College Trustees Meet. A Shark for the Museum. The Big Excursion to Richmond. Invitation to the Governor. Southern Railway Claims Land. Agricultural Officials.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., JUNE 8.

The executive committee of the trustees of the Agricultural and Mechanical college met today. The chairman of the board, J. C. L. HARRIS, was asked what truth there is in the rumor of changes in the faculty. He replied: "Not a single application for a professor's place has been handed to me. I have not the least idea any changes will be made. Prof. Wheatley of High Point and Prof. John Graham of Ridgewood say that if president Holliday is to retire they desire that position. There is no idea of retiring President Holliday."

Dr. McGehee, who has for two years been second assistant physician at the insane asylum here, left this morning for Atlanta and will make that city his home. He has for two months been in charge of the female patients, Dr. Davis, the new first assistant, taking charge of the males.

A hammer-headed shark 13 foot in length, caught in one of the great nets at Cape Lookout, is the latest arrival at the State museum.

Two special trains on the Southern railway left at 10 o'clock this morning for Richmond, and carrying over 1,200 persons, members of the Sunday Schools of the Baptist tabernacle of which N. B. Doughton is superintendent. This is the largest Sunday School in the State.

The county of Stanly issued $100,000 in bonds in aid of the Yadkin railway. It now asks the court to declare the bonds null and void, and claims that the railway has failed to comply with its contract.

Governor Russell is invited to attend at Chicago, July 23, the unveiling of the statue of Gen. John A. Logan. The president and cabinet will attend.

New floors are being put in the capital. They will be of tiling. Wooden floors quickly decay in this building. There is no basement, strange to say, and the floors are very near the ground.

The claim of the Southern railway that as the lessee of the North Carolina railway it owns 50 feet of the land now occupied by the penitentiary here, is apt to go before the Supreme court. The land was granted by convicts for a distance of over 800 feet on the front. The high stockade is very near the track.

The present officers of the Agricultural Department are completing all arrangements for the coming over to their Populist Republican successors next Wednesday morning. This is the last of all the departments to pass from under Democratic control.

Many lawyers from here are at Asheville to attend the hearings of the North Carolina and Atlantic North Carolina railway cases before Judge Simonton.

Mr. A. P. C. Egan, the veteran agent here of the Southern express company here, is critically sick.

It is estimated that the State board of public printing proposes to make a number of changes in contracts. It meets this week.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 8.
The New York cotton was firm and higher today, August 7.34.

Macy & Pondleton, Bankers and Brokers, New York, in their daily exchange report on cotton, say:

New York, June 7 p. m.
Buy cotton. The total exports of cotton cloths for ten months ending April 31 were over 284 million yards against over 170 million yards corresponding period of last year, indicating that low prices now prevailing have forced our manufacturers and merchants into fields not heretofore occupied. Replies from 2,900 correspondents of Latham, Alexander & Co., indicate the acreage of 1897 increased 979,000 thousand acres, or 4.4 per cent., the total being according to their figures 23,320,000 acres against 23,118,194 acres reported by the Government June, 1896, and 23,087,000 acres reported in the revision of June, 1894. They think that unless the most phenomenal weather occurs hereafter a good crop in the Mississippi Valley will be impossible, owing to the overflowed lands. They report crop three weeks late and less promising than usual at this date. This report appears at variance with the earlier reports of others to us. The Government report of the 10th may show something of the same character. The Newberger Cotton Company of Grenada, Miss., says the general condition not so good and the plants are not so good as last year, while planting finished fully three weeks late. They estimate the acreage for all States 34,050,199 acres, or a net increase of 1,310,708 acres, or 3.10 per cent. These statements are given to show that there is some damage and delay which may modify views in regard to the crop of 1897 being unduly large. Seasonable weather improves cotton faster than any other plant and there is plenty of time for both damage and improvement. We still advise buying cotton, especially if there should be any sharp break offering special inducement.

WEATHER CROP BULLETIN.

Conditions For The Week Ending Monday, June 7, 1897.

The week ending Monday, June 7th, has been generally favorable throughout North Carolina. Although the temperature is still comparatively low, on account of cool nights, the warmer days and frequent showers this week have caused perceptible growth in crops and improved prospects generally. The rainfall averaged about an inch for the State. It is still too dry over a few counties in the northeast and extreme south portions. Cotton, though small, has good stand, is fresh in appearance, and the outlook for that crop is not discouraging. The wheat and oats harvest has just begun in southern counties, with fine prospects. Considerable local damage by hail occurred May 29th in eight counties.

Eastern District.—The past week has been generally favorable for all crops in this section. While not up to the normal, the weather was warmer, with fine showers, causing a perceptible improvement in crops. It is still dry in some northeastern, and in a few southern, counties. Crops, though small, are clear of grass and growing nicely now. Cotton small, but good stand, and fresh looking; rice has generally a bad stand, owing to damage by worms; in south portion some farmers have corn waist high. Tobacco is doing better at the end of the week; some plants recede early part of week died out badly. Oats are rather poor; some being cut in the south. The stand of peanuts is fair to poor.

A severe hail storm occurred May 29th, with considerable damage to crops over limited portions of Bladen, Duplin and Onslow counties.

Latest News Items.

Snow fell at Orange N. J. but the flakes melted as they struck the ground. The small attracted general attention, as few residents there had ever before seen snow in June.

The convention of Brewers at Buffalo N. Y. is to be one of the most important held by the brewers since 1865. The proposed increase in the beer tax now embodied in the Senate bill will be thoroughly considered, and means will be taken to prevent its enactment into law.

The volume of business transacted at the port of Philadelphia during the last six months has been extraordinary large.

The Senate disposed of the lumber paragraph, which has been more stubbornly contested than any feature of the bill so far, by defeating the motion of Senator Vest to place white pine on the free list—yeas, 20; nays, 38.

Colonel John S. Mosby, the famous Confederate commander, who came with Representative Walker, of Virginia, had a pleasant chat with the President. The Colonel's head is still bandaged from his recent severe accident.

In the United States Court at Jacksonville, Fla., Judge Locke handed down a decision in the case of Three Friends charged with violating the neutrality laws by carrying a filibustering expedition to Cuba, dismissing the libel for forfeiture.

It is officially announced that the Turks have committed serious excesses in Epirus, engaging in general pillage. The Turkish irregulars, it is further announced, have committed similar excesses in the villages around Larissa.

The First National Bank of Dover Del., opened as usual on Monday prepared to meet a run, but the run did not occur. The Farmers Bank had pledged assistance, as has also the National Bank of Philadelphia, through which the First National of Dover transacts its business.

Mr. Bailey, (Dem. of Texas), the minority leader, was in his seat when the House met Monday, for the first time in a fortnight.

William J. Calhoun, who was sent to Cuba as a special commissioner to investigate the circumstances of the death in prison of Dr. Ruiz, reached New York York on his return Monday. Lee reports that, "The island is rapidly being devastated in a short time it will not be worth anything to any one. It is difficult to get at the exact situation there. In the first place, there is a severe censorship of the press, and those who are naturally friendly to the Cubans hardly dare to express their views and opinions. Furthermore, the adherents of both sides are exceedingly intense. They tell their stories just as they want you to believe them. From the Spanish point of view, the island is practically pacified, and from that of the Cubans, the insurgents were never in such excellent shape as they now are."
