AND NOW FOR BUSINESS.

The opening of the Fall season, which September ushers in, ought to arouse every one to action.

The summer has passed, and with it the period of dullness, due to hot weather, a general slackness in trade and the absence of many persons from their usual places of business.

With the coming of the Fall season there will be an increase of business activity, the conditions being changed, cool weather succeeding hot, and with it a demand for goods of all kinds.

A White Reed Bird.

There is a white reed bird on the Eastern branch marsh, and every gunner is waiting for an opportunity to get a shot at it more eagerly than he would for a chance to bring down a canvas-back duck. Dick Jones and others of the old regime quished the task when he perceived that who were on the marsh Wednesday saw the albina reedy, but it kept without range, Once it flew within twenty yards of Dick, but he had of invention" can hardly be traced to just downed two ortolans, and his gan had no shells in it. Other shooters have had similar experiences. The other birds do not allow the albino to rest a moment after they discover it near them, The bird is pure white, and the man who gets it will be envied for the whole season .- Washington

DREAMS OF THE DAYS GONE BY.

Dreams, come home to my heart again
With the memory of the past,
Come with your pleasure and your pain
And your hopes too bright to last.
Come from your hidden graves that lie
In the beautiful realms of the days gone
Come from your glorious graves that lie
In the realms of the days gone Come from your glorious graves that In the realms of the days gone by:

I will welcome ye all again, As once in the halls of Eld, Velcome the pleasure and the pain
For the beauty your brief lives held.
Dreams, come out of your secret graves
In the woodland wilds and the dim caves; Dreams, come out of your myriad graves In the wilds and the dim sea caves!

Ye throng the halls of my heart once more With faces sad with pain.

Oh, faded ghosts of the dreams of yore,

The joy comes not again.

Go back to your mournful graves that lie
In the shadowy realms of the days gone by;
Go back to your volceless graves that lie
In the realms of the days gone by!
