Death of Mrs. Rosa Hall Ashe. Davis Goes to Washington. Guarding The Office. Keep Lynchites Moving. Cost of Convicts.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C. Jan. 10.

Only five of the convicts will just yet be employed in the shirt factory to be established at the penitentiary. The chapel is to be used for the present as the big west wing is not fitted up, and it would cost so much to equip it. There are only about 175 convicts in the penitentiary proper, the rest being out on the farms. In the big penitentiary garden 35,000 cabbage plants have been set out.

On Saturday the Railroad commissioners had Col. A. B. Andrews, and his chief clerk Henry Miller before them to answer as to the issuing of passes, and also had J. B. Atkinson and Mr. Pitts up to tell about reduced freight rates on furniture for Mrs. Wilson, a widow lady, for the Round Knob Hotel. The questions were not answered, and so these gentlemen were given until Thursday to either answer or else show why they should not held for contempt.

Early this morning at the home of Capt. S. A. Ashe, Mrs. Rosa Hall Ashe died. She was in her 82nd year. She was the aunt of Capt. Ashe and had lived here with him for many years. She has been a widow since 1859. Her only child, Dr. Alexander died in 1866. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Waddell, of Tarboro and Miss Lennie Hill of Petersburg, Va.

died the people of Wilmington, and ruined the Methodist church there, and who was adjudged insane in 1892 has been dismissed from the Asylum. The court in Wilmington last week not probed his case, when Dr. Kirby informed the authorities that he was ready to be dismissed. He will go to Washington city and there begin life anew.

The Rogers-Griley Company will be the next attraction in the street course, that will appear here. This troupe will be here on the 13th.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Weston last night preached a sermon at the Good Shepherd Church on Polycarp the Martyr. Senator Butler's latest bid, politically, is for the Supreme Court Judges and the judges of the lower courts to be elected by the people and for a period of 8 years this plan to go into effect in 1900.

The "Bal Poudre" to be given at the Park Hotel by the "Ministering Circle of King's Daughters" will be on the night of the 14th instead of the 11th.

It is said that a Federal court Judge says that the R. R. Commission has no jurisdiction over railroads for issuing passes when these railroads run into other States. That the inter-state common law comes in in that case. The Commission has evidently begun to see that its position is rather ticklish.

The railroad commission office is strictly guarded day and night by James Mott, a son of Dr. J. J. Mott. It is by order of the Governor that such is the case.

It is noted with much pleasure, that the people of Wilmington have found sufficient grounds to justify the arrest of any of the "Lynchites" who try to preach their doctrine in that city. If such is the case can they not be driven out of the State. What are the State authorities doing to allow such a band of immoral people to practice openly their vile beliefs and not expel them from the State.

Ex-Judge T. B. Womack chief clerk to collector Simmons is appointed assistant general counsel of the American Tobacco Company with headquarters in New York. He will assist W. W. Fuller who is the general counsel and will go to points where suits are to be brought.

It is given out that the cost of county convicts on the road here is only 21 cts. a day each. This includes food, clothing, medical attendance and quartering. Wake Superior Court meets here today with 102 cases on the docket.

Hanna Stock Strong.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 9.—The Hanna managers say tonight that they have the necessary 73 votes to re-elect the Senator. Representative Griffith, of Union, who was recently converted to Hanna, declares he will remain with the Senator, but his wife is trying to win him over to the other side.

The air is full of charges and counter-charges of bribery. These are vigorously denied.

The opposition to Hanna has no betting yet in its favor. Bets, ranging from $500 to $5,000, for even money on Hanna's election have remained posted at the Neil House two days without takers, and there are other bets offered, among them being one of $500 by General Crosvener on Hanna's election. None of the wagers is on the result of the first or any other ballot, but all are offered on the final result.

AMERICAN SPHINX.

Speaker Reed Can be Exceedingly Sly at Times.

He Has Taken no Side on the Civil Service Fight. Many Members Pledged to a Bill Cabinet Favors Modification of Rules.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C. Jan. 10, '98.

Speaker Reed, when it suits his purpose to do so, can play the role of the sphinx in a manner that has never been surpassed by any man in public life. He has been playing it during the turmoil in the House over the question of modifying or repealing the civil service law, and up to this time all attempts to ascertain where he stands have failed. During the warm debate, which began the day Congress reassembled and which still continues, he has not said or done anything to indicate which side, if either, he sympathizes with. The statement that the anti were only making a rumpus on the subject for use among their constituents has made them more determined than ever to do something. They have openly told their Republican colleagues that if they would not help them to pass a bill modifying the civil service law they would unite with the Democrats for the purpose of passing a bill for the repeal of the law. More than one hundred Republicans are said to have promised to vote for the bill modifying the civil service law that is to be reported to the House from the committee on civil service, provided that the bill is not more radical than the one introduced last week, which confines the operation of the civil service law to offices with salaries from $900 to $1,800 a year, and to localities where there are more than 25 employees.

"Every time the Senate deviates from its deliberative custom" said a Senator noted for his conservatism, "it does something that it would better have left undone." He was referring especially to the resolution adopted without consideration by the Senate just previous to the recess, calling upon the members of the Cabinet for their opinions of the civil service law and rules. Nobody seems to have paid any attention to the somewhat extraordinary nature of that resolution until the answers began to come in and be read to the Senate. Then it dawned upon many Senators, especially those who are sticklers for precedent and propriety, that the resolution, asking members of the Cabinet to send their opinions to the Senate of something that the President had full authority to regulate without additional legislation, was a violation of both.

Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, called attention to this and gave notice that he would move to refer all the answers to the President, where they properly belong, and Senator Hoar said apologetically: "It seems to me a most extraordinary proceeding for the Senate to direct the head of Departments to give their opinions as to the wisdom of the President's order. That is what we have done, inadvertently no doubt. Had my attention been drawn to it I should have moved to rescind the order." While all of the Cabinet did not agree as to the extent of the modifications of the civil service rules, they all favored modification to some extent.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF BUILDING UP AND SETTLEMENT

RIVERSIDE,

With desirable occupants and owners, I now make for a limited time the following advantageous proposal:

LOTS!

Located on National Avenue, and others equally desirable. All lots to be connected with complete Sewerage System.

ONLY $250.00. $5 CASH DOWN. BALANCE $1.00 A WEEK.

Why Pay Rent

When for $5 cash down and payments of $1 per week, you can buy a desirable lot, and after the lot is paid for, erect a handsome cottage, to be paid for in monthly installments. Or if you want to build at once, for $250, cash and small monthly payments, you can buy a lot and build a house in a good locality, where values are absolutely sure to advance.

Under my home building system you can build at once after a cash payment of the value of the lot. I will build for you a house, or will advance you the money to build.

You extinguish both principal and interest by monthly installments, paid exactly the same as rent, but with this difference—if paid for rent, every dollar is wasted, if paid under my system, every dollar is saved.

A more favorable opportunity will never be offered, to provide a home. You should act at once. Size of lots 50 x 200 feet.

Full information, maps, etc., call on A. M. BAKER, Agent, 37 Pollock Street. WILLIAM DUNN.
