Great Crowds in Attendance at the State Fair.

Some Fine Exhibits. Circus in the City. Mrs. Vance in Raleigh. Confederate Veterans Day. Farmers Alliance.

JOURNAL BUREAU. RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 19.
Of course all interest centres today in the State Fair. All yesterday the trains brought immense crowds to the city. Chief Marshal Leybrook with his long line of assistant marshals formed his procession in front of the Yarboro House and moved at 11 o'clock. At noon the Fair was regularly opened by Governor Russell.

"Grimes" Battery 45 strong from Portsmouth, Va., came today and are the special guests of the Governor's Guard.
The Vanderbilt exhibit is a specially fine one in every department of cattle, poultry and farm products.
Out just beyond the Fair grounds about 1:30 this morning there was quite a fire, and a large barn, two horses, a mule, carriages, and forage were totally destroyed.

The Western N. C. Baptist convention are proposing to join the North Carolina convention, and Mr. N. B. Broughton has gone to find out upon what terms they propose to join.

Dr. Parker has finished holding farmers' institutes in 23 counties. He says no politics were discussed. He gave 2 days to each institute.
Prof. Kilgo of Durham has raised quite a stir by a sermon and lecture he delivered here on Sunday. He and Superintendent of Public Instruction Melane with Editor J. W. Bailey of the Biblical Recorder have gone to Elizabeth City to speak on education.

The anti-Butler Populists who are to hold a convention here on October 21 say that there is much enthusiasm over the step.
The Young Men's Republican League of clubs which is to meet here tonight will fight a proposed resolution endorsing Russell and his course. Pritchard as well as Russell has many strong friends in these Leagues. Senator Pritchard and his private secretary Hyams have gone to Omaha on civil service business.

Robinson and Franklin Bros. big circus here today drove in large crowds here today. The usual circus rain began to fall gently about 10 o'clock. The clouds look heavy so there is a bad outlook from the weather point.
The Board of Agriculture, met this morning and after inspecting the handsome oak furniture which was made for the museum, accepted it.

Mrs. Z. B. Vance comes here tomorrow to be present when the portrait of Senator Vance, with Lane and Burgwyn are presented at the Fair grounds.
Tomorrow is Confederate Veterans Day at the Fair. There is to be a meeting of the State Association and officers are to be elected.
The State Dairymen's Association meets this evening in the Capital in annual session.

Bank Examiner Crowder returned to day from the west where he examined 17 banks. All were in good condition.
There were three good races at the Fair grounds today. The Fair being in the circuit for races there are good horses entered.

There is to be a meeting of the executive committee of the N. C. State Farmers' Alliance tomorrow. The Progressive Farmer, the Alliance paper says that the Alliance is rising. The shoe factory project is to be discussed.

New York Mayorality Fight.
NEW YORK, October 18.—The campaign will be in full swing this week. Low will speak every night, and probably George will do the same. Tracy will speak as often as he is able. Van Wyck has not yet been heard, and wonder has been expressed at his slowness in taking the stump. One reason is that he is not a forcible speaker; and he knows it. Another is that the Democrats are so confident that they do not think it really necessary to hold any but small meetings.

The supporters of Van Wyck are still offering odds of two to one on him in almost any sum without takers. It is probable that the odds will fall to three to one before the end of this week. Richard Croker has placed thousands of dollars in the hands of friends to be wagered for him at 2 to 1.

The World has completed its poll of the Mayorality preference of Greater New York voters, having obtained 170, 458 ballots. Of these Van Wyck, Tammany, has 59,560; Seth Low, Citizens Union, 40,017; Henry George, Jefferson Democrat, 34,927; General Tracy, Republican, 27,780; Patrick Gleason, Independent, 9044.

General Leo no longer conceals the fact that he will be a candidate for the United States Senate against Mr. Martin.

Shortly after July, 4th 1776 the British lion made an unpleasant discovery. The American revolution exploded under his nose and he hasn't yet succeeded in getting his face straight.

We would like to explode this ad right under the nose of everybody who has not yet discovered that "COOLA HEADACHE POWDERS" are a specific for Headaches.
