RULES TAMMANY.

Contest with Sheehan Ends in Crocker's Victory.

At an Executive Meeting the Differences Between the Leaders Discussed. Must all go to Work. Crocker Heads the Organization.

NEW YORK, October 5.—Richard Crocker went to Tammany Hall this afternoon and again demonstrated his absolute power in that organization. Mr. Sheehan first spoke a little piece of submission and then retired to a corner, where he was scarcely noticed by the crowd that fawned about Mr. Crocker.

Mr. Sheehan's face was gloomy. Not the faintest shadow of a smile crossed it. A meeting of the executive committee of Tammany was called for 4 p. m. The continued reports of differences between Crocker and Sheehan and the almost open defiance of many of the small leaders led Mr. Crocker to enter the wigwam again and bring the malcontents back into line. At 3:45 there was growing and muttering in the hall. Two hundred men had assembled there and all were talking of prospective break between Crocker and Sheehan.

A minute later the word was passed quickly along: "He's coming." There was a rush to the doors. John G. Sheehan did not go to the door. He sat at his desk in the back office, apparently busy with papers. Up the steps of the hall marched Crocker. The first hand stretched out to grasp his was that of Laurence Delmonico, and the next George D. McClellan's. Quickly Mr. Crocker brushed through the lobby, and without looking to right or left, entered the committee room. He did not look around for Crocker, nor rush over to greet him. He spoke to a few men as he walked along, and finally passed within a few feet of the renowned king to speak to a man beyond.

There was no applause, but a murmur went around the room. Mr. Crocker's face was cold and impassive as he arose from his chair. He did not look at Sheehan, who had gone back to his seat.

Crocker then made a telling speech that convinced his hearers of his side of the question and urged them to go into the campaign with confidence and there would be no doubt of the result.

This speech convinced those who heard him that Mr. Crocker was still the real head of the organization.

New Finds of Gold.

ST. MICHAEL'S, Alaska, Sept. 26.—The new finds of gold on Minook and Hunter creeks continue to cause excitement, and there are about six hundred miners on the ground.

In St. Michael's sugar is 25 cents a pound, shot shells 25 cents each, bacon 35 cents a pound, blanket trousers $8, cotton bandanna handkerchiefs $1 each, flour $8 a hundredweight, candles 35 cents a pound, and a small box of sardines cost 50 cents.

Six men have probably lost their lives as the result of an attempt to sail up the 1,050 miles of the Yukon, which in some places runs down at the rate of 8 miles an hour. The men, two of whom are named Abercrombie and Tate, were last seen drifting out of the mouth of the Yukon to sea. Three others in a sailboat started up the river from St. Michael's last week and have not been seen since. Their names are Matthews, Roberts and Schultz.

Deserting Tammany.

NEW YORK, October 6.—Next to Rich and Crocker there are few men of more influence in Tammany Hall than Colonel William L. Brown, a well-known newspaper publisher and former member of Congress. Colonel Brown today attacked Crocker's candidate for district attorney of New York county, Thomas F. Grady, and tendered his resignation from Tammany.

Grady's choice precipitated the recent dispute between Crocker and John G. Sheehan and has caused more unfavorable comment than that of any other candidate. Crocker has remained obstinate, however, but it is doubtful whether the pressure against Grady will not compel Crocker to yield before the convention tomorrow.

Cotton.

NEW YORK, October 6.—Sales of cotton in Liverpool and here were at advanced prices and much better tone prevails in all cotton circles. The bulls are not asserting themselves very much, but the bears are gradually covering with greater freedom, and the market creeps up a little from day to day on the increase of exports and partial reversal of sentiment, among consumers. Secretary Hester of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange gives the average weight of cotton marketed up to September 30th as 519,78 pounds as against 512,18 pounds last year corresponding time.—May & Pendleton, 45 Broadway, New York.

That the authorities are anxious to put the navy on an emergency footing is shown by the intention of Secretary Long to submit an estimate to Congress for $1,000,000 to be used in purchasing ammunition in the next fiscal year.

BALTIMORE STILL WINS.

At Exhibition Game Played at Worcester.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL.
WORCESTER, Mass., October 7.—The Boston and Baltimore base ball clubs played an exhibition game here this afternoon to a large crowd of interested spectators.

The following was the score:
Baltimore 11.
Boston 10.

Swiftest Ocean Greyhound.

PLYMOUTH, Oct. 6.—The North German Lloyd's steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, Captain Engelbart, from New York for Bremen, arrived here at 3:05 o'clock this afternoon. The time of passage from New York to Plymouth was five days, 13 hours and ten minutes. The big ship's average speed was 21.91 knots per hour and her biggest day's run was 219 knots. This beats all previous records.

TO INVITE THE PRESIDENT.

Delegation Goes to Washington to Request President McKinley to Attend State Fair.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL.
RALEIGH, N. C., October 7.—President Richard H. Battle goes to Washington, D. C., to invite President McKinley to attend the State Fair.

Gen. Cox and James E. Boyd will accompany Mr. Battle in his call on President McKinley and unite in the request.

Negro Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 6.—The President in appointing the negro, J. H. Hamfield, son-in-law of ex-Congressman Small, to the office of postmaster of Beaufort, S. C., turned down two white Republicans who were well recommended, and who are said to have been thoroughly well qualified.

It is believed that the President will on tomorrow appoint a negro postmaster of Georgetown, S. C. It is said to say from the way things look now, that within thirty days at least six negro postmasters of the Presidential class will be commissioned in South Carolina.

These postmasters have from one to four clerks under them. Much indignation is expressed in Southern circles here over the settled policy of President McKinley to put negroes in high offices in the South.

Fever Shows Increase.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 6.—Today was another record breaker for the present outbreak of yellow fever, both as to the number of new cases and deaths that were reported. The new cases numbered 38 and the deaths 5.

The increase was not unexpected. The weather has been warm and the large territory the board of health has to cover makes perfect scrutiny impossible. The number of cases under treatment is in the neighborhood of 250. The total death rate is still small in proportion to this number.

GENTLEMEN:
Enclosed find one dollar, ($1.00) for which send me by mail one dollar's worth of your Dr. Duffy's Anti-Bilious Pills. A friend of mine in Brunswick, Ga. sent me a box of them sometime since and asked me to try them, which I did, and had several others here try them and all pronounced them "wonders" and are loud in their praise of them.

Yours truly,
