Opinion in Washington That Van Wyck is Winner.

Henry George Has Talked Too Much. Offer of the Bethlehem Iron Co. Rocking Chairs in France. President Firm on Civil Service.

JOURNAL BUREAU: WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.

Never before was so much interest displayed in Washington in a municipal campaign as is shown in the New York city contest. Each of the quartette of candidates has staunch supporters in Washington who are always ready to talk in their favor and to show what great benefits would certainly follow the election of the man they favor. Nearly all of the prominent officers of the government, from the President down, have made known their preference for Gen. Tracy, but so far the administration has taken no steps indicating any intention to play any more active part in the campaign, notwithstanding the accusations which have been made against it by Gen. Tracy's opponents. While sentiment in Washington is divided among all the candidates, nine out of every ten are opposed to Van Wyck, the Tammany candidate, will, after talking up their favorite, add, "but I do not see how it is possible to beat Van Wyck." Betting men are offering three to one on Van Wyck without being able to get takers. Many believe that Low and Tracy together will get enough votes to win, if they were all cast for one man, instead of being more or less evenly divided between them as they will be if they both remain in the field, and there is nothing in sight to indicate that either will withdraw. If George's candidacy has lost prestige in New York to the same extent it has in Washington, his total vote will be many thousands short of what was indicated when his candidacy was first announced. Mr. George has done some ingenious talking himself, but his greatest drawbacks have been the work of fool-friends.

There has been much talk in Washington concerning the eleventh hour offer of the Bethlehem Iron Co., of Bethlehem Pa., to sell its entire works to the government. Of course nobody seriously believes the company wishes to sell out to the government; its offer is intended to throw a damper upon the project of the establishment of a big armor-making plant by the government, and to operate in some way to help to persuade Congress to pay the price charged by this company and the Carnegie Co. for making armor plate for our naval vessels. The offer is probably made at this time so that it can be included in annual report of the Secretary of the Navy, which is expected to contain some recommendations concerning the starting of a government armor-making plant. If the offer doesn't make any more impression upon Congress than it has made upon Washington officials it will fall of its own accord.

American women will be interested in a portion of an official report received by the Department of State from the acting U. S. Consul at Marseilles, France. The report says that the acting Consul doubts whether, outside of the city of Paris, there are 100 rocking chairs in all France, and knowing the fondness of the American women for that more or less comfortable piece of furniture, he suggests that American manufacturers might find it profitable to introduce rocking chairs to the French women.

It was made plain at the last Cabinet meeting that President McKinley regarded his civil service order, that no employe in the classified service should be removed except upon written charges and after having been given an opportunity to refute the charges, binding upon the heads of departments, and an understanding was reached that regulations to carry it out in all branches of the government service should at once be adopted. It has been carried out from the day it was issued in the Treasury Department, notwithstanding the decision of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia that the appointing power had the power to remove persons from the classified service without giving reasons therefor. It is said to have been ignored by the Post Office Department to a greater extent than in any of the other government departments.

Butler Organizing the Populists For a New Campaign.

Skinner Has His Gathering. Cotton Mill Men Coming. Another Fire. The Double Wonder. Moonshiners Plentiful. R. R. Commission.

JOURNAL BUREAU: RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.

The marriage of Congressman Thomas Settle of Greensboro and Miss Ediza Potter of Wilmington is announced to take place at St. James Church on the 18th of November. Lt. Douglas Settle U. S. A. will be best man and Miss Sallie Potter maid of honor.

The State Horticultural Society has re-elected John Van Lindley president.

The New England cotton mill men will start soon on their Southern tour. Raleigh will be one of the cities visited and a cordial welcome will be extended them.

There was quite a fire here yesterday morning when a large four story brick building was completely gutted. It was used as a storage house and there was no insurance on the house nor contents. The loss was $9,500.

