THE RUSSELL ACT.

Of Suspending Railway Commissioners Criticised.

State Manufacturing Enterprises. Penitentiary Bids. State Fair Prizes. Supreme Court Report out. Will be a Fight by Commissioners.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 24. The Governor in suspending Maj. J. Wilson and Mr. S. Otto Wilson yesterday, as railroad commissioners, notified them that he had told Mr. L. C. Caldwell and J. M. Pearson who he appointed as their successors to bring suit for the offices if there was any trouble in taking possession. This high handed piece of business on the part of Russell should have the most severe criticism.

Next week the Bulletin of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture will be issued, and it will give a list of all the manufacturing enterprises in the State. The bulletin in writing of the cotton mills says that the total number of cotton spindles in the State is 1,059,979, that it is understood that they can spin daily into No. 20 yarn 329,988 lbs., or one half pound raw cotton for each spindle, or altogether about 111,124 bales of 477 pounds each, or during a year of 300 days 333,326 bales. Ohio lacks 2,935 bales of being as much as was produced in North Carolina in 1890, as that year only 336,261 bales were produced. This State with her many mills will soon be able to spin and weave every pound of cotton raised here.

It is stated that Commissioner Abbott says that he does not consider the Governor has the power to suspend the other two commissioners and that he considers it his duty to serve with them in any event.

The penitentiary decides to invite bids for the lease of the institution up to October 18th. The propositions submitted to Mr. Winder were such as to shut him out unless they are modified.

For the Fair, Col. Julian S. Carr offers a gold medal for the best poultry exhibit at the State Fair. There is to be $150 in purses for bicycle races.

The 120th, North Carolina Supreme Court report is out. It contains 773 pages. It was done by James E. Goode, Printing company of Richmond, Va. There were 1,000 books printed at a cost of less than $900.

Judge Shepherd has closed his law school at Chapel Hill and has come back to Raleigh for the winter.

The new appointees by the Governor for the R. R. commission makes the commission the same as before: 1 Republican, Abbott, 1 Democrat, Pearson, and 1 Populist, Caldwell. The only difference being Maj. Wilson the chairman is a Democrat of the hottest kind and his successor (according to Russell) is Caldwell a Populist, Treasurer Worth will pay no salary to either of the sets until it is decided by the courts who are the right full commissioners.

It is said that the Stewart Bros., have been paid by the State $10,000 in excess of the amount really due for work.

Commissioner Abbott has written a spy letter to Governor Russell backed by legal authority, stating that he does not recognize the Governor's power to suspend the other two commissioners. Pearson has been sworn in, Wilson declined to surrender his office, and so Pearson sues for office as directed by the Governor. It seems strange that a Democrat should be mixed up in this affair as one of Russell's appointees.

THAT ULTIMATUM

To Spain Entirely too Prematurely Announced.

Peaceful Methods as to Cuba will be Employed. The Ohio Campaign. Section 22 of the Tariff. Senator Elkins' Version.

JOURNAL BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24. "There will be no trouble with Spain unless it be deliberately and without real cause brought on by the Spanish government," said a prominent member of the administration while discussing the cock and bull story about an ultimatum having been sent to Spain by this government, which came via Paris. Continuing this gentleman said: "As a matter of fact the instructions given to Minister Woodford, a copy of which he doubtless left with the Duke of Tetuan when he was reported to have delivered an ultimatum to him, were entirely mild and conciliatory in character and there could be no real reason for Spain to take offense at them." The trouble about that "ultimatum" story is that it was altogether premature. The McKinley Cuban policy is to first try persuasive and peaceable methods of bringing about peace in Cuba with the consent and assistance of Spain, but if those methods do not accomplish that purpose, there isn't the slightest doubt of his intention to use stronger methods, even to the extent of force, if necessary. The war in Cuba is depriving the United States of a trade of more than $50,000,000 a year, and it has got to be stopped, either with or without the consent of Spain. This isn't jingoism; it is merely meeting demands of business men who wish to trade, not to fight. Secretary Sherman says there was not a word of truth in the "ultimatum" story.

It has been very persistently stated in Washington for some time that neither Senator Hanna nor the administration wished Secretary Sherman to make speeches during the present Ohio campaign. As Secretary Sherman has until this week said that he intended to go to Ohio and take part in the campaign not much attention has been paid to the statements alleging that Senator Hanna and President McKinley did not wish him to do so. But those statements have been recalled by an intimation from Secretary Sherman that he will probably not go to Ohio during the campaign. The reason he gives is that his services are not needed there by his party, and that it would inconvenience him to go, because his house at Mansfield is rented out.

According to Senator Elkins, who claims to have been a joint author of the section in question, the construction placed upon section 22 of the tariff law, imposing discriminating duties, by the opinion of Attorney General McKenna, which unquestionably represents also the opinion of President McKinley, is directly opposed to what those who amended the wording of that section of the bill while it was in conference intended. The Attorney General says the discriminating duty is not to be imposed upon importations from other countries which come through Canadian ports. That is exactly the class of importations that Mr. Elkins says the discriminating duty was intended for. The Attorney General also holds that foreign goods shipped from countries other than British possessions in British vessels are not subject to the discriminating duty.

DEFIES THE GOVERNOR.

Reply of Chairman Wilson to the Order for His Removal.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, N. C., September 24—Chairman Wilson of the Railway commission today wrote Governor Russell the following as a reply to the notice of suspension: "In reply I will say I shall disregard your order to suspend but will continue to do business at the old stand until removed by a court of competent jurisdiction and not by a self constituted star chamber."
