The Past Week Shows Advance in all Markets.

Railroad Earnings Steadily on the Increase. Rain has Helped the Outlook on the Cotton Crop. Foreigners are Still Buying Wheat.

Special to Journal.
New York, July 17.—The week ends with railway securities and cereals at top prices.
Increased earnings is the feature in railway securities.
Sugar trust is erratic with a tendency to lower prices on the expectation that the Dingley schedule may be adopted.
Cotton declined on realizing by Liverpool and the reports from different points of the drought being broken by good showers.
We believe the reaction is only temporary, and look for further advance.
Argentine and Liverpool buying wheat, caused a further advance of nearly two cents over yesterday's close.

In the closing hour realizing and delivery on July contracts caused reaction, closing at the lowest point.
A further advance may be expected next week.

The gathering at Toronto Epworth Leagues have kept coming for two days until today the muster over twenty thousand strong, and carry everything in front of them.
The conferees on the tariff bill are no nearer an agreement on the sugar schedule, which continues to be the main bone of contention, than they were when they began. Each side is standing out as firmly as ever for their own views.
Reliable information is received to the effect that the Navy Department has determined not to be caught napping in the event of trouble with Japan over the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands. All orders which would have resulted in moving ships of the Pacific and Asiatic squadrons from headquarters to distant points have been temporarily suspended.

PURNELL HOLDS COURT.

Railroad Commission Has Not Reached Decision

Large Attendance Promised at Morehead. Charlotte Artillery. Fruit Crop not Good. Populists Disgusted. Seaboard will Build.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., July 17.
Judge Purnell arrived this morning from Asheville and held a regular term of the U. S. district court, at which a number of accounts were approved. He also received the bond of J. B. Fortune as clerk of the court and administered the oath of office to him. District attorney Aycock made the motion.
Judge Purnell also heard motion for a receiver for the Cumberland Mills, in the case against it by the Eastern Building and Loan Association of Syracuse, N. Y. There are a great many parties defendant.

The Judge says he has notified clerk Shaw of the Court at Wilmington that he will not be removed or disturbed. The Judge will be at Asheville three weeks longer, returning there Monday to hear the great case of Scarfe vs. the Western Land Company, involving title to over 70,000 acres of land in Buncombe, McDowell and Burke counties. The grant for this land was issued in 1795 to Samuel Tate.
The railway commissioners say no decision is arrived at regarding the rate of valuation of railways, and that none will be reached until the end of next week during which time the commission will be in session at Round Knob, on the Western N. C. R. near Asheville.
Barnes Bros., printers to the council of State, get the printing of the Agricultural Department which is separate from the other printing.
The State Treasurer says over half the sheriffs in the State and a great number of other county officers will attend the meeting at Morehead City, known as the county officers' convention. Auditor Ayer went there today to remain until it ends and to secure the largest possible attendance.
The Charlotte artillery detachment, 16 strong, armed with a gaiting, a howitzer and revolvers, is uniformed by the State as a light battery.
The fruit crop east of the mountains is not a good one. In the mountain counties it is excellent.
Fine samples of tobacco of this year's growth are coming in. The outlook is good. The dry and very hot weather did some damage.
Rains after July 7 have unquestionably improved all crops and raises the percentage of condition above those given yesterday in the Agricultural Department's July report. Most of the returns on which that report was based were dates prior to July 7.
News comes in that great numbers of Populists are deeply disgusted at occurrences since January last and are ready to return to the Democratic party.
Many persons elected as judges and registrars of election decline to serve for the public school tax election August 10. Opposition to the election increases daily in many sections and is being formed. Large quantities of literature are being sent out by the press bureau in support of the election.
The man arrested at Mt. Airy on the belief that he was the murderer of Mrs. Springs at Littleton has proved his innocence and is at liberty.
The Seaboard Air Line it is now declared is making complete arrangements to build from Rutherfordton to Bristol, via Asheville, Burnsville, and Cranberry.
Six white men lynched Roberts Chambers near Cranberry in Mitchell county are on trial in McDowell county for that crime. Under the new law persons accused of lynching must be tried in a county other than the one in which the crime was committed.
The capital officials attempted to evade responsibility for removing all the veteran negro employes and putting in their places some who are partisans. But the attempt has failed. The Secretary of State says each appointed his own man.
The Salisbury Knitting mill, long idle, resumes work Monday with much new machinery.