Col. Francis M. Parker of Littleton was elected president of the Confederate Veterans Association; George T. Dean of Pittsboro, Vice-president and C. B. Denison of Raleigh, Secretary. The legislature at its next session will be asked to increase the appropriation to the Soldiers Home. The amount now given annually is $8,500. There are now 57 inmates, but many more have applied for admission.

The rain is falling in torrents and the State Fair is scarcely to see many today. Yesterday in spite of the dampness and mud there were fully 10,000 persons on the grounds, and today promised to go over that, until this ceaseless rain began to fall at 9:30 o'clock. There are more side shows and fairs than ever before at a fair. These freaks drew well. Millie Christine the double bodied negro woman is in need a wonder. She and her maid and manager (both white) are stopping at the Park Hotel. Even though she is a freak many cannot over look that she is not white, and look with disfavor upon the hotel giving her accommodations.

Senator Butler and the members of the Populist State Executive committee met in private conference last night. Campaign plans were discussed and the Caucus endorsed. The next campaign is to be a fight against corporations, particularly railroads.

Congressman Skinner is here and gathered a few anti-Butler Populists in caucus. There were too few to transact any business.

George Vanderbilt took 70 prizes at the State Fair, besides the $100 special prize for the best agricultural display.

Raleigh township has ordered 500 car loads of granite from the grey stone quarries to be used on the roads. The city will get sidewalk curbing from quarries in Rowan. Much will be prepared here.

Col. John S. Cunningham of Person county has been elected President of the N. C. State Agricultural Association.

There are many moonshiners through the county. They trust to the present administration not to trouble them.

The R. R. Commissioners today had a conference with Governor's attorneys regarding the application of the Western Union Telegraph Co. for the remanding of its case from the Federal court back to the commission. There are injunction proceedings pending in this case.

The Southern Railway has paid $10,110 for rights of way for its Mooreville Mocksville link in Rowan.

Otho Wilson says in his newspaper that Senator Butler and Gov. Russell have already jointly written the Populist platform for N. C. in 1898.

Latest News Items.

The British Steamer Wastewater, from Savannah, for Bremen, has put in at Halifax, N. S., with her cargo of cotton on fire. Smoking bales are being removed while water in being pumped in the hold.

Senator Tillman, the South Carolina freeloader, will not be heard or seen any more in the Senate Chamber, if what a South Carolinian tells is true. He says Senator has a fatal malady, supposed to be Bright's disease.

The centennial of the launching of the frigate Constitution, "Old Ironsides," was observed at Boston with a mass-meeting in Old South Church and a naval parade.

The yellow fever situation improved to some extent at New Orleans. There had been but two fatalities reported to the board of health for the day. The weather this morning was cool, and reports from below New Orleans are to the effect that there was a light frost last night.

According to intimations dropped at the White House and the Interior Department today the probability now is that, unless the President should unexpectedly change his mind, General Hampton and the office of Railroad Commissioner will go out together before many months longer. General Longstreet has counted on getting the office but will be disappointed if the office is abolished.

ANOTHER FAILURE.

The National Bank of Asheville Closes its Doors.

The Third Bank Failure in Asheville. Only One Bank Left in the City. Had a Paid up Capital of $100,000.

Special to Journal.

RALEIGH, N. C., October 22—This afternoon news reached this city that the National Bank of Asheville had closed its doors. Treasurer Worth was notified of the failure.

Three bank failures in succession have occurred in Asheville, and this last collapse leaves only the Battery Park Bank, the only one there.

The bank examiner would have examined this bank within the next two weeks.

The bank had a paid up capital of $100,000. The president is W. T. Weaver; the vice-president is T. W. Davidson and the cashier is W. B. Williamson.

Major Wm. H. Garland, of Boston, who was a powder boy on the Constitution in her famous battle with the Guerriere, was present to the audience, and Governor Welcott led in three cheers for the veteran.

At a session of the National Spiritualist Association in Washington resolutions were adopted looking to the "liberation of women," setting forth that they had been kept long enough in the position of "infranchised or idiots," and helped for centuries to build up homes without having partnership.
