and that fact guarantees its freshness. It doesn't last long enough to get stale. It requires talent to make good soda. Everybody can't do it—but we can. We use the freshest fruit syrups and filtered water. We know just how to mix things to make you say "ah" at the first sip. We're not imagining though you'll think us justified in doing so when you taste the soda.

WHAT RALEIGH NEEDS.

The Present Theatrical Accommodations are too Poor.

Church Members to be Disciplined. Keep off the Capital Grounds. More Tribune Staff for Sale. A Teacher Leaves. Treasurer's Office Report.

JOURNAL BUREAU.
RALEIGH, N. C., July 9. Raleigh is so badly in need of a nice commodious and convenient Opera House. The two here are small, particularly the stages, badly arranged etc. The Academy of Music will be somewhat improved before the fall season, by putting in new scenery and larger windows. The lessees of the Academy have booked some fine shows for the coming season. When they took hold last year it was decided that only good shows would be booked, and they have so far put the Academy on a high grade.

The First Baptist Church here has passed a resolution that hereafter all members of this church who dance or play cards will be disciplined. It was rather a surprise when the pastor read this resolution for he had seemingly not noted the fact that there were some members of his church, who had been indulging.

The new keeper of the capital has issued an order that after 7 o'clock p. m. all nurses and children are to be excluded from capital grounds. This is outrageous for the square is a cool place these hot evenings and belongs to the entire State and not to this narrow minded keeper Burns.

Mr. A. A. Thompson yesterday sold the office fixtures and furniture, and the electric motor. The rest of the Tribune effects, presses etc. are still for sale. It will be remembered, that Mr. Thompson, at the sale of the Tribune property bought it all in.

Capt. C. B. Denson who has given up his share in the Raleigh Male Academy, will probably settle in Charlotte. It will be Charlotte's gain and Raleigh's loss. For years he has been a teacher here, and it is with regret we see him leave.

The Quarter Master General has ordered a new North Carolina State flag to be issued to each of the regiments in the State Guard.

In the State Treasurer's office the receipts for first half of 1896 were $236,834 and the disbursements were $503,553. For the corresponding time for 1897 the receipts were $845,176, and the disbursements were $682,682.

The Wake county Farmers Alliance met yesterday and elected J. W. Denmark its delegate to the State Alliance convention at Hillsboro next month. He opposes the taking of the business fund of the alliance for the tannery and shoe factory.

Papers were today served in the Secretary of State's office against the United States Life Insurance company. This company has paid its fees but as it has no license, so the suit had to be brought against the Secretary of State.

The Secretary of State wants to get the printing of the Supreme court done in this State, if possible, but he will give it to the lowest bidder no matter where he is from. There are bids from Richmond.

The grape crops in the vineyards near here are the finest ever seen. This is saying a good deal, for the grape growers around here have done a big business before.

MAY ADJOURN SOON.

It Depends Upon Hawaii Treaty and Monetary Commission.

Competition Among Architects to be Encouraged for Public Buildings. Criticism of Judge Bradley by Sen. Allen. Attempt to Bihe.

JOURNAL BUREAU.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 9. In view of the large majority by which the tariff bill passed the Senate, one can hardly realize that a few months ago well-informed men were expressing doubts of its passage. The House has disagreed to the Senate amendments to the bill, which is now in conference. The pressure to get the matter finally disposed of is so great that the conference is not likely to be a very long one, although some bluffing will probably be indulged in during its first stages.

Two things stand in the way of fixing a date for the adjournment of Congress. President McKinley's message asking for legislation authorizing a currency commission, and the determination of the Senate committee on Foreign Relations to report the Hawaiian annexation treaty at the present session, instead of allowing it to go over until next winter. If an attempt is made to bring these matters to a vote, the date of adjournment will be very uncertain; if not, adjournment is likely to specify follow agreement on the tariff bill.

