CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Great Reunion of Boys in Grey at Nashville.

A Memorable Scene. General Gordon Likely to be Re-elected Grand Commander. Names of Prominent Veterans Present.

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—The rain Tuesday morning was an unpleasant feature of the Confederate reunion at Nashville, but the inclemency of the weather did not weaken the spirits of the old Confederates, nor did it prevent their gathering at the tabernacle in great numbers, by hundreds and by thousands. At any rate, it was an improvement on the severe heat of the past week.

As soon as the doors at the tabernacle were opened at 9 o'clock the crowds began to pour into the spacious auditorium, and the ushers were kept busy seating the delegations in the sections laid off for the various State divisions. The gallery was the first to fill up, and by 11 o'clock every seat on both floors was filled, and many visitors unable to secure seats stood in the aisles. Seats on the platform were occupied by the sponsors, maids of honor, officers of the association, speakers of the day, and distinguished Confederate generals and their staff officers.

The picture presented was one of beauty and chivalry. But a grander sight was that on the floors where were gathered the rank and file of the Confederacy the men who fought in the ditches, the men who made the names of the generals and colonels famous in history.

One of the most pleasing events of the great gathering will be the reception and ball to be given by the Nashville Reunion Club in the hall of the House of Representatives Wednesday night to which the fair daughters and gallant sons of the entire Southland will lend their presence.

General John B. Gordon, who recently wrote a letter declining a re-election as general commander of the U. C. V., has, it is said, reconsidered the matter and those in a position to know say he will accept a re-election. This has been good news to the veterans.

The choice of the location for the Bal-the Abbey has been definitely postponed until next annual reunion and the many irrespective of States, who favor Richmond for the site, are agreed that her chances are materially improved by the postponement.

The parade Thursday ought to be a grand sight. Indeed there is every indication that 12,000 to 15,000 old veterans will be in line, and so many marching to martial music ought to draw out the natives in schools.

One of the unique features of the parade will be a company of thirteen young ladies at the head of Troop A. of Richmond, which has been selected as an escort to General Gordon.

Prominent among the veterans present were General Stephen D. Lee, of Mississippi; Judge J. H. Reagan of Texas, the only surviving member of Jefferson Davis' Cabinet; Colonel A. S. Colyar and Dr. Thomas Means, of Nashville, and Hon. J. D. C. Atkins, surviving member of the Confederate Congress. Hon.
Marcus J. Wright, of Washington; General Simon B. Buckner, of Kentucky; Colonel Henry C. M. Meyers, Colonel Lake, Colonel Helm, of Memphis; General E. P. Sikes, of Mississippi; Colonel Howard, of Georgia; General Moorman, of New Orleans; Colonel Baxter Smith, of Nashville; General W. B. Bate, Colonel John H. Savage, of Tennessee; Dr. J. William Jones, chairman of the United Confederate Veterans; General Clement Evans, of Georgia, and General Joseph Wheeler, of Alabama.

JAPAN'S PROTEST.

The Cabinet Discusses Foreign Matters.
WASHINGTON, June 22.—The cabinet talked for fully two hours today, most of that time on questions of foreign policy, but without deciding upon any particular changes in the lines of action already laid down. Hawaii and annexation were discussed at length and especially the protest filed by the Japanese minister against the pending annexation treaty. The protest is not given very much weight by the administration for the reason that in the estimation of the cabinet it is based upon a misconception of the terms of the treaty and of the results that would follow the substitution of the laws of the United States for the Hawaiian laws and treaties.

Exciting for Gold.

OXFORD, N. C.—Mr. Thomas Chestnut has sold his farm through which the vein of gold runs, to Mr. Hambley, representing Northern capitalists, for seven thousand dollars. About six months ago Mr. Hambley gave five hundred dollars for an option on the land and after a thorough investigation and sinking several shafts the sale of the farm was completed last night and the work of digging for gold will be rapidly pushed for all it is worth.

