INSTITUTES.

Wake Forest Will Have a Pastors Institute.

Base Ball Among Amateurs. The Railroad Commission Meets Wednesday. Public School Question. Oath to Obey Laws of State.

JOURNAL BUREAU,
Raleigh, N. C., June 28.
"Institutes" seem to be the order of the day. The limit seemed to be reached when the plans for a sheriff's Institute were started, but that was a mistake for a Pastors Institute has been held at Wake Forest.

For the sheriff's Institute, the State Treasurer has assigned different subjects to several sheriffs. They will open the discussion in their several lines. The game of ball between the Franklin, Va. and Raleigh teams was played here Saturday and was one of the best amateur games ever played here in spite of the hot weather. By the time the game was called a brisk breeze sprang up that made it better. The Franklin team beat by a score of 4 to 3.

On Wednesday the Railroad Commissioners will hold one of its most important meetings. It will be in session possibly a week. It will tax all property under its control and when one recalls the fact that there are 72 railroads, 42 steamboat lines, 21 telegraph lines, 20 telephone and about the same number of street car lines, all to be dealt with separately, it will be seen that the job is no easy one.

An executive committee of 100 persons will take charge of the campaign for local taxation for public schools to be held in August.

The State Treasurer has sent out to all banks, railroad companies, and all associations incorporated under the N. C. laws, the oath prescribed by the laws of 1897. It is an oath to observe and obey the laws and constitution of the State and to lawfully discharge all the duties of their offices. It must be subscribed to on or before the 1st of July or the officers are liable to indictment.

The delegates to the National Conference of charities and correction at St. Paul's Minn., are: Chas. Duffy, R. B. Drane, W. F. Besley, Dr. W. C. Benson, R. P. Grigbee, T. W. Patton, V. S. Lusk, A. B. Noble, A. F. McAnley and C. B. Denison.

The governor offers $100 reward for arrest and conviction of the murderer of Mrs. A. A. Springs of Lexington. This amount is the limit of a state reward and it is very seldom one is offered.

The grape growers say the crop will be larger than was thought possible a month ago. Yesterday was delightfully cool and fine rains have been falling all the morning.

WALTZER'S OPINION.

Salesmen Must Have License With Them.

This a Protection Against Indictment. United States Commissioners Appointed by Judge Farnell.

Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, N. C., June 28.—Attorney General Walzer writes Treasurer Worth as follows:

"It is my opinion that each piano and organ salesman must have a license with him in order that he shall have protection from indictment. In reply to a letter from V. S. Lusk referred to me, it is my opinion, that sections 32 and 33 of the Revenue Act apply to all taxes alike. At first I thought the provisions unconstitutional, as being in contravention of provision of constitution of State, which provides that there shall be no imprisonment in this State for debt, but after some consideration, I have concluded they are valid."

Judge Farnell appoints as United States Commissioners, L. W. Hoyt, of Jacksonville; J. W. Siterson, of Williams; A. W. Simpson, of Baxton, Dare county.

TWO SUITS BROUGHT

Against Public Printers, Stewart Brothers, for Money Paid Them. Treasurer Worth Brings the Suit.

Special to Journal.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 28.—State Treasurer Worth brings two suits against Stewart Brothers, public printers, one on bond and the other money paid. Stewart Brothers to which they were not entitled but for which they were not liable. The amount demanded by the State is said to approximate ten thousand dollars although the exact figures are not yet given out.

The bond is five thousand dollars. The suit naturally follows the very serious charges against Stewart Bros., which have been publicly made during the past sixty days.

Wm. Wilson of central, and a Concord county settler, are guaranteed, 10c, 25c

MAY USE MONEY.

The Opponents of Annexation will Use Every Effort.

Bill Sure to Pass. Near the End of Tariff Talk. Union Pacific Matters. Patent Attorney Frands. Hobart Should Speak Louder.

JOURNAL BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 28.
The opponents of treaty for the annexation of Hawaii are playing it smart by trying to keep as quiet as they can, lest the program of allowing the treaty to go over to the next session should be abandoned, and the treaty ratified before the present session adjourns. According to some hints dropped by opponents of the treaty, they hope to accomplish the rejection of the treaty by a lavish expenditure of money to throw public opinion in the U. S. against it. It is said that the money is to come from European governments who wish the treaty to fail, but do not wish to appear to be opposing it, and from the sugar trust, which has opposed it from the first. The friends of the treaty say they have no fears. They believe that the Senate will ratify the treaty, but if it fails, the Morgan bill, already introduced, will bring annexation at once, and there is not a bit of doubt about their ability to pass that.

A stranger at the Capitol would know without being told that the tariff debate is drawing to a close in the Senate. The Senators show it by their general good nature. Of course, there are Senators to whom the bill, which will be passed this week, is anything but pleasing, but it is doubtful whether there is a single Senator who does not rejoice to know that the end is near at hand. Unless there shall be much greater delay than is expected in reaching an agreement as to the Senate amendments in conference, the tariff bill will be a law before July 15th and Congress can adjourn by that date, as it is generally understood that no other legislation is to be attempted at this session.

Senator Harris resolution declaring that the government should at once redeem the Union Pacific Railroad from prior liens and then take steps to foreclose its mortgage, with an amendment offered by Senator Morgan, requesting the President "to suspend proceedings to carry into effect the agreement alleged to have been made to sell the interests of the U. S. in the U. P. R. R. and in the sinking fund, until further action of Congress is had in reference thereto," has been favorably reported to the Senate.

Senator Harris, of Kans., wrote the report on the resolution, and he presented figures to show that if the proposed reorganization is allowed to go through, the government will lose near $25,000,000 and other creditors will also lose quite heavily.

Senator Butler is much pleased that his resolution as to the feasibility of applying the principle of the initiative and referendum to Federal legislation is to be investigated by a sub-committee.

A proposition is being talked of among some Senators to present Vice-President Hobart with a good natured petition asking him to speak louder. Mr. Hobart makes a fairly good presiding officer, except that his voice can scarcely be heard even by the occupants of the seats nearest to him when he states his decisions on points of order or says anything relating to the business of the Senate.

Fewer ex-Senators have been on the floor of the Senate since Senator Hale offered his resolution, to amend the rules to exclude from the privileges of the floor ex-Senators engaged in lobbying, than for a long time. Some of the ex-Senators are hoping mad, but the activity of ex-Senators as lobbyists was fast becoming scandalous and Mr. Hale's act is generally considered wise.

GOMEZ REPORTED DEAD.

Rumors to that Effect Current in Havana. Not Confirmed.

HAVANA.—Rumors have been afloat here since Friday morning, probably emanating from official circles, that Gen. Maximino Gomez, the insurgent commander-in-chief, has been killed in a fight near the military line, extending from Jucaro to Moran. The reports have not been confirmed.

While the rumors received little credence, owing to the many previous reports to the same effect, Havana eagerly awaited details of the death of the insurgent chief. Instead, however, of the details being forthcoming, the rumor was modified to the statement that General Gomez had been seriously wounded.

This story is, in turn, backed up by an official declaration from the palace to the effect that the insurgents themselves have admitted that Gomez is wounded. According to this same authority, a band of rebels who have surrendered to the local garrison in Placetas assert that Gomez was wounded during an engagement. They further assert that his horse was killed under him.

The fact that these reports came from the palace has done much to discredit them, as there are those in Havana who persistently refuse to believe in the truth of the Spanish assertions. In the mean time Cuban sympathizers are little disturbed.
