and obtain from the war department the original title books of Governor Vance, 1862-65: These were taken from the Capital in 1863.
The Federal court is still in session. It has so far sentenced 3 prisoners to the penitentiary.
This city is to issue $25,000 5 per cent in bonds July 1st. On that date $20,000 six per cent bonds issued many years ago will mature. The proposed issue is to provide for these. It has a bonded indebtedness of about $200,000.
The State board of school examiners met Saturday morning. It meets again June 16 at Morehead city.
The following subjects were adopted for examination of teachers applying for first grade life certificates:
(1) English grammar, composition and literature, spelling, defining, writing and reading; (2) geography, political and physical; (3) physiology and hygiene; (4) history, North Carolina, United States and general; (5) arithmetic; (6) elementary Algebra; (7) elementary botany; (8) elementary psychology; (9) elementary physics; (10) civil government; (11) school law.
The following books in addition to those prescribed by law are suggested as indicating the scope of the examinations on the several subjects:
Whitney's Essentials of English Grammar, Pincost's Composition and Rhetoric, Lockwood's Lessons in English, Maury's Geography, Tarr's Physical Geography, Sully's Physiology for Teachers, White's Elements of Pedagogy, James' Psychology, Physics, Avery and Gage, Finger's and Peterman's Civil Government.

The Seismic Movement Felt Here Yesterday Was Severe in the Central Part of the State.

THE ORIGIN COMING.
Dr. Ruiz Was Killed. General Lee Holds the Spanish Government Responsible.
HAVANA.—The commission conducting the inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the death of Dr. Ruiz closed its labors Saturday. A messenger from Washington came from Tampa on the Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Mascotte, but did not land. He was registered on the steamer as H. W. Kimball. Mr. Fishback, secretary of the commission, accompanied by Consul-General Lee's son, went on board the steamer before she sailed and held a brief consultation with the messenger, and it is supposed that they delivered to him the report of the commission and other highly important dispatches from Consul-General Lee and Mr. Callahan, who was selected to investigate Dr. Ruiz's death, to be conveyed to the State Department at Washington.
Dr. Jose Congosto, the Spanish consul at Philadelphia, who represented the Spanish government in the inquiry, is also understood to have forwarded a long report to Senator DeLome, the Spanish minister at Washington.
Messrs. Callahan, Fishback and Congosto will leave next Thursday for New York direct.
The report by Mr. Callahan will, it is said, agree with the statement of Consul-General Lee that Dr. Ruiz died from concussion of the brain, the result of violence after solitary confinement of more than thirteen days, regardless of his treaty rights.
Consul-General Lee will shortly make a report on the Ruiz case, and Mr. Callahan will make a further report on other matters, such as the money question, the state of the insurrection, the condition of American interest and the general suffering due to Captain-General Weyler's style of campaign.
General Lee's position is just what it was in February last. He holds that Spain is responsible, since Ruiz died because he was deprived of his treaty rights. The exact facts as to how Dr. Ruiz received the blow which killed him general Lee and Mr. Callahan could not learn, because half of the witnesses examined by the commission were prisoners and it is believed, were afraid to testify fully. The remaining witnesses were the jailors, who would not testify to criminate themselves.
The relief of suffering Americans by Consul-General Lee goes on daily. Several hundreds have already been assisted.
