

STILL UPON THE BRINK.

Another week closes with the question of war or peace still in suspense, but with the chances more in favor of war.

During the past week, each day has seemed the last one before a definite decision would be rendered.

Spain continues her war like preparations, at the same time sending forth rumors through the capitals of foreign nations belittling the United States, and at the same time trying to make the Powers waver some private against the impending conflict which shall prevent it.

War preparations in this country have been pushed during the week to the greatest possible extent, and the entire frontier of the United States bristles with the shining muzzles of guns.

President McKinley has been severely criticized during the discussions of the resolutions in the House and Senate, and until the final declaration of war and actual hostilities commence, the President is likely to be held responsible for the delay and uncertainty.

With the passing days, the sentiment of the people of the country remains unchanged, and the war will be entered upon, if necessary, with the full sense of its seriousness and yet with the determination that the honor and rights of this country shall be fully maintained and upheld.

TRUCKERS AND FACTORIES.

The question with the truckers of this section every year, of how are the crops South and North of us, will they be early or late, would not be so seriously considered, if the truckers here had local canneries which would take their surplus raisings, and also when the Northern demand falls off, the fruits and vegetables which are either shipped North, involving a loss, or left to rot in the fields, could be bought, giving the truckers a profit, and establishing a good paying industry.

Given canning factories for New Bern, and the trucking interests of this section will be established upon a certain and safely paying basis.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A. STROUD, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by F. S. DUFFY.

INFLUENCE OF PRECEDENTS.

The most ingenious and plausible argument advanced by the Peace-party in this country, is that of precedent.

Great columns of facts and figures showing the expenses of former wars are brought up; additional figures are shown proving the loss of life; and the figures displayed in regard to the property destruction, and loss to business and trade, are appalling in their immensity.

For a nation to rush into a war without counting or giving thought to the cost of it, or its probable results, would be the height of madness.

But to seriously employ the expense, loss of life, and destruction of property as arguments against going into a war, is hardly worthy of rational disputants.

To urge such precedents, the question might be asked, what is the United States going to war for? Is it for conquest and annexation, or for the purpose of pecuniary gain? Has it for its main and sole object, revenge?

If any of these questions can be replied to in the affirmative, then let us count the cost of every life endangered, of every dollar spent, of every cent of property which may be endangered by a conflict.

But none of these issues are involved in the present crisis with Spain.

The United States has had her citizens ruthlessly murdered, her property destroyed, her President and government officials grossly insulted by the Spanish government and her officials.

And further the question of humanity is involved, in the barbarous atrocities perpetrated by Spain upon the Cubans.

The war with Spain has for its only objects, the maintenance of American rights and honor, and the suppression of such barbaric as Spain has engaged in on the Island of Cuba.

Loss of life, money and property are nothing, when the upholding of American honor and rights, and the suppression of wrongs are involved, and unworthy is the mind urging precedent as good cause for peace at any price.

Coal in the Transvaal.

In one colliery not half a dozen miles from the gold mines I have seen a seam of coal 70 feet in thickness. This coal, though of a low quality, suffices for the purposes of the gold mines, and there is a sufficient quantity of it to outlast for the lives of all the gold miners.

Besides these coal deposits near the gold-fields and those others by the Vaal river, which furnish coal for the railway system far down into Cape Colony, there are literally hundreds, perhaps even thousands, square miles of coal in the Middleburg and Ermelo districts lying between Pretoria and Delagoa Bay.

In the midst of these coal beds is the outcrop of iron ore, and running through them is the lately constructed railway to Delagoa Bay. With these vast coalfields close to a first rate port on the Indian coast the prospects of the coal mining industry seem brilliant.

The Bicycle Fiend.

"One most obtrusive unpleasantness in the conversation of the bicycle fiend," observed a noncyclist, "is his habit of personally appropriating every part and particle of his machine. It is apparently as not enough that he should possess the bicycle in its entirety, but also in detail. 'My wheel,' when uttered two or three times to every sentence, is had enough, but when it comes to 'my saddle,' 'my tires,' 'my valves,' 'my handle bar' and so forth, the effect is both irritating and irrational. I once heard a man discourse for hours upon 'my inner tube.' Being then not so erudite upon the thing as I am now, I had the greatest difficulty in determining what he meant. From the viewpoint of him who does not ride, the possessive case is nowhere so overworked as in the conversation of the bicycle fiend."—New York Sun.

President Kruger on Office Seeking. A good story of President Kruger is told in an article on "Mining and Politics in the Transvaal," in The National Review. Some of the president's young relations applied to him for office. He considered awhile and said, "I can do nothing, for the high offices of the state are in firm hands and for little clerks like you are too stupid."

Editing by the Golden Rule.

A country editor puts the old question in a new shape and says to his subscribers: "Brother, don't stop your paper just because you don't agree with the editor. The last cabbage you sent us didn't agree with us either, but we didn't drop you from our subscription list on that account."—Gordon (Mek.) Journal.

Thirty-four years ago a picturesque scene was enacted in the Danish capital.

A deputation of Greeks stood before the old king of Denmark and asked that they might offer the crown of their country to his great nephew, Prince George. For an answer the old man turned to the youth, bade him take a seat at his side and saluted him as his brother sovereign.

How Bonheur.

The great animal painter, Rosa Bonheur, has just reached her seventy-sixth birthday. She is still marvellously active, and able to work her usual five hours a day. Macaulay's dream is no novelty for her, for she is one of the few French women absolutely permitted to wear such clothing.