Orleans. Speculation in Wheat is of a Local Character. Provisions.

(Special to H. W. Silsby & Co. Commission Brokers.)

COTTON.

NEW YORK, June 23.—There was more disposition to sell than to buy Cotton today. At the opening Liverpool showed a small advance for both spots and futures, but the latter weakened during the day and closed at a loss of 2 to 3 points. Our market opened off 2 to 3 points for both the summer and fall months. Weakness immediately developed itself and the close this afternoon showed a loss of 6 to 7 points, all months declining equally. The German houses were the largest sellers of the summer months and New Orleans sold the late months. Opinion is very much divided as regards the immediate course of this market. It is generally conceded that the present crop conditions should warrant lower prices, but with the old crops almost depleted, the ultimate results are hard to predict. Personally we consider the fall months a sale on all bulges for a quick turn.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

LIVERPOOL, June 23.—Spot demand good business fair; prices 4-32 higher.
American midland uplands 4.5-32. Sales today 12,000 of which 1,000 are for speculation and exportation. Receipts 8,900 of which 2,700 are American. Futures opened quiet and steady; demand moderate and prices about 1/4 higher, and closed at a loss of 2 to 3 points for the day.

STOCKS.

NEW YORK, June 23.—London market for our securities was fractionally higher at the opening this morning. Prices here opened at an advance of 1/4 to 1/2 per cent, compared with yesterday's close, and for the moment ruled narrow. Later in the day reports were received from Washington which indicated a steady action in reference to the tariff bill which created a better feeling, and caused liberal buying throughout the entire list.
The grangers were the more conspicuous Burlington advanced 1/2 for the day, closing at the highest. Chicago Gas advanced 1/2 on moderate buying by the insiders.
In the coal group Jersey Central gained 1/2 on buying which was divided among the professional operators. Sugar was weak on rumors that the Senate would not stand by the committee schedule, and closed under the opening figure.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, June 23.—Speculation in wheat today was confined almost exclusively to the local traders, and prices ruled within a narrow scope. Shorts were inclined to transfer their holdings to the later months which caused a slight spurt in July. The export demand continues fairly good, but is offset by favorable reports. We still believe in lower prices for the fall months. Corn declined fractionally in sympathy with wheat but the volume of business was too small to occasion any decided movement either way. Provisions were firm, with the local packers moderate buyers.
July pork advanced 12 1/2 cents. Lard and ribs were also higher. We consider this market stable on any further advance for a turn.

REJOICING MILLIONS.

All England Doing Homage to Her Illustrious Queen. London a Sea of Wayne Colors.
LONDON, June 22.—The last stroke of twelve had not died away in the midnight air when from a hundred metropolitan steeples a tumultuous peal of bells announced Diamond Jubilee Day.
The vast crowd that filled the miles of streets and squares answered with ringing cheers and here and there the ringing of "God Save the Queen." The metropolis of the British empire, in gala attire, witnessed the greatest celebration in its history. The jubilee procession, crowning event of a brilliant reign, accompanied by the cheers of enthusiastic subjects and the roar of artillery, was participated in by royal families of every European power and an immense array of British troops from every quarter of the globe.

every sort were displayed, many windows had hangings of some sort generally scarlet and gold, or red, white and blue, and many others added flowers.
London was transformed into a vast court at which an Empire rendered fealty to its sovereign.
United States special envoy, the Hon.
Whiteley Reid, drove in the procession accompanied by one of the royal equeries, the latter being all gold, scarlet, and feathers, while Mr. Reid was quietly attired, wearing an Inverness coat, an opera hat, and a white tie. Gen. Nelson A.
Miles, representing the United States Army, rode up on a splendid horse and in full uniform. Gen. Miles took his place in the procession with the naval and military attaches, in alphabetical order, beginning with Austria and ending with the United States. Gen. Miles, representing the United States Army, rode with Gen. Lagren, representing the President of France, M. Faure.
