WHAT WILSON SAYS.

That Butler and Russell Have Made a Political Deal.

Many Events During Fair Week. Opera Company in Raleigh. New Charters, Insurance. Loss at Durham. The Telegraph Rate.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 16. Otho Wilson says that he can prove that there is an agreement between Senator Butler and Gov. Russell, that the latter shall be the vice presidential candidate on the ticket with W. J. Bryan in 1900.

Many people are already arriving to attend the State fair and the outlook is that there will be a great crowd. Of amusements there will be many. There will be balls every evening, those by the Euphrosyne club, two by the Capital club and the Marshall ball at the Yharbo.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. B. Stronachs last evening celebrated their silver wedding by holding a reception, at which the attendance was notably large.

Mr. Albert Massey, son of Prof. W. F. Massey, sailed for New York yesterday for Brazil, to be absent a year.

The Wilbur opera company the finest organization of its kind here in many years will appear all next week at the Academy of Music. It makes its first appearance in the South. It opens its season Monday evening with "Said Paucha."

The Secretary of the State charters the Albemarle Telephone Company of Stanley county; the Pamlico tobacco manufacturing company of Washington, E. W. Ayers, A. W. Styron and Thomas P. Howard incorporated; also the Citizens co-operation grocery company of Raleigh. The last is composed of about 100, railway employes mainly.

Out of 183 cotton mills in this State which spin and weave 200 have sent in reports showing a daily consumption of 325,000 lbs.

The only loss by a North Carolina insurance company by the Durham fire was $450 on a dwelling.

Work begins next week on the grading of the Southern railway's new short line between Mocksville and Mooresville.

There is much popular interest in next week's important meeting of the penitentiary board.

The railway commission files its answer to the Western Union Telegraph company in the injunction process, and sets forth in a mass of figures that the company's message rates are far too high that it is making enormous profits, &c. The company is making a big fight to prevent the reduction of its day message rate to 15 cents, as ordered by the commission.

Another Japanese student arrived at the Agricultural and Mechanical college, yesterday, to the great delight of the one already there.

GEN. FITZHUGH LEE.

Has Something to Say About the Senatorship. Miss Cianeros Praised.

RICHMOND, Va., October 15.—Gen. Fitz Lee was asked today if he cared to say anything about the report that he and his friends have perfected an organization to advance his candidacy for the United States Senate, in opposition to Mr. Martin. The consul-general had nothing to say on that subject. He pleaded ignorance of the existence of such an organization in his interests.

He, however, expressed surprise at finding upon his return to Virginia so much local encouragement. "The position which I hold," said General Lee, "by request from a Republican administration prevents my taking an active part in State politics for the present, and, indeed, until I get through with the consular generalship of Cuba, I have been requested to speak in the present campaign, but this I could not agree to."

"Well, then," ventured the interviewer; "you as much intimated that when you have laid aside the duties of that office you will be a candidate for the seat now held by Senator Martin?"

The General smiled and shrugged his shoulders, as he replied: "It looks that way."

General Lee said the rescue from a Cuban prison of Miss Cianeros was one requiring great courage both on the part of the lady and her rescuers. "I think," said General Lee, "Miss Cianeros, in doing what she did, showed supreme courage. But," he continued, "every one of these Cuban women with whom I have met I have found to be as brave as lions."

The Chief of Detectives at Chicago and his force have captured four men, who, they say, are among the most successful and daring burglars in the United States. Twenty-five thousand dollars' worth of stolen property is in the hands of the police awaiting identification.

PANIC IN A THEATRE.

Dome of Robinson Opera House. Cincinnati, Falls, Killing Three and Injuring Many.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15.—As a performance at Robinson's Opera House was in progress about 8:30 o'clock tonight the plaster began to fall from the centre of the domed ceiling, 50 feet above the heads of the people in the orchestra. This continued three minutes, causing a panic and a rush from the house.

The theatre and galleries had been partly emptied when the dome, with its supporting timbers and trusses, came tumbling down. The dome extended across the opera house and was about thirty feet wide. When it fell the ends struck both sides of the gallery, crushing it and scattering timbers in every direction, finally landing in the centre of the orchestra.

