SELF HELP THE BEST HELP.

The visit of the members of the New England Cotton Manufacturers Association to the different cotton manufacturing centres of the South, is suggestive in its way, of what could be done by the citizens of New Berne.

Not that this city has any cotton mills to show to New England people, but there are most favorable openings for the establishment of mills to manufacture cotton in New Berne.

The coming of these New England people to the South as guests of the railroads, and of the commercial bodies in the different cities which they visit, ought to prove suggestive to the citizens of New Berne, and cause them to make an effort to bring to New Berne and vicinity, those people who are looking for truck and tobacco lands, and who are seeking new homes.

The visit here just now of persons from other sections of North Carolina, who are going to take land for the purpose of cultivating tobacco, should provoke the query, which can easily be answered, why should not New Berne, that is its leading citizens, endeavor this winter to bring here parties from outside places, both in North Carolina and other States?

There are hundreds of families in this and other States, if they knew of the possibilities of this section would surely come, buy land and settle here.

This is what New Berne needs to assist its tobacco trade, new comers who are familiar with tobacco culture, and who are seeking new homes.

In the further promotion and building up of the tobacco business which has already been started in New Berne, home brains and home money must bear an important part.

No better, easier or more successful method can be employed towards this end, than by bringing the New Berne section before the people who want just such a field for their future operations, and who if shown the advantages here, will come at once and make their home with us.

At this season of the year the opportunity for promoting New Berne's interests is the best, and especially should this matter of bringing in new people, who will farm intelligently and assist in bringing forth the development of our lands, be sought.

This is a matter of vital importance to every merchant of New Berne, for new people, who shall be producers of tobacco, or any of the crops which can be grown successfully in this section, means an increased trade for them.

Self help is the best kind of help and the citizens of New Berne should put it into force at once.

Let New Berne show her advantages to the home seeker and investor.

The Confederates' Part.
The Nashville American says: "The part which the surviving Confederate soldiers living in and about Nashville played in the centennial celebration cannot be passed by without notice. These heroes in gray took part in the parades and did their share of entertaining the stranger within the gates, inspired only by the motives of patriotism and public spirit, and without any hope or thought that their acts would in any way be rewarded. The Confederate Veterans is an organization which can gain no new recruits. Every year the hand of time is thinning its membership and swelling the great membership of that noble army which is resting 'over the river in shade of the trees.' It was pure patriotism which brought the grizzled veterans of the Confederacy from their homes to march in the processions which wended their way to the centennial grounds. They showed the young generation, that those who once fought under the stars and bars can now carry a musket under the stars and stripes. The old Confederates always do their share and wherever they appeared during the past six months, as at all other times, they were cheered to the echo."

A Great Magazine Feature

The Ladies Home Journal has secured what promises to be the great magazine feature of 1898. It is entitled "The Inner Experiences of a Cabinet Member's Wife." In a series of letters written by the wife of Cabinet member to her sister at home, are detailed her actual experiences in Washington, frankly and freely given. The letters were written without any intention of publication. They give intimate peeps behind the curtain of high official and social life. They are absolutely fearless, they study Washington life under the searchlight as it has never been before presented.

The "Experiences," which will be beautifully illustrated, begin in the December number and will continue for several months.

For over two years I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism, affecting both shoulders to such an extent that I could not put my coat on without help. The use of six bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, B. B. B., effected an entire cure. I refer to Rev. W. W. Wadsworth, proprietor Coweta Advertiser, and to all merchants of Newnan.

A Train of Blackguards.

In many of the great cities of Europe whenever a great festival is about to take place all the questionable and suspicious characters are "urged" by the police to take a few days' airing in the country and to disappear for a time from their accustomed haunts. This is found preferable to putting them under lock and key.

In Petersburg and Moscow and in Vienna those who do not leave of their own accord on being thus pressed are shipped off by the police in a special train, and Japan has recently adopted the same excellent custom.

Now, whenever a popular pageant is about to take place the Soshi-no-Kisha, or "train of blackguards," may be seen steaming away into the country with its freight of known and suspected malefactors.

Then She Fainted.
Nice (showing the wedding presents to Uncle Tom)—I wanted you to see them all, dear Uncle Tom, so that you won't send a duplicate. Duplicate wedding presents are very annoying, you know.
Uncle Tom—H'm. What's this?
Nice—That's papa's check for $500. Isn't it lovely?
Uncle Tom—Very. I intended to send you the same thing, but rather than annoy you with a duplicate present I'll send £100.—London Answers.

Good Advice to Follow.

Somebody gives the following anti-theft advice: "Drink less, breathe more; eat less, chew more; ride less, walk more; clothe less, bathe more; worry less, work more; waste less, give more; write less, read more; preach less, practice more."

Set of Remarkable Pastors.

As fasters the sect of Jains, in India, are far ahead of all rivals. Fasts of from 30 to 40 days are very common, and once a year they are said to abstain from food for 75 days.

Three Valuable Books Given Away.

"ART AND FANCY WORK," "NURSERY RHYMES," "HOME DYING."
Mrs. Nella Daggett, editor of THE HOME, has published a new edition of her popular book, Fancy Work and Art Decorations, that gives practical instructions for making dollies, table covers, scarfs, tray cloths, pin cushions, etc. with fifty illustrations. This book, together with "Nursery Rhymes" (a 16 page pamphlet with a handsome colored cover design of the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe), and "Successful Home Dyeing," will be sent free to any reader of THE JOURNAL who forwards the following coupon to Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt.

COUPON.
This entitles any reader of the New Berne JOURNAL to one copy of "Fancy Work and Art Decorations," "Nursery Rhymes" and "Successful Home Dyeing."

The above liberal offer is made to advertise the old reliable Diamond Dyes, and to get their books upon home dyeing into the hands of women who want to dress well by making their old clothing look like new.
Diamond Dyes have special dyes for cotton, different from those that are used for wool, and are the only package dyes on the market that can be relied upon to give colors that will not fade or crock. The fact that Diamond Dyes have been the standard home dye for nearly twenty years and their sale increases from year to year, is proof positive that they have never had an equal.
