SPAIN'S ANSWER

The Pacification of Cuba Would Have Been More Rapid But For Filibusters.

MADRID, October 12.—It is semi-officially announced that the reply of Spain to the note presented by the United States minister, Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, has been drafted by the minister for foreign affairs, Senor Gullon, and will be submitted to the cabinet at its meeting tomorrow. The reply, it is stated, will say that Spain is unable to fix exactly the date when the war will be over, but the ministers are persuaded it will not be long, because "the situation of the rebels is critical and the efforts of the Spanish troops are sure of success. Owing to the rebel situation and the concession of autonomy, administrative and economic, which will be effective before January, the government hopes actual hostilities will finish shortly."

Spain, it is continued, thinks the reforms and the activity of the Spanish troops are sufficient elements to secure the immediate pacification of the island, which it is asserted, "would have been more rapid if the rebels had not had the succor of filibusters, who, under the shelter of the American flag have contributed to maintain this state of affairs."

United States Minister Woodford was received in audience by the Queen Regent this afternoon, the reception being of the most cordial character.

Distress in Ireland.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Timothy Healy, anti-Parnellite member of Parliament for North Louth, who has just returned from a cycling tour in Ireland, says in the course of an interview:

"The potatoes are generally bad, but all the crops have been saved where the farmers had the sense or the money to spray them. No doubt there will be keen distress in the southwestern and western counties during the coming winter and spring. In some places it may approach starvation."

Mr. Healy admitted that there had been some exaggeration of the difficulty, as he said: "The fact that the landlords belittle the stories of death make the other side more insistent in order to get a hearing."

He expressed the hope that the recent improved weather had partially saved the situation.

Stories of Gold.

SEATTLE, WASH., October 12.—John F. Maloney, of Juneau, Alaska, who has arrived here from Dawson City, said today in an interview:

"Hunker creek and Gold Bottom creek it is conceded, will equal, if not surpass the now famous Bonanza and Eldorado creeks. Especially in this true of Hunker creek. Location No. 33 on that creek is among the richest in the Klondike district. Many of the claims will run $2,000 to the box."

On No. 30 Eldorado, Alex. McDonald's claim, one man in a shift and a half, which is about 12 hours, shovelled in $30,000. On Skookum Gutch, which enters Bonanza No. 2, (above discovery,) I saw $30,000 weighed out of two box lengths."

Mr. Maloney says he saw a sixteen quart brass kettle filled with gold dust in the cabin of R. T. Dinmore, Harry Spence, Wm. McFee and others. No. 31 Bonanza, owned by Oscar Ashley and Wm. Leske, will produce $1,000,000.

Ten days after a boat had gone down the river, taking gold, the North American Trading and Transportation Company had a quarter of a million in its safe at Dawson. This shows how rapidly the gold accumulates. Mr. Maloney said that over $2,000,000 will be taken out of the ground in the Klondike this autumn.

"There are stacks and stacks of gold," he said. "Alexander Donald will mine the largest amount. I hesitate to give figures, but the simple truth is that his various interests will yield from $2,000,000 to $4,000,000 the coming winter. These figures are staggering, but true."

The statement is made that Henry Bratton, agent for the Rothschilds, who has been several weeks at the diggings, offered over a million dollars for ten claims on the Eldorado creek, but the offer was declined. Mr. Maloney offered $30,000 for a half interest in the claims No. 35 and 36, on Eldorado, which offer was also declined.

Charles Anderson, on claim No. 33, Eldorado creek, panned out $700 in three hours. This was on August 18, James Tweed, in two hours, shoveling on 30 Eldorado, cleaned up 232 ounces of gold.

Will Retire From Bench.

Special to Journal. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 13.—The friends of Chief Justice Field, say he will announce his retirement from the Supreme Court bench.

A BATTLE WITH SHEEPMEN.

Settlers Attack Their Camp and Four of the Combatants Are Killed.

FOCATELLO, IDAHO, October 12.—News just received from Long Valley, Washington county, is to the effect that there has been a battle between the settlers and the sheep men, in which four men were killed and one was dangerously wounded. Details are meagre, but it seems that fifteen settlers warned the sheep men to leave the valley, and when they refused made an attack upon the sheep camp.

Thirty shots were fired by the settlers, and a man named Barber was killed. The sheep men then returned fire, killing three settlers. The others of the attacking party fled.

The trouble is the outgrowth of the strained relations that have existed in that section between the settlers and sheep men for some time. It is not an uncommon thing for stock to be maimed and haystacks to be burned, and even for settlers and sheep men to exchange shots but no one heretofore has been killed in this way.

A Washington special to the New York Herald says: Associate Justice Stephen Johnson Field, of the United States Supreme Court, has made formal application to President McKinley to be retired from the bench under the law allowing members of that court to be retired when seventy five years old.

The municipal election in Chattanooga, Tenn., resulted in the overwhelming defeat of the Republicans. Colonel Ed. Watkins, (Dem.) was elected Mayor by 995 majority. Colonel Watkins is a leading lawyer and promoter. The Democrats elected six out of the eight Aldermen. This city is normally Republican by from 400 to 500, and the overwhelming reversal of the conditions is due to apathy of the Republican voters and the disaffection of the negroes.

Tuesday night at 10 o'clock the Republicans of Indianapolis had conceded the election of Mayor Taggart (Dem.) by 5,000, and the rest of the Democratic ticket from by 3,000 to 4,000. It is hard to figure gains and losses on account of the recent changes. Ex-President Harrison's precinct shows a large Democratic gain. In fact, the Democrats made heavy gains in Republican strongholds.

The Gil Blas says a German was arrested at the camp of Chalons and that, upon being searched, the authorities found upon him notes regarding the organization and mobilization of the French troops at the camp. The prisoner was also said to have endeavored to obtain specimens of the cartridges and shells of the latest design.

The circular of the Turkish government sent to the Powers on the subject of the Island of Crete proposes the disarmament of both Christians and Muslims by Ottoman troops, co-operating with the international forces, all to be commanded by a European general in the Turkish viceroy, the appointment of a governor of Crete by the Sultan and the formation of a gendarmerie corps. In conclusion the circular points out the necessity of immediate action.

Sir William Henry Houldsworth, Bart., conservative, member of Parliament for the Northwest Division of Manchester, who was the delegate of Great Britain at the monetary conference held at Brussels in 1892, presided at a large meeting here, at which a resolution was adopted calling upon the government "in view of the injurious effects of the dislocation between gold and silver" to take advantage of the overtures of France and the United States and "redeem the government's promise in regard to securing a stable parity between gold and silver."

YELLOW FEVER.

Continues at All Points. Weather Remains Unfavorable.

MOBILE, Ala., October 12.—Three new cases of yellow fever were brought to light in the past twenty-four hours. No deaths have occurred in the past forty-eight hours.

NEW ORLEANS, October 13.—The fever situation grew no worse here today. But at the same time there is no rift yet showing through the clouds and the promise is not bright for an immediate reopening of the avenues of industry. Daylight had hardly come this morning before two deaths had been announced, but no other fatalities had gone down on the books when night fell. The cases today are, as usual, widely scattered and have increased somewhat the total number of cases under treatment, but at the same time there have been a large num-
