TWO GOOD SPEECHES.

Two fine speeches were made in New Bern on Friday. They were delivered by Mr. D. L. Ward and Capt. E. M. Pace.

Both these gentlemen know how to make speeches. But the value of their remarks depended upon the key in which they were pitched.

The vibrating note in Mr. Ward's address was the exhortation to the Fire Companies to sink all minor differences in the pride for their native town. All the changes were skillfully rung on this theme and the Orator of the Occasion could not but be great because this theme was great.

The speaker at Hotel Obatawka spoke for the town. Capt. Pace at the Warehouse spoke for the country. He told his audience that our Eastern section had a great future, that from its fertile soil could be wrung by its sturdy workers, competence and ease. That there was much to learn but that no where in North Carolina would industry receive a richer reward.

There is a difference in towns. In some there is no local pride. Others have more than is for their own good. But as in everything else there is a happy medium, and as in people so in towns, happy are they who hold the middle course.

The JOURNAL is not afraid to take strong ground against the feeling that has crept in that would place the "pink and white" colors of the Atlantic or the "blue and white" of the Buttons above the City colors which are "black and red." The JOURNAL would have hurrahs for one team as cheerfully as for the other. We become ridiculous to the outside world with our petty squabbles. A town that is divided against itself cannot stand.

When Paul stood up before the chief captain in Jerusalem he said: "I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city."

New Bern is not large. But it is its people not its land that make a country great. As Mr. Ward said, let us stand shoulder to shoulder, then when we are away from home, we can boast as Paul did that we are citizens "of no mean city."

Great is Charlotte.

It's the little things that tell. It will be noticed that in an article from the New York World reproduced in this paper, referring to excursions over the Seaboard Air Line from this city to New York, Charlotte is spoken of simply as "Charlotte"—not "Charlotte, N. C.," as it would have appeared a few years ago. We notice this frequently in leading city papers, and especially in the trade and textile papers of the North and East. There could be no better sign. Charlotte has been so well advertised and is so well known throughout the country, that there is no longer any necessity to locate it.—Charlotte Observer.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centers in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at F. S. Duffy's Drug Store.

A Household Remedy.

And it never fails to cure Rheumatism, Catarrh, Pimples, Blisters, and all diseases arising from impure blood, is Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) Thousands endorse it as the best remedy ever offered to mankind. The thousands of cures performed by this remedy are almost marvellous. Try it, only $1.00 per large bottle.

A Physician's Evidence—AN HONEST DOCTOR.

Although a practitioner of over twenty years, my mother influenced me to procure Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) for her. She had been confined to her bed several months with Rheumatism, which had stubbornly resisted all the usual remedies. Within twenty-four hours after commencing B. B. B., I observed marked relief. She has just commenced her third bottle, and is nearly as active as ever, and has been in the front yard with "rake in hand," cleaning up. Her improvement is truly wonderful and immensely gratifying.

SOUTHERN GOLD FIELDS.

The excitement over the gold fields of Alaska and Canada has re-awakened interest in the more accessible gold mines of the Southern States. Some $45,565,483 of gold, it is found by recent inquiries, has been taken from the mines of Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee. Nearly half of this gold was obtained in North Carolina, Georgia being the next largest producer. Since 1891, however, South Carolina has been leading in the production of gold. Some nuggets are found in these Southern fields, but placer diggings are not the feature of importance. "Pay rock," not "pay dirt," is what the Southern miner has to deal with, and for this he requires capital, machinery and scientific processes, besides business methods and experience. New methods of treatment make it possible to get gold in paying quantities from ores formerly regarded as untractable. In consequence of this fact old mines are being reopened and new ones developed. The world now rushes to Alaska, where the climate is arctic and the conditions are unfavorable, but the time is not far distant, it is believed, when the paying mines of the South, with their favorable climate and civilized surroundings, will receive the attention of mining capitalists.—Baltimore Sun.

The Old Sandbox.

"Blotting paper," said a man of mature years, "has been commonly used for only about 40 years. Before that we used sand, which was poured from a sand box out upon the paper. Enough of it adhered to the wet ink to keep it from blotting. The rest was poured back into the box. I think I liked the old sand box better than I do the modern blotting paper. Sometimes when you opened a letter you would find sand in the envelope, which had rubbed off the letter in transit. But that didn't do any hurt, and the letter itself was more slightly to look at than the letter of today. It did not show off pale, where fresh ink had been taken from the lines bodily by the blotter—it was uniform in color. And the lines, fine and coarse, were just as the writer made them—not blended or blurred or softened or spread out, more nearly uniform. They were clear and precise and characteristic of the writer."

"I liked the old sand box, but of course we couldn't use it now; we're too busy."—New York Sun.

Wonderful Forethought.

The habit of companies which insure against accidents to compel their patients to resort to the courts to recover in case of injury was the occasion of this singular thoughtfulness, told by the president of a large accident company:

"Some time ago," he said, "a large policy holder in my company was run over by a Brooklyn trolley car and his right leg painfully crushed. He remained unconscious after the shock for three minutes, during which time he pulled out his watch and called the attention of the crowd to the fact that it was just 15 minutes of 12. His policy expired at noon, and his foresight was rewarded by the immediate payment of his weekly indemnity without controversy or litigation."—Youth's Companion.
