TIRED OF TARIFF.

Interesting Episodes in Its Discussion.

Tillman's Amendment Imposing Tax on Incoming Immigrants. New Counterfeit. Patent Attorneys Disbarred. State Dept. Incident.

JOURNAL BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.

The last days of the tariff debate in the Senate were disagreeably warm and it was apparent that the Senators were quite as tired of it as the public was. Still there were some more or less interesting episodes between talk and votes upon such absorbing topics as the duty on bleaching powder. Among them was the spirited colloquy between Senators Tillman and Chandler, started by the former in a speech in favor of his tariff amendment imposing a head tax of $100 upon all immigrants. It was fit for tat between these very sharpened tongues gentlemen for awhile, while bursts of laughter from the other Senators indicated that the wrangle was furnishing amusement, if not wisdom, for its hearers. When Mr. Chandler in mock alarm expressed his fear of Mr. Tillman that gentleman assured him that without his pitchfork he was entirely harmless. Mr. Tillman made some uncomplimentary allusions to ex-President Cleveland for his veto of the Immigration bill. Another break in the dull monotony was the two-hour speech of Senator Turpie in favor of his tariff amendment to tax all inheritances over $5,000. Mr. Turpie has one of the most picturesque vocabularies in the Senate and he drew on it heavily in his speech. He told the Republicans that the tariff bill would not furnish the money needed by the government, and closed by declaring that there was no more right in abandoning the free coinage of silver than there would be in abandoning the free coinage of gold.

Senator Tillman's tariff amendment imposing a tax of $100 each on immigrants and making it a misdemeanor for any alien who does not intend becoming a citizen to enter the United States for the purpose of engaging in any mechanical trade or manual labor, until silver is admitted to our mints for coinage on the same conditions with gold and at a ratio of 16 to 1, received just three votes one from a Populist, Butler, one from a Democrat, Tillman, one from a Republican, Quay. Forty-eight votes were cast against it.

Secret service officials of the Treasury have discovered that the new $5 silver certificate has been counterfeited by the photo-lithographic process. The only counterfeit yet secured by the officials is a very bad one, not likely to deceive anybody even fairly expert in handling money. Much of the printing is blurred and indistinct, and the green is lighter than that on the genuine certificate. Handlers of these notes will lose nothing by observing them closely.

The crooked patent attorneys are finding that their road has become a rocky one, and are beginning to fall by the wayside. Ever since he became Commissioner of Patents, Hon. Benjamin Butterworth has been gathering the evidence that would enable him to protect the poor inventors from the alluring schemes of those who have been conducting a business little better than highway robbery under the protection of and at the expense of the United States government and of an honorable profession. Commissioner Butterworth has lately disbarred eight patent attorneys from practice before the U. S. Patent office for dishonorable practices, and has charged John Wedderburn & Co., of Washington, with numerous fraudulent practices and ordered them to show cause why they should not be disbarred.

If audacity will help her cause any the ex-Queen of Hawaii, who has been in Washington for some months, can furnish it in unlimited quantity. This week she was at the Capitol "carding" individual Senators out and making personal appeals to them to vote against the ratification of the treaty for the annexation of Hawaii. In view of all the circumstances there have been few more audacious things publicly done in Washington than this lobbying of this dusky ex-queen against annexation.

It is doubtful whether there is a single Senator who really believes that the amendment to the tariff bill prepared by the majority of the Finance Committee and labeled "anti-trust," will result in hurting a single trust. The amendment is nothing more nor less than a sop to public opinion, which thinks that Congress ought to be able to help the people against the trusts, just as the anti-trust laws now on the statute books were in their time. There may in time be some effective law against trusts, but it will not be a part of the Dingley tariff bill.

An incident, small in itself but raised a lot of dust in Washington. It is customary after a new U. S. minister has been sworn in at the State Department for him to send his card to the minister to the United States of the country to which he is accredited. This week Gen.

Woodford, the new minister to Spain, was sworn in, and instead of sending his card to Senor De Lome, the Spanish minister, Gen. Woodford made a personal call upon the Spaniard. He was driven from the State Department to the Spanish legation in President McKinley's carriage, and it is said the call was made at the President's request. The friends of Cuba do not like it at all.

GRAVEN'S 'MARE'S NEST.'

Says Attorney General Walser on Commissioners Action.

What Superintendent of Public Instruction Must Do. State Treasurer and Auditor to Show Cause on Oyster Land Entry Tax.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RALEIGH, N. C., July 2.—State Superintendent of Public Instruction today asked the Attorney General what was his duty in regard to the action of Craven County commissioners.

The following is the Attorney General's reply and will be put into effect: "It is the duty of the Superintendent of Public Instruction by mandamus to compel the board of commissioners to discharge their duties, and where there is not time to do this, to indict and punish them for such malfeasance."

The Attorney General tells me he finds the law regularly passed both branches of the legislature.

It was in each, read three times on three different days, with roll calls on 2nd and 3rd readings.

He says the "mare's nest," which was discovered at New Berne, was Major Grants bill to stimulate rural taxation.

The State Treasurer and State Auditor are summoned to appear before Judge Robinson here July 12th to show cause why they should not pay the Oyster Land Entry claims.

The claims aggregate some six thousand dollars, which the Treasurer refused to pay.

STILL GRANTING PARDONS.

Board of State Public Printers Submitted. Park Hotel Management. Weather Changes. Steamship Men to Appear Before R. R. Commission.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., July 2.

Governor Russell is still granting pardons. Yesterday he granted a pardon to Lafayette Summerlin of Edgecombe for barn burning. The petition for pardon was signed by the leading men of the county. The prisoner had already served 11 years of his term.

Mr. J. C. Brown, the new proprietor of the Park Hotel has retained Mr. R. E. Crawford and J. L. Tucker, but Mr. E. T. Brown and Mr. R. E. Shoreville go elsewhere.

The bond of the new public printers was yesterday submitted the counsel of State for approval. It is for $5,000 and is given in the American Bonding and Surety Company.

The trouble with the accounts of the Stewart Bros, the former State printers are by no means settled. There is a dispute in the Agricultural Department work involving some $2,000 or $3,000.

Yesterday there came up a sudden thunder storm and hard blow, and the thermometer dropped from 96 to 72, but with a sudden rise it ran up to 80 with in a few moments after the drop.

The R. R. Commission has issued notice

THE MARKETS.

New York and Chicago Quotations on Stocks Cotton and Grain.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. New York, July 2.—Stocks were dull today, preceding Monday's holiday, but were strong at closing, at top prices. Cotton is strong with little reaction at closing, but its position is strong. Wheat rallied on a low sea. We have the biggest crop on record, and price is going lower.

On any weakness tomorrow, buy stocks and cotton, and sell wheat. There will be a higher market next.
