PERSECUTION CONTINUES

And Southern Railway Officials Are Kept Busy.

Raleigh's Health Record. Swamp Lands Wanted. Otho Wilson After Postoffice. State Farm Mix Up. Who Are Party Killers.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 29.

And still the persecution of Col. A. B. Andrews and the Southern R. R. goes on. Russell yesterday afternoon instituted 8 civil cases against Col. Andrews for $40,000 in penalties for failure to produce information for the R. R. Commissioners to use. Summons was served on Col. Andrews and are returnable the first Monday before the first Monday in March. The sum of $5,000 is claimed in each case. That is the outside limit in the penalty cases. Governor Russell signs himself as principal in the action. Messrs Cook, Douglas and Simms are his attorneys. Col. Andrews and his counsel yesterday appeared before the commission and asked as to the decision in the contempt cases—as he wished to leave the city he wanted to know if he would be allowed to do so, or if he was to be jailed. Commissioner Abbott was the only one of this lovely trio who had any mind on the matter—the other two had come to no decision. The railroad officials who had been here before this board of commissioners have all returned to their homes.

There was a meeting of the city board of health today to take a look at snail-pox situation. Raleigh health record is so fine that the city is well prepared to cope with the disease if it should appear here. The city physicians or rather the physicians to the city give a remarkable report. Out of 1091 cases of sickness they

CATARH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant Simple, But Not Effective Cure For It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headache, feeble appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has a time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach.

To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Disastase, Asseptic Pepsin, a little Nux. Golden Seal and fruit acids.

These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and, not being a patent medicine, can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom, passing backward into the throat, reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling."

I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at drug stores.

were called to last year, there were only 29 deaths. There are two of the Raleigh doctors who are employed by the city as physicians to the poor.

Mr. John A. Ramsey, who is the engineer to the State Board of Education, and who has charge of the swamp lands says that there are several offers to purchase this swamp land. One man from Pennsylvania wants 50,000 acres.

There are 31 applicants for admission to the Sanitarium for colored people at Southern Pines, but nearly all have had to be refused as the means to enlarge its capacity is not in hand. The project is only in its infancy and but few rooms are ready for patients.

Otho Wilson comes in to make the run for the Raleigh postmastership in place of the negro Jim Young, but he has little showing.

The old cotton rates have been restored by the R. R. commissioners made a uniform rate for cotton, but these new men have knocked all that out. The passenger rate will not be decided until the next meeting of the commission. Each road will be considered separately in fixing the rate.

The Western Union Telegraph company has until April to file its exceptions to the rate filed for them. The fertilizer rate was very much modified. Superintendent Newborne of the penitentiary says he thinks he will be able to make the penitentiary self supporting, that it takes between $130,000 and $140,000 a year for it. There is quite a falling off in the number of convicts. There used to be about 1400, now there are only 1068. He says they have no idea of going into the phosphate business as will not buy Cast & Hayne. That it is too risky but they will furnish convicts to the purchaser. Supervisor of the Castle Hayne farm Joe Woods has been dismissed and Russell's friend Cannon of Brunswick put in. Woods was a friend of the Dockery's hence the change. Newborne declares the Anson county farm ought never to have been leased, at the high figures $2,500 annually. The lease of the Halifax farm, on the Roanoke, has only 2 more years to run, and it will not be renewed. He thinks the lease of the Tillery farm on the Roanoke a good one. Tillery furnishes 30 ploughs and half the fertilizer. He says he will plant all the food crops that it will require to feed the people and animals of the penitentiary, both at the prison proper and all on the farms. All the women have been put back here in the penitentiary and will go in the shirt factory.

At a meeting of the directors of the Soldiers Home yesterday all the old officers were re-elected. Capt. Brooks succeeds Capt. Fuller as superintendent, Capt. Fuller being incapacitated by a broken hip.

Governor Russell seems by his message to President McKinley to think Pritchard can kill the Republican party in North Carolina, but the leading Republicans in the State think that Russell need not fret. He alone can and will kill it much faster than Pritchard.

