X-Ray Treatment at Wake Forest. Lists of Federal Soldiers. Deal in Rice. Cold Weather. Evangelist Sings Raleigh.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 12.

The meeting of the stockholders of the S. A. L. systems here yesterday did not run altogether too smoothly. The old board of directors of the R. and G. division were re-elected with one exception. W. W. Fuller was elected in the place of W. R. Tucker who was put on the board of directors of the Sea Board. The directors then met and elected all the old officers. Mr. Winder and Mr. Hutchinson of N. Y. objected in the stockholders meeting to any officer voting his individual stock or voting any proxies. They voted 21 shares. On a poll of the stock these gentlemen were out rated on this motion.

There were good photographs by means of the X rays taken of Mrs. Watson's body at Wake Forest. As soon as these are developed it is hoped the bullet will be located in such a position that she can be successfully operated upon. She stood the trip out there very well.

It is again said that Judge Dick of Greensboro will retire from the U. S. Court bench, and that he will either be succeeded by Judge Douglass of the N. C. Supreme Court Bench or by Capt. Cass. Price of Salisbury.

There has been published a list of federal soldiers in the different cemeteries in this State. There are 1,211 in the cemetery here of which 629 are known and 572 unknown. In Salisbury 102 are known and 12,035 unknown; 717 known and 1,577 unknown in Wilmington, and 2,212 known and 1,091 unknown in the New Berne Cemetery.

There is said to be a deal in rice. It is reported that the Goldsboro Rice mills have purchased 40,000 bushels of rice including all the lowland crop around Wilmington.

The jump of 23 points on the cotton market yesterday caused quite a hustle on the market here.

Senator Butler is quoted as follows in a speech he made in Rocky Mount a few days ago: "If colored men commit outrages, the Democrats pretend to be terribly shocked in public, but when they get behind a wall they laugh until they grow fat, and if the outrages are not frequent enough, they hire worthless negroes to commit them." After such an utterance as that how can he be commended by any one holding any feeling of decency.

Mr. Frederick Woolcott's clothing and general merchandise establishment yesterday made an assignment. Mr. Wm. Woolcott was named as trustee.

Pluck of the Pullman Boys.

CHICAGO, Ill., November 11—George M. Pullman and his brother Sanger, sons of the late railway millionaire, are determined to make their way in the world by their own efforts.

Their father's will cut them off with an allowance of about $3,000 a year each but it was given out that if they showed to the satisfaction of the other members of the family that they had business ability, and were willing to drop their bad habits, and make the kind of men their father wished them to be, they would come in for a share of the large estate.

This will has changed the lives of the young men. They had a long conference with Robert T. Lincoln, who plainly told them what was expected. The result is that the young men have gone to work for the Pullman Company in positions but little removed from that of laborers. They are doing yard work at present, and the pay is small, George receiving about $50 a month and Sanger $45.

They have to take things as they come, do not have precedence over any other employe, must obey the rules as well as the others, and will receive promotions in their turn. They told Mr. Lincoln that they proposed to begin at the bottom of the ladder and work up, the same as any other employe of the company.

JINGOES NOWHERE.

President's Message in Cuba Likely to Squelch Them.

Senator Caffery However Thinks War is Coming. Doesn't Want the Island. No Chance for Little Politicians. Hampton on Railroads.

JOURNAL BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.

There will be consternation in the ranks of the Jingoes, if a prominent gentleman, who has before now given out correct advance tips on official actions, spoke from actual knowledge when discussing the probable trend of the President's message on Cuban matters. He was not speaking for publication, but to several friends, when he said: "The President's message will deal fully and frankly with affairs in Cuba, and I shall not be surprised if he tells Congress plainly that there is not the slightest reason to be found in the existing situation why this country should meddle in Cuban affairs, further than may be necessary to protect American citizens and their interests."

Senator Caffery, of La., who is altogether opposed to war, predicts that the Jingoes in this country and the fools in Spain will involve the two countries in war. "The President," he said, "will try to please everybody, but presently he will find that the Jingo pressure is the strongest and will be swept by it. If he undertakes to throw the responsibility upon Congress there is no question as to the result. The Senate will pass resolutions of belligerence and independence and everything else with a whoop, for we have lots of warriors in the Senate; and I do not believe Reed will be able to hold back the Honors. Outside of Congress, too, the war feeling is strong. In the south 100,000 men could be raised in a few days." The Senator thus expressed his own opinion. "I cannot imagine for a moment why we should embroil ourselves on account of Cuba. If we secured independence for the Cubans they would have revolutions four times a month, and if we undertook to annex the island we would find the cost greater than all the islands in the Caribbean Sea are worth. If the decision were left to me, we would never fight on account of Cuba."

The small fry politicians have had no show at all to get at the President this week, owing to the presence in Washington of an unusual number of political big game, and to the President's having begun work upon his usual message to Congress.

Indian Commissioner Jones has a habit of personally looking after matters connected with his department that is commendable, even if he doesn't please some who prefer to deal with subordinates. This week he started for Indian Territory where he intends looking into the work of the Dawes Commission and other matters, and while away he will also visit some of the Indian agencies in the nearby States.

The annual report of General Wash Hampton, who has just retired from the office of commissioner of Railroads to make room for Gen. Longstreet, throws cold water on the recent sale of Union Pacific Railroad by arguing that a settlement more advantageous to the government could have been obtained by the appointment of a commission authorized to negotiate with both the Union and Central Pacific Railroads. Gen. Hampton opposes either government ownership or supervision of railroads, declaring both to be doubtful and dangerous experiments.

Increasing the Light Threefold at Half the Cost of Ordinary Gas Light.

The "Sunlight" Company

IS WORKING UNDER ITS OWN PATENTS AND IS NO INFRINGEMENT. . . .

What the Philadelphia Times says:

"The 'Sunlight' Lamp is said to be entirely superior to the Weibachs Light as it gives a more natural color to objects, and does not create the ghastly appearance that the Weibach Light does. It is furthermore worthy of note that the 'Sunlight' Gas Lamp Mantle will last twice as long as any other and that it will increase the light at one half the cost for gas."

The "Sunlight" Light is brilliant, mellow, and gives all objects in their natural color, resting instead of straining the eye.