Young architects of talent have reason to rejoice at the new method of securing plans for public buildings, under the Tarsney act of Congress, which is to be inaugurated by a competition to furnish the plans for new buildings to be erected at Norfolk, Va., and at Camden, N. J. Regulations governing these and future architectural competitions were this week issued by the Treasury department. They provide that at least five architects of good standing shall be asked to submit competitive plans, drawings and specifications for each building to be erected, information as to cost, etc., to be furnished by the Supervising Architect office. The right to reject all plans submitted is reserved, but when one of the competitors succeeds he will get quite a nice thing. He will be commissioned by the government to prepare complete plans and to locally supervise the erection of the building. Secretary Gage has great expectations of the new plans, both as an improver of public architecture and a developer of architectural talent.

Senator Allen took occasion during the short debate which preceded the laying of his best sugar bounty tariff amendment on the table by a vote of 57 to 9 to express his opinion of Judge Bradley, who presided over the trials of the sugar scandal witness and, with one exception, instructed the juries to bring in verdicts of not guilty. Mr. Allen said: "I do not know who Judge Bradley is, nor do I care, but any man sitting on the bench in this District or elsewhere and who would hold that a question put by a member of a committee and not objected to by the balance of the committee was not a proper one, ought to be convicted of imbecility and general incompetency, for not knowing one of the fundamental principles of jurisprudence that has come down to us from 600 years ago. One of the oldest principles of evidence, one upon which we act every day, it is said silence gives consent. It was decided differently, however, by that distinguished jurist, Mr. Bradley, and possibly there are a few poor fellows, who believe that there can be such a thing in these days as favoritism in the administration of justice."

Assistant Secretary Howell, of the Treasury department, was about the maddest man in Washington for awhile this week. It all came about through an Alabama office-seeker. Several weeks ago Mr. Howell received a letter from this man asking that his application for the position of collector of Customs at Mobile be filed. Mr. Howell filed the application and as a courtesy wrote the man that he had done so. This week Mr. Howell got another letter from the Alabama chap, in which he coolly proposed to pay Mr. Howell one-fourth of the salary, if he would procure his appointment to the office. As soon as he could command his indignation sufficiently, Mr. Howell wrote the would-be office buyer that he had been guilty of violating a statute of the United States by trying to bribe a Government official, and had thereby shown his own unfitness to fill any official position.

Death of Senator Harris.

WASHINGTON, July 8—Senator Isham G. Harris, of Tennessee, died at his residence here a few minutes before 6 o'clock this afternoon. The Senator had been growing constantly weaker for several days past, the intense summer heat, which has prevailed, greatly debilitating him, and no doubt hastening his end. Mr. Harris represented the Ninth Tennessee District in Congress for the two terms ending in 1893, when he declined a re-nomination. He then moved to Memphis, where he has since resided. He was three times in succession before the war, beginning in 1857, elected Governor of his State, and was serving in that capacity when the war broke out. He took a pronounced stand for the Southern Confederacy and was known as one of the Southern war Governors.

Japan Makes Demand.

WASHINGTON—Minister Hoshi, of Japan has received late advices from both Hawaii and Japan, which show that negotiations on the difference between the two governments on the immigration question are going forward peacefully, and that there is nothing in the progress of the negotiations to justify sensational reports that there is a probability of serious trouble between the two governments.

THE MARKETS.

New York and Chicago Quotations on Stocks Cotton and Grain.

Special to Journal.
New York, July 9.—The stock market had continued downward tendency, with dullness prevailing throughout the session.

The features were liquidating in Gas. The feeling in Sugar favors lower prices, as the final outcome of the tariff bill.

On further declines, stocks are a good purchase, as railroad earnings are increasing.

Cotton is weaker on rain in Texas, and a lower barometer throughout the cotton belt.

Cereals declined after Russia stopped laying.

The government crop tomorrow is expected to show a record breaking on the yield. On any advance on foreign currencies is a good place to sell wheat.

Provisions weak. Hog receipts and prospects enormous.

The following is from the financial letter of Macy & Pendleton, Bankers and Brokers, New York:

As the season passes it becomes more and more evident that there is to be an abundance of everything that grows out of and is taken out of the ground. The prospect of good prices for agricultural products are good and the probabilities for higher prices for manufactured products as the result of stimulating industries appears also encouraging.

The currency reform, promised in last year's campaign, is doubtless to be delayed in performance though the promise will probably be renewed from the executive standpoint. Under all these favorable circumstances, investors, having patience, can hardly fail to be ultimately well rewarded.