Judge Robinson is severely criticised for his slighting remarks on the bench at different times.

Cotton Mill Troubles.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 27.—The reduction of wages in the cotton mills of New England continues. A cut of ten per cent in the wages of operatives in the mills of Lawrence, Mass., was made today. The cut affects five thousand persons.

In the other strike centers the situation is unchanged. The operatives have refused to return to work except under the old scale. The cold weather is causing suffering among the poorer families.

BURIED IN SNOW.

A Great Fall of the Beautiful Snow in New York. Cold Weather in The North.

New York, January 29.—A great fall of snow has occurred in this city and vicinity during the last 24 hours. The city authorities are putting forth the greatest effort to keep the streets open for travel.

A thousand carts and four thousand men with shovels are removing the snow from the thoroughfares. The estimated cost of clearing the streets is placed at fifty thousand dollars.

The reports from the New England States show an exceedingly bitter cold wave in that section. In New Hampshire the thermometer registers 34 degrees below zero.

OUR NEXT VISITOR.

President Diaz to Be Our Guest. Birthday of President McKinley. Special to Journal.

WASHINGTON, January 29.—President Diaz, of Mexico has decided to make a visit to the United States. All the necessary arrangements for the trip have been completed, according to advices from the City of Mexico.

Today President McKinley celebrated his 55th birthday.

THEY ARE AGREED.

The President and His Cabinet Claim to Be a Unit.

An Important Week Just Past. The Financial Question. Pierce Debate in the House on "Prosperity." The Increase Pension Bill Falls.

JOURNAL BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.

Important happenings, national and international, have fairly tumbled over each other this week. The week was opened with the selection of a well-known bimetalist to take the place of a more widely known advocate of the single gold standard as director of the U. S. Mint, and by the sending of a U. S. battleship to Havana. This was followed by the declaration of Secretary Gage that the President stood squarely upon the bimetallic plank of the St. Louis platform and that he was earnestly supported by every member of his cabinet. The silver men say these things have been brought about by the Teiler resolution, declaring bonds payable in silver at the option of the government, the adoption of which by the Senate has shown the impossibility of gold standard legislation by this Congress, which is, of course, denied by the administration men, who say that they are merely the result of the determination of the administration not to be misrepresented. All will doubtless hear arguments enough from both points of view as soon as the Congressional campaign opens.

The House devoted an hour one day this week to a political debate, based upon the assertion of a mistrust end man, repeated on the floor of the House by Representative Richardson, of Tenn., that there was no difference between the Cleveland panic and the McKinley boom. The Republicans maintained that the country was prosperous and those who wanted work employed; the Populists and Democrats disputed both claims and pointed to the cotton mill strikes in New England as practical proof that they were right. Among those who participated in the rough and ready debate were Walker and Knox of Massachusetts; Terry, of Arkansas; Richardson, Sims and Gaines, of Tennessee; Greene, of Nebraska; Ridgeley, of Kansas; Cockran, of Missouri; W. A. Stone, of Pennsylvania; Handy, of Delaware; Grosvenor, Norton, and Northway, of Ohio; Jones, of Washington; Lacey, of Iowa; Underwood and Wheeler, of Alabama, and Bell, of Colorado. Several times the House was in such an uproar that it was impossible to hear what elected members were saying, but at no time was it worse than when Grosvenor, of Ohio, referred to Greene, of Nebraska, as a "backwoodsman."

Although it was stated that the [Pension appropriation bill carried anywhere from five to ten million dollars less than will be needed to pay pensions for the next fiscal year, and nobody denied the statement, the Senate voted down Senator Allen's amendment adding $7,000,000 to the amount carried by the bill, and passed the bill without increasing the amount it carried when passed by the House.

Congressmen are so puzzled over the present status of the Cuban question that they are not doing much talking about it. There is general gratification over the sending of a U. S. vessel to Havana, and although the members of the administration have repeatedly asserted that no significance was attached to that act, the belief in Congress is so general that something else is to follow that several resolutions dealing with different phases of the Cuban situation, which were to have been reported this week, have been held back by committees to await the next step of the administration.