Three persons were killed and thirty-three more or less severely injured. Many suffered slight injuries, but were able to go to their homes.

POLITICAL FAVORS.

Asked of Democrats by Republican Office Seekers.

Russell's Hand in Wilmington's Municipal Affairs. Mayor Wright Must go. Cotton Business. A Fine Hotel. Wilmingtonian Honored.

WILMINGTON, Oct. 16th.

It would seem as if this city must be forever in the throes of some political convulsion, and yet with the varied experiences of the Democrats, they seem to profit nothing, but keep on making mistakes.

Anything which savors of trafficking with the enemy is a mistake, and Democracy is in its present position, outside of office, because it has done this thing.

And now it looks like more of the same thing, for leading Republicans, would be incumbents of the Postoffice and Custom House, are asking leading and influential Democrats to sign their petitions, favoring their appointment to these positions.

The aspirants for these offices are George French and W. H. Chadbourne, respectively. It is no question as to the ability of these gentlemen, but there is a stir among Democrats over this petition business.

One reason these Republicans are seeking Democratic endorsement is because of the local split here. The Russell faction being dead set against the Wright faction who are now in control of Municipal affairs.

And for this reason, because Governor Russell is antagonistic to Mayor Wright, it is said that Mayor Wright expects to lose his suit, and this municipality will go back to the control of the Harris crowd.

In years past, Russell to an extent permitted local matters very often to drift to favorites, and those who know say he cares little about holding Wilmington, if letting its control go means political annihilation to some personal enemy. In this instance it means Mayor Wright.

Our cotton business keeps up a trade here that would be immense, if the price was higher.

It takes a good many thousand bales of cotton to make figures that a few years ago a very much less number would have amounted to.

The friends of Sol Weill are greatly pleased over his advancement in New York, the latest being his nomination as Assembly man on the Tammany ticket. It will not be long before he becomes a Sachem in Tammany's councils.

That most delicious bird, the coot, is again in the market, and epicures are enjoying themselves.

The present weather, with the temperature during the day in the eighties, is not foot ball weather, but team work is going on and Wilmington will be in the fight with any team of the State.

The Orton Hotel keeps up a fine business and its management deserve the trade, for the hotel is giving a cuisine and general hotel service that every traveler greatly enjoys.

Our city is truly "by the sea" these days, for the dry season has brought salt water to our very docks.

There are intimations in some quarters that John C. Dancy may again be made collector of this port.

North Carolina Negroes Call a Convention for Nov. 3rd.

Grievances Set Forth in an Address. They Demand the Offices that They Think Their Votes Entitles Them to. Result of Fasion.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, October 16.—A call was issued tonight signed by forty negroes for a convention to be held in this city on November 3rd.

The object of the convention is to set forth their race grievances in regard to the division of offices between them and the Republican and Populist allies.

The address issued by which the convention is called states that the negroes of North Carolina cast one hundred and twenty thousand votes and got for their share only one State clerkship with a salary of $1,200 and ten postmasters, making a total of but $4,500.

In contrast to this, the address states, the white Republicans and the Populists are getting one million six hundred and one thousand dollars in offices.

The negroes issuing the call are all well known among that race. The address concludes with the following expression towards the white members of their party: "Those fellows are simply making fools of us and fattening at our expense."

Col. Jose Zayas, who says he is accredited by the Palma Giran Junta, of New York, as minister plenipotentiary to Great Britain from the Cuban republic in an interview is quoted as expressing the belief that the war in Cuba will not last another year. Spain, says Colonel Zayas, can not finance the campaign, and should have accepted the insurgents' offer of $150,000,000 for the island under the guarantee of the United States.

Miss Maude Gardner Badgley, twenty-two years old, employed as a clerk in the general land office at Washington, committed suicide by jumping from the coping of the bridge over Cabin John run to the ravine below the bridge, a distance of about 125 feet. She left the department about 10 o'clock in the morning and took a car to Cabin John. She left the car and walked to the centre of the bridge, where she climbed the coping and before anyone could reach her had jumped off. Her address was found in a book which she carried.
