RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 13. Federal Court adjourned here on this morning, and Judge Purnell goes to Charlotte to hold court for Judge Dick. He will hold a short adjourned term of court here the first week in January.

The Hypnotists will tonight put a man to sleep, then place him in a big show window in one of the large stores here where he is to sleep for 48 hours. This is novel advertising for the firm even if the sleeper be a fake. There is a law in a good many States prohibiting the practice of hypnotism, and it should be made a law all over the country.

CUBA TO BE FREE.

No End of the Revolution in Sight. Spaniards Discouraged.
HAVANA, Dec. 12.—The plans of the insurgents to strike a blow near the city have been checked, according to the official account, but the concentration of their forces is such as to make it unlikely that the insurgent bands will surrender, as the Spanish authorities have been hoping.

The business concerns of the city are much discouraged by the actual situation. They do not now look forward to a speedy end of the revolution. All say that they have abandoned the hope that the insurgents will surrender or accept the conditions of autonomy.

Senor Enrique Capriles, governor of the Province of Santiago de Cuba, in a conversation with the foreign consuls, told them that the state of the island was very serious and that he considered the island of Cuba lost.

REALLY MEANS WAR.

The President's Message Viewed in That Light by Diplomats.

All Democratic Senators But Two Opposed to Hawaii. Fight Against Civil Service Law Se-rious. Pension Bill a Troublesome Thing.

JOURNAL BUREAU.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13.

That members of the Diplomatic Corps in Washington do not regard that portion of President McKinley's message that deals with Cuba as a forerunner of white winged peace, is shown by the following remarks of a prominent diplomat: "From the diplomatic point of view, it is a mystery how the American press and public can consider the President's language conservative and peaceful. I think, and I am satisfied that every representative of a foreign government in Washington agrees with me, that his message was about as radical and warlike in meaning as he could have made it, unless it had actually been a proclamation declaring war against Spain. He tells Spain that unless it can finish the war in Cuba in a reasonable time, this government will do so by force. Now as every well informed person knows that there isn't the slightest chance that Spain will end the war in Cuba in a reasonable time, that was about the same as the U. S. saying to Spain: 'You may as well get ready to fight me, as you will have to do it in about six months.'"

The Democratic Senators are already with two exceptions solidly opposed to the annexation of Hawaii, and the House Democrats are going to declare against annexation at a caucus to be held this week. Still the advocates of annexation say that it is certain to be accomplished at this session. A lobby plentifully supplied with money, is working hard against annexation, and its agents will state of settlement as long as possible, if they cannot defeat it, as their pay will stop as soon as the question is settled either way.

It has become apparent that the fight on the civil service law is no trifling matter, even if it is being conducted against the wishes of the President. Leading Republican Representatives have attacked the law on the floor of the House, when they had to strain a point to do so, and sixty odd Republican members of the House who oppose the law as it now stands met in caucus to discuss the best way to conduct their fight against it. That was at least fifty more than were supposed to be willing to be counted as publicly hostile to the law, and has had an alarming effect upon those who stand by the law, and have generally been disposed to poke fun at all talk of fighting it.

History does not repeat itself with more certainty than certain phases of a session of Congress. One of these phases is the short but acrimonious debate which never fails to precede the passage of the regular Pension Appropriation bill by the House. Somehow everybody knows that these little sharp sentences have got to be spoken; consequently they do not attract the attention they deserve, concerning as they do, the expenditure of more than one third of the government's income. The fact is, as most people in Washington know, that the average Congressman is mortally afraid of the Pension question, and desires to see the bill disposed of as speedily as possible.

The present appropriation exceeds $141,000,000, and there is a general belief that it is eight or ten million below what will be spent by the Pension Bureau during the next fiscal year.

Many Republicans, while honestly hoping that Representative Dingley is a true prophet when he says there will be a surplus of ten million dollars during the next fiscal year have their doubts about it.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF BUILDING UP AND SETTLING

RIVERSIDE,

With desirable occupants and owners, I now make for a limited time the following advantageous proposal:

LOTS!

ONLY $250.00. $5 CASH DOWN. BALANCE $1.00 A WEEK.

Every man of moderate means, and every man working on a salary, may own a home. Buy a home and pay for it in installments. When the first payment is made, I will give you a guarantee to make on a deed for the lot when all payments on same are made, "a pass book for weekly payments."

Safer than a savings bank, and far more profitable. When the lot is paid for, I will build you a MODERN COTTAGE. (your choice of plan) to be paid for in monthly installments. Payments but little more than you would pay rent. For example, a cottage costing $2,000, will cost in monthly payments, $30, for 7 years, and the house and lot is yours.

If you want a smaller cottage, say to cost $1,200. The monthly payments will be $18. At the end of 7 years you own a house and lot in a desirable locality, increasing in value every day.
